"THE SOURCE"

The Pleiadians are a collective of extraterrestrials from the star system The Pleiades. The Pleiadian culture is ancient and was "seeded" from another universe of love long before Earth was created. They have formed a tremendous society which operates with love, with ideas and ideals that we are yet unfamiliar with. The Pleiadians call themselves our ancient family because many of us came here from The Pleiades to participate in the new experiment of Earth. The Pleiadians are now here as ambassadors from another universe to help Earth through her difficult transition from the third dimension to the fourth dimension and to assist each of us in our personal endeavors of awakening, remembering and knowing.

"THE CHANNEL"

Barbara J. Marciniak has been a student of Metaphysics for many years. She gives credit to the Seth material channeled by Jane Roberts for her insight into the necessity for conscious, intentional creation of personal experience. Barbara travels extensively. In Athens, Greece in May of 1988, she began channeling The Pleiadians after she and a group of friends experienced a spiritual awakening in the Great Pyramid at Giza. Barbara currently lives in Raleigh, North Carolina where she gives class sessions and workshops with The Pleiadians.
Awakening

Part 1

Good evening. We are your ancient family. We come from the star system The Pleiades. We know ourselves as The Pleiadians and we, eons ago, millions of years ago, were your relatives.

When your Earth sphere, Terra, was being formed, there were many who expressed an interest to be pioneers and to go to a new area to learn to experience, to formulate, to create. That was the opportunity and many of our dearly beloved Pleiadians signed on.

The Pleiadian culture is ancient. [It] was seeded from another universe, a universe of love, a universe that moved back to All That Is. The Pleiadians seeded the Pleiadian star system within this universe before the Earth's sphere transfer became available. We formed a tremendous society. We operate with love. We operate with ideas and ideals that you are totally unfamiliar with.

Our technology in your terms would be somewhat similar. We are, in your terms, computerized. We like that term because it represents an overall picture of our abilities. The picture actually only represents one per cent of what we are capable of doing. However, from your point of view, think of us as a computerized society. We are collective energy. We are not of your dimension. The star system of the Pleiades has seven stars, six of which we believe, you may see from the naked eye. There are many planets and we are millions upon millions of miles from your system though we have transportation that can bring us here very quickly. We have many modes of transportation.

Mostly we come in starships. Often mother ships. The mother ships are gigantic, one of your miles, housing thousands. [They are] elongated, one of our fashions, [and] would take, in your terms, days to transport itself here. We have disc ships which can be here quickly, within portions of your day.
We have difficulty at times translating your time system, your hours, your minutes, into what is relative to our system, perhaps less than one quarter of your day. We are an advanced civilization. Our technology is ancient because it is coming from another universe that has evolved back to First Cause.

We chose not to evolve back to First Cause but to go on out of love, to assist the growth of this universe. We were allowed to bring that knowing with us because our technological development is totally in line with the First Cause and we would never operate in any fashion that did not support the love and development of humanity of all creatures in all of this universe. So we were allowed to be here. We were welcomed.

We are the ambassadors, in this star area, this universe, from another universe. We are working with many, not just with Terra, the Earth. We are working in other solar systems, with other planetary creatures, with other creations.

This universe is a vast and new experiment. Different options, we like that word, are being attempted here. Free will reigns in this universe. On Terra you think you have free will but you do not really understand what free will is. Free will encompasses the complete idea that whatever it is that you are wanting you may have. And your sole point in choosing to partake in the planetary system within this universe that has free will was so that you may do whatever it is that you wish.

Terra was formed with specific intents in mind. It was formed to be a center for this solar system, a trade center, a launching pad for ideas. Much like, as different portions of your globe have developed, and different port cities, or areas came into fashion and represented trends, cultural advancements, exchanges of ideas at different points in time, and then fell by the wayside.

The ideal of Terra's role would be the jewel within the universe for its beauty physically to the eye, and this physical beauty would be beheld not just in one dimension but in many dimensions. That it would be a center of tremendous beauty, of tremendous exchange, of freedom, of ideas and beauty and love and peoples, humanities, creatures from all of this universe and star system ideally would have come here and exchanged what it is they had, as goods would be exchanged in the marketplace, with others.

Now, as you know, that has not taken place. Fortunately that is changing. Unfortunately, eons in your past, events occurred that were not anticipated, for when one deals with free will one never knows. There are no expectations with free will, just intentions and hopes. And even intentions sometimes may be transmuted.

Now, that was the original intention. Then eons ago, millions of years ago, there was a disruptive force that became quite pronounced in this area of creation, experimenting as it would be, with another form of being. This experimenting was not evil, it was just another point of view. We speak in very neutral terms so as not to lay blame or prejudice on anyone.

This disruptive force effected Terra greatly. It threw the cosmic forces, the hierarchies into vast confusion. And it has been all these eons, these millions of years that this has been attempted to be righted.

Now, through the last thousands of years we have been assisting the higher spiritual forces, those from the First Cause. Our assistance we freely gave because original family members came to this experiment of Terra and then when those disruptive energies became prevalent and changed the intent of what Terra would be we lost contact with our family members. It was very sad for us, for we had never anticipated this loss.

Being that we as Pleiadians are highly evolved and of great knowing and great connectedness with the First Cause, we knew that this was a temporary loss of family members, though temporary in our terms was millions of years. And though the initial shock was felt literally throughout the universe and universes, we formulated a plan and knew that there would be a time when we would be reunited.

We are your family members who lost contact with you eons ago. We have come to retrieve you. We have come to reestablish contact, to assist you, so that you can now reunite with us, liberate yourselves and choose to come back to the Pleiades or to stay here on Terra and raise the vibration and allow Terra to become what it was originally planned to become, the international exchange, intergalactic international trade exchange center for the universe.

Now, as you may well know, that upon looking at your planet you can shake your head and say, goodness, we have ventured far from our original goal. And, indeed, that is true, you have. However, at this time events are manifesting on your planet that are about to change all of that.

It was known eons ago that there would be a point where the energies would be ripe for contact, for adjustments, for receiving energy for realignment. It was hoped that that juncture would be reached through the opening of the free will bodies, by their own choice, through love.

That is not the case. You have reached critical times. It began peaking 30, 40 years ago, and the activities that have been occurring on this sphere have been of grave concern to all within your universe. The lack of love for humanity, for one another on this planet. Separations of self from self. The missing of the message that you are all one, that you are all connected, that what one does affects the other.

Know that there are many millions on the planet out of the billions, who are awakened, who are moving toward the enlightenment, moving towards the acknowledgment of the First Creator, in whatever minuscule way they can conceive of this vast entity.

What is happening on your planet at this time is that the energy of the First Creator, is being presented to the planet as a whole. When we say "as a whole", there are no groupings that would be select over others. The opportunities exist for everyone. It is the individual humanity's choice to acknowledge the opportunity that presents itself.

[The awakened ones will be] assigned, so to speak, to awaken someone. First Creator energy is now being made available to the planet, on a vast level, vast. It's encircling the sphere. Light frequency is bombarding your planet, though only those who know how to use this energy can feel it. It is as if an invisible force is in your lives and if you are not aware of this invisible force, you will not see it.

Now, if the awakeners approach the awakenees with love, with intent of service, with intent of changing the planetary potential, the planetary history, and also are willing to bond unconditionally with the awakenee, it will be successful. In most cases, those that need now to be awakened are working about this in their dream state and they are in a state of confusion in their waking world and so they are welcoming something that will give them greater power and direction.

The awakenees will need guidance for a short amount of time because of the energy that is available [but] the knowings will happen very quickly, then they, too, [will awaken and empower others]. The more members, the greater members of humanity that are in knowing, the easier the times ahead will be.

We are working, sitting at the edges of our seats. When we say "our", we mean our beings, the star individuals, the star families, the spirit guides, the ascended masters, the callers from the great cause, the First Cause. There are many here. The skies, the atmospheres are full, so to speak, of who we are keeping Terra in force, keeping it alive and vibrant, glowing, and also respecting your free will at the same time.

That is why we say the awakenings are so important at this time. They are of prime concern. Individual awakenings. Word of mouth. It is the best way of accomplishing what it is that needs to be accomplished. Word of mouth. Books are fine. Tapings are fine. But one individual loving another individual liberates, frees. And that individual goes off and creates and effects many others. That is how the process will occur, as we see it.

We stated earlier that Terra is a free will district along with the entire universe, however, there is a code of honor that exists along with free will. And that code of honor represents the respect for life. All of life. The respect, and the commitment to no violation of life. The honoring of life is paramount, and allowing that life.

Now, millions upon millions of years ago when the disruptive forces came in and changed all of that, free will was granted still and we stepped back, and saw and watched, and knew that there would be a time when all of this would come to an apex, as it would be said when the changes could be made.

Disruptive forces have come again. This time they will not succeed. However, the energy is of great influence on the planet at this time because of the technological development and the extent of this technological influence throughout the planet.

We ask that each person individually speak to another. At this point very powerful individuals are being awakened. Those individuals who effect other people, who influence other people are those that are awakening at this time, and are being awakened by those who made agreements, contracts eons ago to perform this service. We see that there will be changes geographically, great changes. Because the changes represent the most benevolent way of realignment. If there were to be great destructions, and there will be some destructions along the lines of warrings, if that were to be the prevalent case upon the entire sphere, it would effect the cosmos so greatly, that in this case it cannot be allowed.

The changes that will happen on the surface of Terra are not definite. They will not be definite until they occur, until energy peaks. The energy will be peaking partially through what's happening on the globe, also through planetary and cosmic influences. The closer you may move towards the misuse of the technology, then of course, Mother Earth, a living, viable, breathing entity, would shift itself rather than destroy itself.

[The] shifts will be of a healing nature, much as the ill person may experience the tremendous fevers and burn and sweat and shake and then heal themselves. If Mother Earth did not shift herself and the misuse of technology would be [a] prevalent paradigm, do you know what would occur? It would be the destruction of the universe.

We do not wish to be annihilated and misuse of your technology on your planet could annihilate a universe. Contemplate on what we are speaking for it is profound.
Many of you are looking for blacks and whites and the universe exists in gray areas. It is not the way you think it is. There is life teeming everywhere that you cannot see. There are many dimensions, there are many forms of beings. What happens in your dimension would affect us all because the building blocks of the universe, of the cosmos are connected. The atoms, the elements are all one. They are universal. Universal tools, so to speak. And through the misuse of one, in one segmented area, it would effect many others. So that is why we say, we are tuning Mother Earth to this knowing. Mother Earth knows this potential happening and would shift herself when the time and the danger becomes great.

Understand that all of these changes are contingent upon the awakenings. If the awakenings happen very quickly and those within the governments, within the arms industries, those within the publishing, communicative areas, television, newspaper, movies, [if] those influential people on the planet are awakened quickly, all could shift. Mother Earth will do whatever is necessary to realign for her own survival.

We are saying that if your intention is to step into the times ahead with joy, and experience, and be a partaker, a conscious partaker of the movement that the planet is selecting, then clearly think of what it is that you want, intend it, plan on it, and then trust that the part of the body located in the solar plexus will guide you along with the heart, to be where it is you need to be. If you are clear in your plannings, if you count on it, if you state it matter of factually, step into the knowing, not the thinking, but the knowing beyond all shadow of a doubt that you will be here in joy, in harmony, in happiness, in creativity, and in greater rejoicing of building the world, the civilization that you all desire, then so shall you be.

Now, think of that for a few moments and choose what it is you want. Examine your hearts about what it is you are wanting. Throw by the wayside those things that are not important to you and put your energy, your thoughts, your hearts, into what it is that is most important. And do not, under any circumstances, be afraid of making a change, for change is going to occur whether you select it or not. So, by consciously selecting a change, whether it be a move, or what have you, [it] may be your method, your means, of moving into the times ahead. Do not resist change. Flow. It may come in the area of relationships, the breakings up or the coming together.

It may come in the area of employment or a lack of. It may come in the area of sudden abundance presenting itself to you or lack of. All these events will motivate you towards something. We ask that you go inside, trust the feelings. Trust yourself. One of the most beneficial endeavors that you will be involved with is forming the extended families. With a networking of thirty to fifty people it will be very powerful. We also wish to speak of the availability of outside communication that is waiting to speak with many of you, that is speaking with each and every one of you though you do not acknowledge it. Vast numbers are willing to help.

We ask you to examine your hearts, relinquish your fears, move towards what it is that will be most important. We suggest, and we will assist in these endeavors, that through your dream states you dare to dream of possibilities that seem outlandish. Awakened ones and those becoming awakened are being fed information through the dream state from the vast numbers and given so called ideas. Instigated information. Potentialities of abilities that are far beyond what is available now on the planet. And these will be fun things. These will be joyful things. These will be loving things, healing things, successful things. Play with your dream states and when one of these crazy ideas comes to you, grasp onto it like a hot air balloon and ride it for a while over the topography of yourself and see where it will take you.

We ask you to approach these times with an open mind, a creative mind, a loving mind, to move into the self. To trust the self. Open the heart. To connect with humanity, to awaken the others. To be gentle with who you are. For your difficulties you will lay down as they are old clothes that you will no longer fit into or wear. Your aches, longings and difficulties can all be laid to rest as you move into this great new garment of being.

Many will be petrified of moving into this time for much must be relinquished. Much must be changed and given up. However, we are saying that if the Earth itself did not change in its seasons, it would be pretty dreary indeed. And so fall needs to come and the winter set to rest so that in spring there may be regrowth, revitalization and awakenings. This is what you'll be experiencing.

We have committed to guide you on this time. There are many who are here loving you, assisting you, doing whatever is necessary. Open your hearts. Open your eyes to what is coming. Do not be afraid. Know that you are surrounded by love and energy greater than at this point you can fathom. So great it is beyond your knowing, though a part of you knows that greatness and brings it to yourself.

We trust that what we have said empowers you, enlightens you, guides you to who you need to be. Move forward. Move in love. Feel the connectedness of all that is.

Look into the eyes of fellow humanity and see yourselves for you are there. Bless each one with the knowing that you have and your awakenings will be greater than you ever imagined.

Call on us for assistance and we will come to you. We send you our blessings, our dearly beloved friends.

Part 2

Editor's Note: The following is an excerpt from a class session.

Good evening. We are here to assist you. We are here to work with the energies of those members of humanity who wish to move forward with their lives, who wish to participate in the great up-liftment of spirit and physical reality that is now being experienced on your earth plane, Terra. We have spoken before about the concept of the shoebox. We would incorporate this material along with questions that those here this evening may have to offer as learning. Understand that a question that one asks is asked for all. So, listen carefully and you all may make a leap [in] accepting who you are. Let us speak for a few moments on the concept of the walls you build around yourself in this shoebox idea.

From our perspective, we see the large portion of the energies attempting to bring in information that is revolutionary, that is expansive and that is perhaps contradictory and controversial as well. The most necessary element that you need to add to your life is something that would act as a catalyst for you to assimilate the information and initiate these ideas into the day-to-day living of your life. In other words, bring them inside the shoebox of your existence. We will be working with you to allow you to expand the territory of the shoebox that you live in, for the shoebox defines the boundaries of information that is legitimate. It defines your perceptions, your experiences. It defines your world.

Your world is as large and as complex or simple as you would design it to be. What we would ask each of you to do is to visualize the image of the shoebox that you have. You may make it plain, you may make it elaborate, any color that you wish. It can be small, it can be large. Visualize the shoebox and place your physical being within it. Next to the physical being place inside the shoebox, place your globe. The images will come to life as we discuss with you the questions that you will all be so gracious to teach yourselves with this evening.

QUESTION: I've heard recently that as part of the change taking place on the planet today the old idea of everything being a lesson has become somewhat obsolete and that, in fact, there are no lessons anymore. From my own personal perspective I believe that growth comes through learning lessons and I don't understand how growth can continue if there are no more lessons.

PLEIADEANS: Understand that all that you hear is one entity's version. Whether they be a discarnate or incarnate entity, you are always hearing someone's version of what they believe to be true. And that holds true for we Pleiadians. You all are nearing a juncture where you would be coming in to be tested over and over and over again. The ride is going to get bummer. It's going to be fun because you will be like on a roller coaster. You may be up one moment peeking over the top, rising to the stars and then suddenly your stomach is way up in the air and you are on the ground. This ride would involve many so-called truths.

Each truth, each place you are on the roller coaster is quite real, is quite legitimate, and the information or the ride of experience that you are receiving is yours to interpret. What you must realize is that you can get off of the roller coaster any time you wish. But you will be choosing the ride because you have something to learn. What you have to learn is that there is a portion of truth that exists within each and every one of you. Essentially, you do not need us to tell you what that truth is.

We merely mirror back to you who we are and we remind you what it is that you know. In direct answer to your question, from our perspective, all existence involves knowing. There is consciousness within all things and all consciousness is learning about its experience no matter how that consciousness is manifested. From our perspective, we do not perceive of a place of being where there [are] no lessons or learning to be done.

That is our opinion and our perspective of a story. Now, understand that all things are true. You can bring whatever information you wish inside of your shoebox. You can design your experience. We are here to give you lessons in many ways of perception so that you form your own truth and stimulate the material and information that is stored within the cells of your being. You all are a portion of First Cause [God]. First Cause branches out and expresses itself so that it has more to bring back to its own experience. And so, from our perspective, First Cause learns much in each and every moment.

QUESTION: What is the correlation between relative truth and absolute truth?
PLEIADIANS: The absolute truth, the essence of absolute truth is the example that we have just shared with you. The greatest truth is that First Cause is within all things and it is First Cause's journey that you are all a part of and it is your challenge to realize it.

QUESTION: In trying to follow a spiritual path I'm feeling great confusion over traditional Christianity and the Bible and the truth in that, or the lack of truth in that, versus the New Age philosophy and, for example, A Course in Miracles. Which path is closer to the correct truth?

PLEIADIANS: When we spoke and said that all is true, it is our tricky way of making you think. And that is what you are learning now. You are third dimensional beings. You are thinkers. You are, on a planetary scale, learning and moving toward becoming fourth dimensional beings which are, if we were to put it into words, perceivers. You are employing the values of the third dimensional world and you are beating up on yourselves, so to speak, and chastising yourself because your life is not in one neat little compartment. If you wish to bring new information into your lives, there is a certain scrambling of data that must take place. This all goes back to the shoebox and your great need to have everything in a file compartment.

The data of your existence, the outline and boundaries of who you are, are quite orderly. When you are attempting to become more and to become greater beings, all of that data must be reshuffled, must be run and analyzed and compared to a new program. When we say that all is true, that is in essence saying to you whatever you choose to believe will indeed be true. It will be the reality that you will live your life in and you will manifest the symbolic representation of that reality within your lives. Your neighbors and your friends and the social structure that you surround yourself with will reflect that back to you. Worlds are not solid places of being. Worlds are probable. Worlds are as flimsy as paper.
Only you do not understand this. You think that your worlds are concrete and you think that certain authoritative structures are correct and you place authority outside of yourself. The Catholic church is no more correct than any other church. The truth that you are attempting to understand now is the absolute truth for yourself. You wish, because of how you have led your life up to now, to be told to follow a certain structure. The highest teachings in our opinion, and this is merely our opinion, are the teachings that point you to yourselves and say to you, "You are First Cause. You are a portion of the great energy. And you, yourselves are thought manifestations of what you think you are."

It is that truth, from our opinion, that we, the Pleiadian culture and many, many, many cultures, use as a primary law of existence for ourselves. What you are all learning to understand is what is true for you and how to make your world work. We would start by saying that you are the center of your world, you are the power in your world. What is it that you want? You want happiness? Do you want safety? Do you want joy? You want harmony? You want personal development? You want peace? You want abundance? You are First Cause.

This power that you have is no new thing. There are those of you who have laid in the gutter or who have been without food, been on the verge of dying and have willed something and had it manifest and thought that you were lucky. It was your desire, your calling of your own power that manifested in front of you. This is a basic law of experience.

QUESTION: You mentioned a couple of times that we choose to be here to experience. Is it, is it as simple as that? When we're disembodied we decide to come back to experience something? I just can't imagine anybody choosing to come here unless they had to do it.

PLEIADIANS: It is much more complex than merely coming here for the experience, although it is the experience that you are after. But it is not as if you are a soul roaming through the ethers with nothing to do and you decide, "Oh, I think it looks cozy down there. I think I'll make a hit on that world." It is not quite that simple. You are a portion of an energy of an oversoul. This great being travels for its own growth through planets, through existences that you do not even comprehend, through existences that in your terms are not real because you cannot see a physical world that they could exist on. But they exist.

There are worlds that exist in empty space, so to speak, that make up shapes and colors and sounds and they are quite legitimate and you have experienced these worlds. In your roamings of being, in your decisions about where you want to go, it would be similar to getting in a car and having an unlimited bank account. In other words, you do not have to worry about how your travels would be financed. You could go wherever you chose. The only restriction is that if you are to travel the United States, you must complete the United States. You would have to go into each State and, perhaps, spend at least one week in each.

When you have finished the journey you may reflect back and say, "There's further growth that I could do in the State of Minnesota. Before I leave this journey and go to Europe with my unlimited funds, it would behoove me if I explore this area." What is occurring on a planetary scale at this time is that all humanities, and none are exempt from this, are attempting to bridge the information that is available to them and bring it into their physical reality. You are attempting to understand and to remember and to perceive that you are a portion of a much larger entity and personality than you have previously thought that you were.

When the Christed one said to you on your planet, "You are not alone," that is what was being said to you. That is what was being triggered to be remembered. You are not alone. Not only are there those, as we represent, who come from the stars, there are those from other dimensions. It is your challenge to wake up to this, and to believe, if you so choose, in enhancing your lives with this information. For these entities are there to bridge worlds and to change the world.
QUESTION: Is there a sensation of heaven and happily ever after?

PLEIADIANS: If you so choose to believe there is, there will be. If you believe in heaven and if you believe upon your translation that you have been a most glorious being and that the pathway is at your feet, then, indeed, that will be your experience. You would create your version of heaven. You all, upon your translation, will create your version of what you think exists on the other side. The myth of heaven was to allow you to believe that something unknown could be a pleasant experience.

Think on what we have been speaking of for you are attempting to bring in much information and whenever one is attempting to bring in new information there is a reshufflimg, and a release of energy that no longer fits. Trust yourself and allow yourself to live in a world that is comfortable and safe and expansive and generous and loving and would give the greatest benefit to all. Make that the boundaries of your truth and your world and you would have an easier time assimilating information.

QUESTION: Do you have some practical suggestions on a day to day basis of how to maintain our centeredness? Apparently our objective is to maintain awareness of who we are and in the chaos of goings on, we seem to lose that little thread of remembering.

PLEIADIANS: It is a portion of your challenge at this time. You forget who you are because it seems to you that it takes time to remember who you are. And it seems that you do not have enough time to bother with this all the time. And so you forget, you trick yourselves into thinking that you are not who you would like to be. It is a thought process. If you wish to maintain greater continuity of the enlightened self, the uplifted self – at different portions of your day inject your thoughts with an empowering affirmation or statement about this continuity. You are complicated beings. We will give an example.
You say, "Alright I'm on a new program now. Starting tomorrow morning I'm going to wake up and I'm going to make a statement to the world about who I would be and then I would make the statement again at perhaps noon and then perhaps again around sunset and then once again before I go to bed. Four times in one day." And you would do very well with this for one week or ten days in your terms. On the eleventh day, perhaps you would forget in the morning when you woke up to say it. Then you would be getting ready for work and you would say, "Oh, I didn't say this and I'll say it very quickly."

Then [at] noontime you say, "Oh, gosh, I'm so busy I don't have time. Well, I'll say it later." Suppertime comes and is gone and you haven't said it. Then you've gone to bed and you say, "Oh, well, I said it this morning, I'll say it later." It is so easy for you because of the distortion of the element that you call time that you allow to run your lives that you miss the essence of who you are. In the moment that you would take to say, "Oh, I don't have time now" or, "I will say it later," you could have said it. It is that simplistic. It is not a paragraph that you must read about yourselves. It is not a major commitment in the element of what you call time. It is a feeling about who you are in the moment of your awareness of that being.

And it is not something that you must continuously focus on but it is something that you would intend to become a portion of your being. Just as sleeping and rising and eating are a portion of your being. You merely need to become aware and to nod your head in honor and saluting the self. The salutation to the self to become a glorious being. It is that simple. Done on a regular basis as a portion of yourself it does not mean that your life indeed would be perfect. For, once again, we are saying to you that you are, all of you, on a roller coaster. There will be ups and downs.

If you know that you are intending the honor and great development of yourself when you are going on these ups and downs you will realize that this is a portion of the growth that you are asking for. It is your challenge to love yourself and not to be critical of the self and to realize that you are designing experiences for your greatest need and growth. The world is a symbolic world and speaks to you. It is your challenge to understand what it is that you are telling yourself. If you have teddy bears dancing in front of you we would say you are a most playful being. If you see boogie men and dragons and lizard people, then we would say, goodness, what fear are you manifesting? Now, we are being playful but we are giving you examples because as humanities that is your way of learning. You like pictures and you like examples.

You like to be able to formulate ideas within your mind and to compare. That is your way of learning. You do not at this time function through osmosis of learning. If that were the case we would not have to say a word. We would merely implant you with energy or attempt to implant you with energy. We have fed you much information and you have been absorbing it on many levels of being. Congratulate yourselves on the great beings that you are and that you are becoming. We would be speaking with you again. We bid you good evening.
The Pleiadians

The earth sphere, Terra, is in a state of great change. Historically, from a linear perspective, you have been told that you have been on your planet for X number of years. Your scientists think that you have been civilized for a short amount of time and evolved from ape to man.

That is completely incorrect. Highly formed Adamic man has been on your planet for eons. Your planet was seeded by extraterrestrials. It was an experiment initiated by the one we call First Cause whom you may refer to as God, Prime Creator, All That Is, whichever you are comfortable with. First Cause is the energy essence of creativity.

First Cause is in all things. Consciousness is within all things. First Cause's primary journey now is to gather information and increase the potential of being. On a global scale, humanities are attempting to understand that your world is a direct result of your thoughts.

Your main challenge at this time [is] to learn how to handle thought manifestation and the manipulation of matter and existence. Once [it] is implanted within you that this is a core, basic idea, a universal law of being, you will be liberating yourselves from a restricted existence that has been boxing you in all these millions of years.

There have been those on your planet who have individually, or within small groupings, taken this information and utilized it and freed themselves from the tethers of three dimensional experience. But what is occurring on your planet and why all are restless is that the movement now is towards a universal knowing and understanding. As each of you learn to expand your own consciousness and allow information and experiences to enter into your reality, as you grow telepathically, you effect those around you, in your family, in your school systems, in your neighborhoods and then, of course, within your world. What will eventually happen is what you call critical mass, when a certain number of individuals achieve a certain state of knowing, others will instantly comprehend.
The times that lie ahead in the next ten to fifteen years are going to be quite interesting. You are going to see your reality turn upside down. You are going to see chaos, confusion. You are going to see a crack in the cultural paradigm structure that has been the reality of your world up until this time.

Historically speaking, your world has been defined most explicitly in the last five hundred to six hundred of your years by scientists and by learned intellectuals and you have not questioned this. The world seems solid. You seem solid. You all seem to live in the same world at the same time. Not so. It is not so at all.

You are moving into the fourth dimension of experience. The third dimensional experience is composed of thinking. The fourth dimensional experience is more involved with perceiving, utilizing the entire being.

You have been defined so precisely that you do not question who you are. You have accepted a thousand years of definition from those you consider authorities because they happen to speak louder or publish books or gather degrees. That is nonsense.

Always question what you hear, including what we are telling you. Become your OWN authority. This is what Terra is moving towards each one discovering their own integrity, their own completeness of being, their own responsibility to themselves and to the world that they participate in.

You will discover how to become this authority by trusting yourselves and by questioning what you are told, particularly from your governments, school systems, television and newspapers. Read between the lines. It would do you a great amount of good.

QUESTION: Some of us are getting to the point where we are no longer willing to listen to the government. We want to know how we can bring about environmental changes.
PLEIADIANS: The changes that are most important for everyone to make are the changes that are within yourselves. We speak over and over again that you are your primary tool to be working with. If you are concerned with the environment and what is occurring, take care of whatever you have, your amount of land. Wherever you are involved, use your thoughts to create a harmony with Mother Nature.

What you must understand is a certain amount of disruption is necessary in order for this shift of consciousness to occur. It seems as if your planet is falling apart environmentally. It is, from our perspective, a necessary path in order to move humanities through their growth. If all were perfect on your planet, in other words, if the environment was in ideal condition, it would not be ripe for the shift in consciousness that will occur. A certain amount of disruption or chaos is necessary to create new order.

Your earth is a sentient being. It is alive. It is conscious. Your greatest step is to align yourself in communication and ask Mother Earth to give you what you need and commit yourself to giving Mother Earth what she needs.

If you feel the need to be involved with others to clean a stream or a lake, that is fine. But it is not for you to go out and wave flags at others. The work that you do is work within your minds. You are mental beings, far more than that, you are spiritual beings. You are thought manifestors.

You can do much more with your thoughts than you can by rac ing around from one committee to another pounding the hammers and the nails. When you use the mind in meditation to bring light to Mother Earth, you act as a bridge from the cosmos and from First Cause to earth and light is carried in.

We say this to allow you to rest easier about your environment. There are extraterrestrial energies that have technologies that could clean your environment up very quickly, within a few days or weeks. If, however, this was done, what do you think would occur?

Those who have been destroying the planet would say "No problem we can keep doing what we are doing, the world is fine." Then you will be back in the same boat.
Terra is working towards becoming the jewel within your sector of the universe that it was originally designed to be. The darkness is being thrown off. Terra is indeed moving towards great enlightenment. There is a state of consciousness that needs to be understood. You are all connected. You are all one. You cannot be here without your earth sphere. Can you understand that? Can you understand that the others need to learn this lesson?

It will be learned. The earth will heal itself. There will be changes, earth changes. You had an experience of an earth change in your past summer when you had the big fires throughout your United States. That is a form of earth change. Your recent experience with the forces of winds, the tornadoes, are forms of changes. As you see these things occurring, rejoice because lives and consciousness are effected. Each time something like this occurs, a new person steps into a state of realization. It is Mother Earth cleansing and healing herself.

Do not worry, your world is not being destroyed. There is great assistance hovering around your planet. Within physical realms and non-physical realms there are multitudes of extraterrestrial beings throughout the solar system here to assist in whatever needs to be done. Because you are a freewill universe, we cannot interfere. We can assist. As you call for assistance we will be giving it for those who wish to consciously evolve themselves into a more dynamic, fulfilling experience. Questions?

QUESTION: I have a question concerning the painful things like alcoholism and abuse that effect many children and many lives and carry over into adulthood and effect relationships. I come from an alcoholic family and I realize that I've chosen that. But the pain and torment from that has created some very confusing choices that I've made that were detrimental to my life. I'm trying to rid myself of that pain, but it's hard for me to put myself in situations that are good for me instead of being attracted to something that is familiar.
PLEIADIANS: All can learn from this story that is being shared, the story about pain and confusion and anger and powerlessness and recognizing that it is a choice of sorts.

First of all, understand that when you are in a state of confusion and you recognize that you are in that state, congratulate yourselves. You are scrambling up old behavior patterns and beliefs and you are disturbing old orders and ways of being so that you can realign them. Do not feel you are going nowhere when you are in a state of chaos and confusion. It is a high state of being as long as you do not perpetually stay there. You prevent yourself from perpetually staying there by honoring, surrendering and acknowledging that you are working on something.

Self-love and trust is essential for personal growth. When one creates a situation that seems to be less than ideal, when one has parents who are not "Father Knows Best" types, it seems as if one perhaps was gypped. But then, if one believes one creates one's own reality and they choose their parents then you can get into a bit of a muddle [about] why you choose a situation that is less than ideal.

One must ask what is it serving for me? In what way am I creating an opportunity for my own growth? What are the challenges of the parents? What is in this for me? As you judge any situation you keep yourself there. Relinquishing the judgment of right or wrong allows one to move through the experience and have compassion for one's own self.

Often you place yourselves in situations of difficulty so that you can help others that are in greater difficulty. If you have a silver spoon life, often it is more difficult for you to relate to the other members of humanity. When you have come from an area of great challenge and less than ideal situations and you are able to see that you are a result of thought manifestation, it is quite simple through great intent and desire to change whatever has been occurring around you.

Because you have finished with the lesson, you see now that you needed to experience those parents and that they needed to learn about their addictive behavior that keeps them sequestered from life. It is a lesson for you as well as for the world. Your families are your mirrors. You are all mirrors for one another. Learn to accept this and surrender to the idea that it is your play you are in. You are the primary actor, the primary writer and director.

Allow yourselves to step outside of the scenario that you are enacting and observe it and see what it is doing for you and then rewrite it. Allow yourself not to annihilate that experience but to build on it, add on to it. You get yourselves in big trouble when you try to erase chunks of your lives. Integrate who you are and make yourselves whole by adding new information, experience and trusting that you are moving towards great opportunities of love, self-love and growth, and that ideally you are working towards service.

Service is the ultimate healing of the self. When one is involved in service, it seems as if one is assisting others. When one is involved in service, one is involved with the ultimate healing of one's own soul. One is liberated, connected with the oneness of being. In order to move into service, you need to have a file full of experience so that you can relate and carry out what is necessary for you to [serve]. Any of you that are finding yourselves in situations of pain, ask yourselves do you believe life is painful? How much pain is necessary? Is it possible to live a life without pain?

Remember that you selected your parents because it was in that nest that you could do your greatest growing and learning. You did not take last choice, for there are no last choices. You are born in the most ideal situation that there is. Your parents are your guardians in the physical world. They structure your belief system and they structure your thoughts. Life does not have to be painful. Examine your basic feelings and beliefs. If you are finding some of them are less than ideal, lay them to rest, discard them as you would go through your closet and pick out the clothes that no longer fit. It is what you all could be doing now with your thoughts. Those that no longer fit and aren't productive or enhance the world as you need to experience it, discard them.

In your mind's eye create a mental visualization in meditation where you have a big box. Inside of this box you place all of the things that you do not need any longer, all of the old behavior patterns and teachings. Mentally forgive your parents for their own ignorance. Forgive them for what they did not know to teach you. Forgive yourself for judging them for what you think they did not do for you. You will see that you will move forward and you will re-pattern and effect many others for your own personal growth.

Remember again, you are your primary tool. You are the lump of clay that you are designing and working with. Keep that in mind. You are working with yourself and not others. Others are a by-product.

Work with the self and you will change the world. Love yourself and you will change the world. Ask that you be shown the way. Call for guidance. Call for assistance. Allow yourself to surrender to the highest good that your self can manifest. And then release and forgive.

QUESTION: I feel that my whole being is getting ready to change, and there is a big fear there of not knowing. I want to know. I am praying for guidance. And the answer that I get now is "wait," and "it's not time" and "patience." Instead of the patience building, I'm reaching a point of impatience.

PLEIADIANS: That is because you are not trusting yourself. You are afraid of what is lying ahead of you. First of all, understand that each of you live in your own world. You agree on a mass level that there is one world, but you each form your own world of experience. If you choose that world to be safe, it will indeed be safe. Within that safety, fearful elements may brush up against you. But, if you believe, that you are guided and you are blessed, and you intend beyond all others that you have a safe world that is joyful, then indeed it shall be. We are not talking about the world that anyone else lives in but you.

When you learn to trust and to commit yourself to a world of safety and beauty, then there is a certain patience that comes as you allow that world to unfold in front of you.
It is up to you to be patient and love who you are and trust that the dark journeys that your soul has chosen to take were all a part of experience which was needed so that you would have a greater understanding of where others choose to go. You, yourself, can carry a light now, and lead them out. But first you must realize what it is that you are and why you have gone there. You would not understand if you did not have first hand experience.

Do not judge what you do and where you have been. Accept your power. Accept who you are. Accept that you carry light for yourselves, and then surrender to your role and be patient and allow it to unfold. Time will accelerate quickly enough for you. Do not rush it ahead. You have many years of work and play ahead, all of you. It is what you are about. You are gathering now. You are gathering your knowledge, your commitment. You are forming your roles of leadership. There will be many pillars that will be needed in the new society. Many who will be needed to stand strong and to believe in themselves. We ask that you accept this responsibility, all of you.

QUESTION: I feel that when one is involved in a search for self that one is quite vulnerable, especially in the sleep state. I've experienced what I felt was a very negative intrusion during this sleep state. Is that possible?

PLEIA DIANS: Your opening statement to us was, "I believe" or "I feel one is vulnerable." That is your essence. That is what you are putting power behind. That is what you are calling to manifest. A demonstration in your belief in vulnerability. So, of course, you would experience anything that would demonstrate that you can indeed be vulnerable to unexpected intrusions. To takeovers. To whatever goes along with being vulnerable.

It is not in your greatest opportunity for growth to believe in your vulnerability or that you can be victimized. You will create for yourself demonstrations. It is more ideal to utilize the thought manifestation to form the world that says "I believe I am safe. I believe I am guided. I believe I am blessed. I believe that I am divinely taught and instructed within my dream state." Can you see the difference?

QUESTION: In choice of words.

PLEIADIANS: In choice of belief. You can choose those words and believe still that you are vulnerable and try to convince yourself that you are not vulnerable. You must search into your life to see why you select the idea that you are vulnerable. Whenever one thinks one is vulnerable, one can say, "but this happened to me to demonstrate that I am indeed vulnerable."

We are saying thought comes first and experience is always secondary. It is never the other way around. It is never that you have the experience and then you base the thought around it. Always your experience is a direct reflection of what you are thinking.

This is why we are saying monitor the thoughts, get to know the self. Speak with others in a loving way. Speak out. "I believe" and "I feel." When you speak in this fashion, you are coming to the core of who you are. And when you come to this area you can see how you form your experience by what you feel and what you think.

If you are finding areas that seem less than ideal, then attempt to change. If you cannot change immediately then, for a few minutes each day you institute the new feeling by adapting the idea that for five minutes you will feel safe and guided. Then go back to feeling vulnerable the rest of the time.

If you do this a few times every day, you will see that your thoughts make you feel one way or another.

QUESTION: Everything that you have said tonight seems to me to be the basis of metaphysical teaching, the way I understand it.
PLEIADIANS: It is so. What we are saying to you, to your planet, is that the information has been here for eons. It has been covered up and kept from you, but it is basic free information. We are merely here to remind you, prod you forward and to give you a direct experience through contact to smooth out any areas where you may have questions and allow you to propel forward. And, for our part, to encourage you, and to send you love, so that you can know that you are love.

You are greatly regarded, and your planet is a beautiful place of being. Be proud of who you are. We are coming here out of choice. We are coming here because we cherish you.

You are multi-dimensional beings and you peek into many realities, all of which are valid, and all of which are real. Awaken yourselves.

It has been our pleasure to speak with you, we send you our blessings. Call on us when you need assistance. Create your own avenues of expression, for you truly are on the journey of greatness.
What is going on?

We are here. It has come to our attention most recently that there are questions [about] this speaking of extraterrestrials and other beings through human vehicles. Many are in great question about this. Many desire this for themselves. Many doubt the validity of the happening. We would like to discuss this because what you are preparing yourselves for is your own experiences along these lines.

This process is available to many. The broadcastings that are going out from the areas outside of your planet, that are circling your planet, that are being sent from various extraterrestrial energies, are in the air. You, or any, can pick this up if you learn how to tune in to vibrations that are looking for the transmitter. As you act as [a] receiver to receive this vibration, you transmit this energy to others.

There may seem to be in this phenomenon called channeling, a variety of information, personalities, characters. This is as it should be because humanities are all unique. They each have their own stamp of identity, the song that their soul sings that brings them into being. And so, each one that will tune in to these electromagnetic wave lengths can interpret what they are hearing according to who they are.

Some may feel that they need to study and work very hard before they are ready or in preparation for this. But another, who lives quite simply and is totally unaware of any sort of New Age happening can one day, simply by being themselves, by trusting, living in the moment, believing in a world that is safe and uplifting, stretch their consciousness and quite naturally tune in to ideas and information that they know is coming from other portions outside of themselves.

The individual, of course, affects to a certain extent, the type of information that is perceived. You, yourselves, know that humanities speak out their beliefs about themselves. [Beliefs] somewhat affect this sort of communication [channeling], so there will always be a certain bit of distortion.

If we were speaking for ten of your years and the vehicle was aligned, there would still be a distortion of information because there would still be territory and experience that would be beyond the vehicle's comprehension.

You are third dimensional beings, quite rooted in your ideas and your beliefs about yourselves. You are attempting to change this idea but society as a whole is quite convinced that you are all solid beings and the world is a solid place. And so, what is occurring is that as you grow, as you alter your perceptions of who you think you are, [there] is always an expansion that lies further.

At present, your experiences are limited as to what you think can be. When you learn to tune in to your own channelings, when you learn to, if you so desire, speak of the vibrations that are within the air, or to allow and invite groups of entities or your Higher Selves to speak through you, you will have a greater perception of the dualities that exist within third dimensional experience. As you learn to give legitimacy to something that does not, cannot be colored in this way, new questions will arise within yourselves.

It takes a while to get used to new experiences, and then one acclimates and adjusts. However, even if you were to do this continually, there is always an adjustment. There is always some new perception of being that you will be attempting to fit into where you presently are.

We share this with you so that you do not allow yourself to move into great frustration with your experiences. Many of you are anxious, many of you are excited. Many of you are concerned about changes that are occurring within yourselves and on the planet as well. It is important to place these anxieties and concerns in the proper perspective. Allow yourselves to be. Do not continually project yourself in anticipation of what lies ahead. Be in your present moment of experience. That moment will unfold continuously into future moments which will perhaps hold answers to your questions from the present.
You have heard us speak that there is a great polarization that is taking place on your planet. The call has gone out, and within the physical vehicles of many on your planet there is a resonating, a pre-coded chord that has been struck within the souls of certain members of mankind, and they are arising themselves, stretching their being, looking around and waking themselves up in great numbers. There are those who are here to teach, who are here to help others remember, and there are those who refuse, and who will become hardened, and who will become quite rigid in their beliefs, in their understandings. It is this polarization that is occurring at this time.

The world is not solid as your scientists claim it to be. No more than you are solid beings. You must understand this on some level. Learn to feel what we are saying, for that is indeed what this is about, for you to feel what we are telling you, not for you to think it out and to rationalize it, but to feel which world that you are in. Feel how you move through a world that you create and that dances for you, dances to the tune of your thoughts, dances to the song of your being.

For you are, as we always gently remind you, a result of your thought manifestations. This understanding, this knowledge, is growing very deeply within you. We are asking you now, you who we cherish very dearly, to carry within you this understanding. You are creating in each and every moment a new world, because you yourselves know that a new world is forming, and that you are bringing more and more members of humanity onto this world.

That is a portion of what is going on. You each are great participants, you each are great designers in this experience. You each are learning how to become your own speaker of information, your own channel of energy, your own light manifestation of being.

QUESTION: How can we clear our channels and reduce blockages in order to be more in tune with the energy and help it come?
PLEIADIANS: We have always stated to you, quite clearly, that you do your greatest work with yourself. You are your primary tool, and your work is through your thoughts and your understanding of these thoughts. We understand that that is a difficult concept for many. You wish alternative tools to show yourselves that you are really doing something, because you have difficulty in realizing that if you think it, it is occurring. If you wish to align your body and make it in preparation for this change that is coming, you must work within your idea about yourselves. That is most important.

If we tell you to align your thoughts and you do not believe that your thoughts do anything, or that they can be that powerful, then you are not aligning yourselves. You must come to the core of what your own ideas are about yourselves. If you believe that it is important for you to align yourselves with the proper food, then we would say to you indeed, align yourselves with what you feel comfortable with.

We have spoken of the animal consciousness, and how the food chain from our perspective, has become distorted. The consciousness in animals is not aligned with giving up their lives at this time to keep you alive because you are not in reciprocity with the animals. You are like master and slave with them. That is not the ideal situation to be in and to still be eating the animals.

Your bodies are magnificent transmuters of energy and, ideally, you can transmute any energy if you so believe. In addition, if you have beliefs about the use of the body through activities of exercise, and that you are not living up to this, then align yourself with what is necessary. If you have ideas about your sexuality and the expression of who you are, and you are not living up to this, then place yourselves in alignment with this. We cannot give you a list of do's and don'ts because you need to look to yourselves to see how you judge yourselves and what limitations you place on yourselves.

Understand that the shape of the body, the health of the body, is not necessarily limiting the spiritual development. One could be ridden with disease and on the death bed and have the most enlightening feeling of existence. You may utilize your body and your energies in whichever way suits you.

We would say to you always, to place yourself first in comfort with what you are eating and that what you place into your body you ask that vibrations become harmonious with your own vibrations and assist you in your own health and growth. That in itself will save you a lot of difficulty.

Practically speaking, whatever you are discovering your feelings are about your own personal development, we would recommend that at least once a day for five minutes or so to see yourself involved in receiving light. You may see an individual, or an entity, present you with light in your hands through a star, through a ball, through a beam, through a cluster. Use your own creative abilities. Believe in them. Call this energy to yourself and become the designer and the authority of your own experience. A good time to do this is when you are driving your cars.

Your eyes do not have to be closed for these situations. Say, "I am light. I am light. I welcome light into my life. I am allowing myself to develop into a light experience of being."

Anything that you focus on and anything that you feel moved to express along this line is correct for you. It is your intention of experience that will create the experience. It is your centeredness within the present, the now-ness of your being, that will always keep you moving towards this great call.

What we are saying is that you are all quite capable. With a bit of guidance and understanding about the limitations that you have so innocently placed around yourselves, as you learn to strip these down, you will find that you will be changing quite miraculously.

QUESTION: I have a problem with the idea that our feelings are true and we shouldn't trust our rational thought. I believe your feelings can deceive you just as much as your rational discourse.
PLEIADIANS: This individual has said that he believes that your feelings can be misleading. That is his belief. That is the belief that he will always have to work with until he changes to a belief that says, "my feelings guide me to wherever I need to be." It is your choice whether you will trust these feelings, whether you will question or mistrust them.

Feelings, impulses, the imagination, are all gifts. They are all a part of the built-in guidance system that is a part of humanities. When you learn to develop belief systems that are in accordance with these innate abilities they can steer you in the direction of your greatest growth.

What we are saying is to tap into areas that are there to guide you. Discover what beliefs you have about those areas that may perhaps limit the extent of their assistance within your lives or that may disallow what they can do for you. Whenever you are in a state where you are suspicious of yourself, you are in an area that needs examination.

You are glorious, joyful beings. If you align yourselves with proper beliefs about yourselves, [you] will spontaneously grow and blossom. Listen to yourselves when you speak. Understand that you are speaking the parameters of your experience. You are saying to the world, "this is how I structure myself. This is how I structure my experience. I do not always trust my feelings." Then you will have to learn how to live within that parameter. You will have to set up a device to understand when to trust and when not to trust.

Learn that the body speaks to you and that you can, if you choose, learn to trust your feelings.

They will not signal you to do something inappropriate. You learn to recognize how the feelings can mask certain territory of experience you do not wish to look into.

When one is afraid, when that is the basic belief, that one has to watch out, the body will signal fear when it is unnecessary. The body is responding to the mind which expects fearful situations around every comer. And so the body is continuously afraid of where it could be going and it is shutting down, and it is sending off fear. But the fear is programmed by the mind itself.
This is why we say be very aware of your thought processes and belief systems. Whatever you are believing is what you are working on. Attempt to step outside of your belief system and relinquish certain amounts of control. Allow yourselves to realize that what you think is your world. Do yourself a favor to expedite your development.

Create belief systems that you can comfortably live within that enhance your experience and not limit it. You may create and develop whatever belief system you like. We are merely saying to utilize the tools that are innately yours to flower and grow.

QUESTION: Could you talk more about the process of implanting knowledge in our beings?

PLEIADIANS: The knowledge that is being fed to you is not just the words we have been speaking. Information travels on thought beams, it travels on light beams. Thought and light are greatly intertwined. They are one. Thought to you is a more complete and familiar energy than is light. Light is more intellectual for you. But that will be changing.

The society that you are moving toward is one of learning and power through thought. You came [to this class] to exchange and surrender a certain set of beliefs and to make room for new information that you could consider and then to pick up your other beliefs and incorporate if you so choose, what it is that you have heard. That is occurring on one level. On other levels of experience, there is energy in the room. And it moves out and connects with each and every one of you.

The energy is partly garnished and brought here by we Pleiadians, but each of you bring a covey of guides with you, Higher Selves, and each of you are surrounded by those who would assist you, by those who would bring you to your greatest development. As we speak, those that are around you and working with you teach you as well. They take information that is nonverbal and implant it. They call it to you and put it into your etheric field, your aura, your Higher Self, your Universal Mind. It's there for you to sort out and discover later.

When you may be driving by yourself, walking in the fields, fishing at a stream, or flying in the air, you catch a thought that comes to you out of nowhere. You are selecting and bringing to yourself the information that is carried to you by those who surround you and who find you ripe for connecting.

If you wish to be riper and to have more intuitive knowings and understandings, then open yourself to this experience. By opening yourself to this experience, you may quite consciously state your beliefs and your intents that you are now prepared to receive and understand material and information about yourself, about your existence, about your earth plane that was out of reach prior to this time.

As you begin to say this, that you are now ready to receive this information, be prepared, for you will receive it from many directions. Books will be shoved into your hands. Dreams will take you around the universe. Many will be coming to invite you places or to share with you what they have found. Remember, we share with you a picture of your reality so you can facilitate your experience here, so that you can enjoy yourselves within these times, because these times are going to be full of change.

The world will be turned upside down to a certain extent. All activities are probable and contingent upon humanity's development. As each learns more, the world can be a more harmonious place. Still, there is going to be a need to complete the change. It is probable that you will see much collapse within the system as you know it, because the system is corrupted.

Think about structures that exist on your planet. They no longer hold up to the new belief systems that are bringing in new energies. Do not be afraid of change. We are here to guide, as many are here to guide, to allow you to feel comfortable, so that you can understand the world in its transition, so that you can know that you have chosen a place of being.
Through your thoughts you will select the experience that you desire. If you see certain structures falling apart around you, you decide how you are going to be affected by this. Understand when there is great turmoil and collapse, there is a great need for restructuring, rebuilding. This is what you are being prepared for. To rebuild with new values, with new basic laws.

You all are potential givers of new principles of existence. As you learn to open yourself to this information through the universal energies that are everywhere, and through your belief that you can speak these energies, and that you are indeed coming into your own glory, you will do this.

You have taken on much light to carry you through times that will be of great challenge and upliftment. We welcome you to the cosmos and to the intimacy of your being. We send you our love and our great blessings and our congratulations.
The Search for Yourselves

We are here. This evening we would be speaking about the ability to unite and become whole with oneself and one's ideals. Many of you are coming to a point of recognizing that there are many facets of who you are and many different approaches to the expression of who you are.

What it is essential for you to do is unite that ideal self with the self that considers itself whole on one hand and distorted and disjointed on another. What you are attempting to do in your reality, is to see how many facets of the self there indeed are, how to move your experience from one aspect of your being to another, to feel that you are indeed growing and accumulating an understanding of your reality that up until this point in time was not supported, was not recognized and basically was denied its existence.

What we are speaking of is how to keep the central channel open and clear and whole and united and still at your own whim and your own adventure and your own joy and understanding, move that channel to other portions of experience and other realities where you can gather information whether it comes from your so called past lives, or a past history of the planet or the universe, or a future time. Bear in mind that you are at a wonderful portion of your mind because you have gathered certain information and you are now able to put it to use. Please feel free to ask whatever you wish and we will attempt to enlarge the perspective that you presently have about your reality.

QUESTION: How can we get people to focus on the same types of things?

PLEIADIANS: Your greatest homework is done with the self and you do not need to go out and wave the flags to the world. As you learn to feel light within yourselves and to effect through your thoughts, and have the love channeled into Mother Earth, and as you learn to bless where you live and take care of your portion of Terra, then you will affect others, for your vibration goes out and like attracts like. You will draw to yourself who you need to assist you.

There is a fine line between being responsible for yourself and moving out in a step of social consciousness, called service, into the world. As you learn to have your own life work, and to manifest quite easily what you are wanting, a natural portion of your evolution would move you to a place where you would desire greater experience. A portion of that greater experience is learned from others, and so you move into a role, not where you are saving others, but where you are enhancing your own work. None need to be saved by you or anyone.

Your primary work is with the self. The self is the portion of your experience that you are attempting to master. As you master who you are, you have tremendous abilities to draw to yourself others who are doing the same thing. You will join, and you will form new areas to learn about, and you will uncover new portions of your power and experience.

In this way, the world will not be destroyed. The world will not be covered over and ruined through pollution. You all think that [your world] is a solid ball that sits there in space. From one perspective, it is indeed true. But it is not the only, so called fact, about your world.

Your world has gone through much turmoil, much change. The condition in the world at this time is a direct reflection of the condition of the experiential soul entity of many of [the] humanities on the planet. So as you have your great pockets of beauty, you also have your great areas scarred with ugliness and great difficulty. Understand that this is not bad, so to speak. It is a learning process that you are all on, and it is a great process indeed.

The further you remove yourself from judgment and can accept the scarred and marred portions of your world as portions of energy learning, the greater you can heal that. The more you resist, the more you wish to have control and change, the more you are living out your own beliefs and the more you are limiting your own experience. Experience is to allow, and to joyfully create and not condemn another because they do not think or feel the way that you do.

QUESTION: What challenge might you give to trigger our unfolding?

PLEIADIANS: To keep this general and have all maintaining their own interest, there are two things. The challenge is to maintain joy. You all know that is a challenge indeed, for you all have your moods and your fluctuations. The challenge is to maintain joy and to vibrate and resonate completely in the time that you are finding yourself, where your experience lies.

The trick is to have that knowing always in your moments, for who you are comes out of that moment. We have a great empathy for you. We see where you, as humanities, have come from. We see the challenges that face you, the society that imprisons you, that would control and mold you to be less than you are capable of being.

QUESTION: Supposedly we knew that it was going to be a challenge.

PLEIADIANS: Indeed, and you also asked for assistance. You also came in vast numbers at this particular time [which was] designed by you all so that you would take the ultimate challenge. You knew that there would be great assistance. But you all had to rise to the challenge of recognizing that assistance that will be coming to you from all the teachings that are available now. And, not only to recognize it, but to put it to use and not deny the great teaching that you, yourselves, have set up for yourselves, so that you, yourselves, can move beyond who you are.

It is complicated. It is quite simple. It is why we are saying to maintain your joy. That is not, at your stage of development, an easy thing to do.
You all understand the power of the telepathic thought. You all understand that telepathy is continuously going out in your society and in your world. Have you noticed how more uncomfortable it is for you in the last, perhaps six months to a year, to be in large crowds of people unless it is a very selected, controlled group of like mind? If you are going to hear a certain someone speak and you all admire this person, you all have a certain thread in common. If you go into large cities and walk down the streets or go to football games or wherever mass humanities can be sending out massive amounts of telepathic thought, and you do not vibrate with this, it is very difficult for the receiving vehicle to handle all this chatter that it does not agree with.

This is why we are saying, it is difficult for you. This is from our point of view now, it is a concession that we are making so that you see what you are working with. It is difficult for you to maintain this joy in the moment. It is easier to maintain the focus in the moment than it is the joy.

At this time in your development, you have not learned how to shield and re-channel all of this data that floats around. To a large extent, you set yourselves up to be affected by many around you. It would behoove you all to place yourself in a shield so that you do not randomly pick up information that you do not need. You all think that germs fly in the air and that you could pick them up and catch sicknesses. If you are going to worry about something, [it should be] the thoughts that are flying through the air that you are calling to yourselves, that you are supporting yourselves with and allowing yourselves to be affected by.

It would stand you all in good service if you saw yourselves more as a solid flame of being and that the thoughts that came to you that were of your same nature resonated with the flame and those that were not, would dissolve. In that way you can maintain an image of yourselves as being a carrier of light into areas perhaps where light is not so common.

QUESTION: How can we shield ourselves from negativity?
PLEIADIANS: It is how you think of yourself. It is being in that moment aware of what goes on around you, even if you are not aware of it. Believe that those thoughts are there. Make it a portion of your living experience that you understand thoughts are around you everywhere and that you, yourself, are the center of your being. It is remembering this, it is carrying your power, it is carrying your light flame of being into all situations and not keeping it like a flashlight and turning it on and off whenever you need it.

Some of you come to your gatherings or you set yourself up for meditation and you turn your light on. You know that you are a light being. Then you go off into the world and you shut it off. It does not do you the best of service to yourself and your personal development. Remember who you are.

You are all portions of beings who are striving in a most glorious way to become more. As you remember that and as you remember that there are those who would assist you as your guardian, guides, advisors, as you learn to recognize who you are and what path you are headed on, you can carry this out to the fullest expression of joy. You would be astounded at what would start happening to you.

Remember that you are this light being, this light entity and you will carry a steadfastness of power and beauty to wherever you are going and you will not have to feel or be affected by the vibrations of others. You will carry the vibration and you do not know what energy you pass from you and affect others who perhaps are in great need of love or recognition. There are numbers on your planet who have been highly evolved beings and it was in a state of grace to be in their presence. This is what you are learning. This is what you need to recognize. [Do] not advertise by word of mouth. Live by aura of being. It is a high state.

QUESTION: I deeply desire to know myself and I believe in joy. I ask for your assistance.
PLEIADIANS: What is it that you think we can do? If you are in joy, you are in power. Do not give your power away. As you learn to resonate with greater joy, and as you learn to see that joy is bursting forth everywhere within the world, your lives would change.

QUESTION: What about the fear of power and the fear of failure?

PLEIADIANS: There are a number of issues one deals with when one deals with fear of power. If one fears power and is not ready for it, perhaps one has misused power, or perhaps one has been told tales of power and is afraid of one's own power. Or, perhaps you have created situations where power does not seem like so much fun because you have a distorted belief about power.

When we speak of power, we talk about no power that is over another. We talk about awakening a power within each and every human being and that power stays there inside the being and that power is a belief that one has, a resource that is extremely valuable, that one values beyond all else. That power one taps into because that power keeps you alive. It keeps your experience joyful, creative and of great variety. If you are afraid of your own power, then essentially you are afraid of your self. If you find that you are having confusing beliefs about your power and your selves, it would behoove you all on a daily basis, a few times a day to close your eyes and to say to yourself, "I am who I am." Develop a love for yourself, and get in touch with what and who this being is.

As you learn to love the entity that you are, you will develop a love for the power that you have. That power will allow you to move through your life with happiness and harmony. We are not speaking of a power over others at all for each is in charge of yourselves. When you are fearing power, often it is because of how you have used that power over others. The truly powerful being is one who manifests in the highest form of joy and experience, and maintains great harmony in their daily life. That is power.
QUESTION: How does one relinquish judgment?

PLEIADIANS: One looks at one's own life and becomes tired of being judged. If you are judging others, you and your life are being judged. If you are passing judgment on others, as far as what they would be doing, whether it be right or wrong, others would do the same to you in your own life. It would be your mirror experience.

It is easy not to judge. You simply stop it. You simply cut it off in mid sentence and say, "what am I missing by judging?" When you judge, you miss the larger story and you cut yourself off from information. Being that you are information gathering entities you are doing yourself a great disservice.

QUESTION: How can we get ourselves in closer contact and communication with our dream state.

PLEIADIANS: Number one, you must desire it, and number two, you must make a great effort on your part to actively participate within it. Now when we say a great effort, this is not like you have to move mountains of dirt with your hands or to carry great loads of boulders. It is not that sort of work. It is a great commitment on your part to acknowledge first of all that there is a viable reality, one of many that transpires within your dream state.

First Cause, to a large extent, is an idea. First Cause dreamed creation into being. It is a powerful portion of your source, this dreaming state.

It is a tool available for you. There is a wall between the waking world experience and the dream world experience. The greatest facilitator that you have for reaching that wall and making a bridge over it or a hole through it, is to correspond quite literally either by speaking of it or writing of it.

You are creating a validity to it and capturing a reality, pulling it from one reality to another. As you learn to pull one reality to another, you will create a merging of realities so that there will be a you who will eventually wonder which world you are in.

Some of you have had this experience where you know that the dream world is quite valid, and you are not sure if you are dreaming or if you are awake. And some of you have carried this into the waking world. That is power. It is not confusion. That is the understanding of the ability to manipulate form through thought. You all know that in the dream world, the basic law is instantaneous manipulation of matter through thought.

If you wish to explore that territory and become adept in it, then we suggest you begin to change your dreams. Begin to change the experience that you are having while you are having it. Bring a manifestation in the middle of a dream. Manifest a ship and go for a ride in your dreams. See where it is that you end up.

QUESTION: How can one tell the difference between when you are creating your own problems versus a situation when something is beyond our control of being able to change it?

PLEIADIANS: It is never beyond your control. If something seems like it is beyond your control and that you are swept up in a whirlwind, relax and flow with it and get out as soon as you can. Do not fight what you do not want to be in. If you find that you are caught up in this sort of energy that would carry you around, that would seem as if you were helpless, relax and flow with it, and create within your mind that this is not for me and I journey off this wagon as soon as it slows down.

You all forget that you can create whatever you want. You can send out the message that you are ready for new experience. You think you are alone. You all are surrounded by much energy. There are many who would come to your assistance. If you are feeling that you are in lack of information, or lack of resources, or whatever, set about a program to bring them to you.

As you align yourself with light and the greatest fulfillment of your being, you cannot help but draw that to yourself. It is your own negative thought that sabotages self, and keeps you away from the greatest experience.

It is your challenge to create a balance within your life. In order to move into the area of personal development that lies ahead for you, be very aware of your hopes. The joy that balance can bring will open doorways where now you see a wall. There have been doorways that have been opened for you in your most recent times that you did not expect even to be there. You are making the foundations for yourself.

You are building new parameters. So when it seems as if there are no doorways, no new expressions of being, no opportunities, allow yourself to move in balance and to keep the self very centered and to know that doorways [will open] through your patience.

Acknowledge that you are love, that you are light, and that you are on a great journey even if sometimes you cannot recognize [it]. You are indeed great travelers. We honor you and give you our blessings.
We are here. We would like to discuss with you the language of light and the geometric form and how they dance around you continuously. We would like also to tie this into your dream state. We would like to also speak about the unseen energy that is around you, that makes up a gridwork of your being. If you know a little bit more about it, it [will] allow you to create and to bring into your sphere of activity, that which you are wanting.

Much is going on continuously around you that you cannot see. There has been an acceleration of what are called avatars-masters, energy beings that have infused your system. They are permeating your world, assisting the raising of consciousness.

When we speak that the avatars and masters have permeated the gridwork of the world, they bring with them their own tools for teaching. The tools that are being utilized on your planet are artifacts that are not of your dimension. They are symbolic forms, but, literally, they have a life of their own and they make up what is known as the language of light.

You are implanted with a structure, a geometric form, and that geometric form triggers certain information within you. It is a way of receiving information and energy that will facilitate your development. It is learning without thinking that you have to do it all through books, or thinking that you have to do it all through the intellect. It is opening to the belief that there is indeed an immense hierarchy. Immense beyond your comprehension, that has been working with the dear humanities since the very beginning.

This hierarchy works with love, cherishes who you are, and has been able to see through the time mechanisms that are keyed throughout your planet. They have been able to read that the consciousness is ready for the evolutionary leap.
The next step in the evolutionary leap as you, yourselves, are all mutating, is to literally implant you with a geometric form. You are mutating to such an extent that literally it is a process unfolding within you that will allow you to move into another realm of experience. Each humanity on the planet has the potentiality to move through this mutation. Many will stop the process because many do not have the desire to align themselves with higher consciousness. When you are aware of a Divine Consciousness that seeds your planet, an intellect that is so vast, that is loving, that works with you, and when you call to be a portion of [that consciousness], that is when you bring to yourself an implanting of the geometric form.

The forms that are implanted come in a variety of shapes. There is the use of the geometric form of pyramid structure. Why is the pyramid so important? We will tell you that on your planet, and throughout the cosmos, the pyramid structure is utilized to represent a great unity of consciousness. It is the structure that is most difficult to create in all of its many facets, and yet it is a structure of perfection. It is a structure of using energy and sending it outward.

The structure of the sphere will also be used to be implanted inside of you. The structure of the spiral. The spiral is very dear to many of you. Many of you have sojourned within cultures and societies where the spiral was utilized to communicate many ideas. There will be the structure of the parallel lines. There will be the structure of the cube. And, of course, the structure for those who know of the merkabah vehicle. That is the five sided figure.

QUESTION: Could you talk more about the five sided figure you just mentioned?

PLEIADEANS: The five sided figure represents the figure of man. It represents man in his most unlimited state. Man totally free. It is man in his design without any limitations. It is man being able to fly, which is something that a large majority of you do not think you can do. Yet that is an implant that comes after a while when one truly commits themselves to what was formerly possible.

The implant, the geometric form, that is going to be implanted inside of your being is going to depend first of all on your request for alignment, your request and your belief that these entities are working with you and that they choose to be available to you if you choose to be available for them to work with you. As you begin to unfold and to allow what are called miracles, what are called magnificent events to manifest in your life, they will begin.

Many of you will start with the implant of the circle because it represents the god-form, the unity, the completeness. Some of you will select to have the pyramid structure implanted within you. That will be your greatest energy because you have aligned yourself for that structure on your planet.

Some of you have had many many lifetimes with that pyramid. Not particularly the pyramid at Giza, the pyramids all over the planet, discovered and still undiscovered.

You think in your world that your geography is known. It is not. There are many things that are still undiscovered because they are slipping from one reality to another. Deep within jungles there are many pyramids that are lying buried beneath mounds of earth. There are still many wonders to uncover.

Back to this five sided structure. Those of you who are willing to take the physical body and believe that there truly are no limitations, and to take this body and move yourself off the planet with it while still living on the planet, that is the kind of desire it will take to be implanted with this merkabah. Some of you have attempted to travel with it. Some of you know how it can be used in your being. But when you truly call it to yourself and you are willing to get the feeling of what that truly means, to be unlimited consciousness that will travel with the body without body, that is when that implanting will come. It is not the highest implanting. There are no highest or lowest implantings.
It is implanting that comes when it will best suit your personal development at the time. Once you have become implanted, there will be now, an unending process of new forms that will come into your being.

QUESTION: Do we pick our own implant?

PLEIADIANS: No, you do not choose the form that will be implanted for you. But you, yourself, choose the life that you have. You choose what is important to you each day. What was important to you two years ago is not what is important to you today.

Two years ago, the way you carried your life would determine what energy would be best suited to facilitate your development at that time. It is a marriage of energies.

Once you have become implanted in the beginning, once you align yourself with this highest creator, with this consciousness, then a form is placed inside of you. It is a geometric light form.

That form resonates within you. When that form has been placed inside of your being, it facilitates a coming of knowledge to yourself. Once that energy from that form is assimilated, then you move, because your beliefs will change, your alignment will change, you will evolve in your thinking, in your being, in your consciousness, and you will be ready to have another light form placed inside of you.

Eventually you will all hold the alphabet of light inside of your beings. This alphabet of light will teach you. How many of you have dreamt of geometric forms? That is an indication that the forms are working with you. If you wish to know what you have been implanted with, begin to see which forms continuously come first or that are larger than the others. Some of you will have cylinder shapes, the parallel lines, the spirals, the spheres, the cubes, the pyramids, the merkabah. There are many that do not even have names.

The shapes that you will recognize will number a certain amount and then afterwards they will take new forms and new shapes that your consciousness cannot translate. Eventually, you have heard of what is called the one hundred-and-forty-four? [They] represent those that are of the spiritual hierarchy that are infused in the gridwork of your planet at this time.

There has been an entry point as if a great gathering is taking place. You will notice as this year progresses, that there will be very very large unfoldings of consciousness. What does this have to do with the language of light?

QUESTION: Are the geometric forms sealed into the grid pattern?

PLEIADIANS: Yes, each one, each master, has its own seal, if you wish to use that term, that would represent one portion of the language of light. So you have one-hundred-and-forty-four thousand seals of energy that will be infused within your being.

You may think how could we live that long to have all that occur? You will start by working with twelve forms, because twelve forms are basically the forms that the body will be able to hold. Much later, once the transformation has occurred, there will be a movement and there will be an infusion of the entire one-hundred-and-forty four-thousand symbolic language structures that will pass through your being. That will be an unfoldment that cannot even be explained in your lifetime because it is something that you cannot consciously make room for.

QUESTION: How does this tie in with the gridwork that is also expanding around the planet?

PLEIADIANS: Each sacred site on the planet holds a mechanism that measures time, and it measures consciousness of those within vicinity of this structure. They are there to monitor the consciousness of mankind. When you go to one of these sacred sites, knowing that you are aligning yourself with it, you trigger something within yourself, and you trigger something within the mechanism.

Who planted these mechanisms? The great biogeneticists that are in charge of this experiment on your earth sphere, Terra. They have been nurturing you, allowing you to blossom, to grow to your fullest potential before any changes are brought to being.

You must, as a species, be prepared [mentally and physically] to make this great change. If those that watched you were not completely careful, and if they were operating with anything less than love, and if the dial was turned up too quickly, your complete structure of body would not be able to handle the leap in dimensional experience. You are not prepared to have things sped up so quickly at this time.

You are all feeling the acceleration of yourselves and you are getting as much as you possibly can at this time. If you wish to hold more within your being, then we will teach you with the language of light how to do it, how to keep your gridwork expanded.

Your physical vehicles are not in preparation to have you be able to realize how many channels you are tuned into simultaneously. That is what the preparation is. That is why we play games with you. That is why we have you on energy exercises. That is why we ask you to become clear.

The things we are teaching you are preparing you to see how multi-dimensional you are in each moment so that when you are able to tune in to the variety of stations that are your self, the variety of experiences, you will do it with joy, safety and sanity.

This is serious business. That is why your planet must be dealt with love. That is why the great lords of light, the biogeneticists who have designed you and who are now planning your next leap, are working with love, gently, slowly, in the dream state, in a state such as this, so that you can unfold in an easy fashion without fear of burning out who you are. Some of you have burned out in other lifetimes.

That burning out came from rushing too quickly, from not having the consciousness expanded in such a fashion that would allow the great energy to come in. Intentions must be of the most highest form in the greatest upliftment. What that means is you allow love to come into your being and all that you do is moved with love.

QUESTION: What place do the Native American teachings have?

Pleiadians: The Native Americans were seeded and taught by the star entities. They were brought to earth by those from the stars. They were seeded civilizations. They were taught how to live. They were taught how to harmonize. The Native Americans represent a star-seeded civilization which loved the earth, that implanted the earth with great energy.

The earth is what makes your experience possible. You could not be here if it were not for the earth. You do not yet love the earth enough and acknowledge it enough.

By awakening the Native American teachings, you come to the realization that the earth is not something simply that you build upon and walk upon and drive upon and take for granted. It is a living entity. It has consciousness.

It is that you need to tap into the consciousness communication of earth. The Native Americans will awaken all that has been stored within you and has been taught over and over again, because you all have sojourned within those cultures. You will come to remember and come to cherish that which allows you to be here.

You will marry it with your ancient heritage from the stars and unite the earth and the cosmos. You will unite it in your physical being and you will carry the consciousness of God. Through that you will birth a new sphere of being, new man and new earth.

Native Americans are very tuned in to the variety of species of consciousness. The combination of types of man animal man, insect man, bird man, all of these forms that have a reality. If you do not see them walking down the street, you do not think they exist. They exist in parallel realities and worlds all around you.
This is what you are going to find. This is why we said a long time ago, don't think that you are losing your marbles some days. You will be perceiving things. They are legitimate. They are real. It is what the Native Americans will help you to understand.

QUESTION: Can I learn to fly?

PLEIADIANS: Your reality is determined by that which you have subjected yourself to. Being that you have all grown up in a basically unknown paradigm that does not support getting out of body and does not support interdimensional travel, it is not the easiest thing to begin it when you are getting the idea within your head.

If you are desiring to learn how to fly and how to change forms, then you get it very clear inside of yourself that that is what you are wanting. It is a phase of your development that you intend more than any other to move into and you will draw to yourself a teacher.

When you think of what you want and intend that this is the next step of your development, something will come in to teach you. You literally create it and bring it into your world.

The teaching of flying has to do with the alteration of consciousness and what you think the physical body can do. When you fly, a portion of your consciousness moves into another dimension of experience. You feel yourself flying, you see yourself flying, you travel, and then you land in a new place, and the body is dematerialized and brought forward with you.

You are going to find that some of the Native American teachers that are going to surface on your planet are going to teach you how to fly. It will be an added bonus to your talents in the years ahead. This truly will be.
QUESTION: How can we expect to have relationships, either starting or continuing, if they are changing on a day-to-day basis, or our perceptions are changing, our needs, our wants are constantly changing?

PLEIADIANS: You are going to have to look very closely inside of yourself to see what kind of relationships whether they are intimate relationships, or general relationships you are going to feel comfortable adding to your life, knowing who you are becoming. How important is it going to be for each and every one of you to have your partners doing the same thing? How important is support? How much support are you willing to give another? In what way will your partners mirror who you are?

You are also going to move into a new aspect of what it is to be in relationship. You are going to see that relationship [does not mean] ownership. It is allowing. It is respecting. It is being there for another to facilitate their journey. You will re-evaluate what relationships will be many times.

There will be very intensely bonded relationships in the unnamed decade. Those couplings that come together in the time of great expansion in this nineteen-nineties will be very joyous. There will not be so many shiftings around of staying for short periods of time and then going off to someone else. There will be a great revelation and recognition of who another person is. You will come together in that fashion.

You will find that many that you were attracted to years ago you would never be attracted to now, because you can see. That seeing will become more and more clear. You find that those experiments that took away from your upliftment, that you were needing to sojourn within, you do not need to sojourn within now. You will move with life and love and joy, and you will not feel lonely that you are not in a relationship because your life will be full.

When the proper relationship comes, you will recognize it. You will be able to see who that person is. You do not have time now for nonsense. You are finished with that. You are clear. You are clean, becoming what is called a spiritual warrior. You are activating a very high energy within yourself, an energy that will bring you more joy and satisfaction than you have ever dreamt possible. You are aligning yourself with a purpose and a great creative impetus that brings all this to being. Each of you know deep inside of yourselves that you are not going to miss out on that information for anything. So relax. You will get it all and more.

We will be speaking with you again. Our advice, if you wish to take it, is to build the road that is easy to walk upon and to have an intention of uplifting journeys.
We would like to speak about freedom, and what you think the flight to freedom involves. There is going to be a spiritual revolution. The United States is going to show what freedom truly means. It means to be a thought manifestor, one who understands how to make reality move. That is what you are lining yourselves up for.

Those of you who think that you are free are stuck in limitations. You are keeping the boundaries too close to your being. You are very far from free. Freedom has no limitations. Freedom always has somewhere else to go. When you argue for your freedom, and say you are free, you are the farthest from it. Because freedom knows no bounds. There is always more to go. That is the flight into freedom.

QUESTION: How do you relate surrendering your will to be one with the creative life force and working that along with manifesting, or creating?

PLEIADIANS: When you talk about surrendering your will, you must remember, and we remind all of you of this, First Cause, Prime Creator, God, is within all things. You are operating with the will of First Cause. First Cause does not judge. First Cause allows the journey to be explored. It is up to the individual consciousness to move through experience in order to determine what would be the greatest alignment of energy to facilitate growth. You are insinuating that one could err. That one could be bad. That one could go against the will of God.

What we are saying is even those that, according to your judgments, go against the will of God have God within them. You all think if something is uplifting it must be right and if it is not uplifting it must be wrong.
Each of you has sojourned into many experiences that have not been so cozy and comfortable. Each of you in those situations learns something fantastic, learns something that stays with you, that allows you to build a whole new avenue of your consciousness upon it because you did something that was not so good.

Move out of judgment. Move into the freedom of self in the moment. Do not define any limitations as to what you think you can or cannot do. For your greatest growth, work with the love of yourself in your heart, honoring yourself, feeling this magnificent energy of self.

QUESTION: Is fear a boundary?

PLEIADIANS: Fear is a boundary yes. Fear is one of the oldest companions that you will have to walk with, because fear is a boundary that you rationalize. You have a good reason for it, so you think. And so you create a solid brick wall with fear. Each one of you, in the course of your journeys, will have to dissolve your fears, whether they are fears of very known things or fears of unknown things.

We had someone come to us today, and she told us about a dream that she had, and we explained to her what happened. In her dream she became insistent upon going into an area where she did not understand the rules of the game. She was not prepared to conquer the darkness that she saw.

Her fear served her well when it came up because it pulled her astral body back out of the environment. She was a bit too cocky because she was being trained and thought that she could go all these places and be a thought manifestor in every reality. She was shown the awesomeness of realities.

She is humbled a bit now because she realizes that even though she is a magnificent thought manifestor, in her dream world there are still areas of going that even put the fear inside of her.
She understood that she would have to face that fear, but it would take strength for her to go into Lit] at sometime and dissolve it. When she did not have that strength, that fear came at her and it ruled her world. It ruled her world so much in the astral that her physical body was effected. She could not align her astral with her physical and she struggled to get back in. She was frightened, shaken to the core of her being.

QUESTION: With this freedom, she found new limitations?

PLEIADIANS: For the moment. We said she went into this with a cocky attitude, thinking that she understood everything. This is an example of one who thinks they know all. The next time she goes into that reality, we'll bet you that she will be able to move through it and nothing will harm her.

Fear, in that incident, served her very well. It let her know her soul was in danger. That is what fear is for. To let you know that your life is at stake. To pull back. That is the purpose of having fear within your body. So that you know that you must regroup and rearrange your movement forward.

Fear is a signal that says, "look out." But you all misuse fear. You all have called things fearful simply because you are lazy. Simply because you are lacking in courage.

QUESTION: Is freedom an awareness that we move into or is it just realizing that we are always getting closer to new possibilities?

PLEIADIANS: On your planet, freedom will always be getting closer to new possibilities. Your United States was formed with a spiritual intention. It was formed by great masters who came into the body. It was formed by those that were born in humble places and some that were born in high places and incarnated in the form of man to carry a certain vibration into a land that later on would be known to be the leader of this movement.
That time has returned. Many of your spiritual leaders are once again incarnated in different forms. And they are coming together. There is awakening, within your government as well. Many wish to see this freedom brought closer now to the hearts of man. And they will be rallying in this country about what freedom is.

There is truly no suppressing it. There is no way that this is going to be stopped. It is out of the hands of man. We have said to you that you are beloved creatures upon your planet.

Some of you selected to sojourn in times of great difficulty and that is your choice. So, if you selected to sojourn in times of joy, that we applaud. But you all have incarnated many times in this plane. And every time between your incarnations you have clamored and asked for assistance over and over again. And you have insisted that your consciousness is ready for the time.

QUESTION: We were stretching our boundaries a little.

PLEIADIANS: Yes you were. When you are not in body, you stretch yourselves beautifully. Now that energy has been asked to come and design the time, and this is the time. And so it is designed and called for by you.

Those creator gods work with you in symbiotic relationships to alter, from the very depths of your being, that which you are capable of. You think that it is going to be so much work. It is not. You are being altered. All you need to do is to respond in the very simple fashion that we speak of to the alteration that is being transplanted inside of you. You merely need to push the activation button.

QUESTION: We find it difficult to manifest because we'd like to believe in something other than what we perceive as true right then and there. Like the Chinese struggle to manifest freedom, because they don't perceive in that moment that they have it. Is that the reason that I find it difficult to believe that I could manifest unlimited freedom to move in my consciousness, because I experience it as being so locked down, so shut down, that it doesn't seem to make sense?

PLEIADIANS: The possibilities of all that you are desiring are inside of you. Until you convince yourselves of that and you let go of the boundary of what is possible, you will keep yourself from discovering that. Remember the Chinese. Remember what possibilities they are after that some of them think are completely beyond their grasp. And you take them for granted.

Freedom to walk into a nice place to live. The freedom to buy clothes. Freedom to buy something to eat. Freedom to walk down the street unharmed. The freedom to be recognized, to acknowledge what you think, and not have anyone lock you up for it.

These are old freedoms that you fought for that others are awakening to now. You must get into the idea of how, at one time, these things were impossible for some humanities. And are still impossible for some humanities. You must take your perspective and feel the compassion for them and send the idea that it is not impossible.

Look at what you think is impossible. Come into a moment of recognition, a moment of knowing that is brilliant, a flash of understanding, "Goodness, I am thinking that that is impossible. That is not very wise of me is it? I am setting a boundary." It is merely a pattern of thought that you argue for.

QUESTION: To break that pattern do we have to believe, first of all, that we can break that and intend that to happen, and believe that we deserve to have whatever we are reaching for?

PLEIADIANS: It is always deserving a possibility. Is it possible? Yes it may be possible. Do I deserve it? Am I worthy of it? You move back and forth with these things. It is the commitment. It is that stubborn insistence directed to it's expanding boundaries. It is looking at that that you formerly accepted as a definition and saying, "To heck, I'll go for more."

It is consciously moving it out and not worrying about how or what is going to happen. Get out of the logical mind. Move the boundary out, and then don't get into a logical debate with yourself. Be in the creative mind.

QUESTION: I notice myself blocking things that happen to me using my logical mind. Could you suggest ways to get beyond that?

PLEIADEANS: This is a good question. How does one stop dancing with the logical mind? That is a vast challenge. But it is a belief system as well. The logical mind is always wanting control. It is always thinking that it is right. The creative mind, the child, is not arguing to be right. It wants adventure, excitement, something new. It is a matter of identification. A focus of conscious awareness of how you wish to approach your life.

The logical mind will always hold you in limitation. It will give you a sense of false security and false identity. The logical mind will normally represent fears. It will keep you from doing that which you are afraid of doing. The creative mind is the impulsive self. The self that makes no logical sense. The self that is uninhibited.

The self that runs naked through your dreams. That self is the self that has a direct pipeline to your guides, to the portion of yourselves that would bring you with ease, all of the joy and harmony you could possibly want.

It is just that you are so aligned, and you have so many contracts and treaties, that the logical mind, or the ego that is attached to it, is afraid of being wrong. You are afraid of being foolish. You are afraid of being ridiculed if you base your decisions upon the creative self. So, those of you that doubt will be afraid to move into creativity and will find themselves fighting difficulties. Those that move into creativity and trust will find that the world opens before them, and there is no logical explanation for it.
There are many people that have played with these ideas and have had many successes. Much to their own surprise. We would have many testimonials if we started to ask. It is simply changing a pattern. Breaking a habit. When you decide to quit smoking cigarettes, what do you do? [You stop.]

When you decide to lose weight, you start by following through on a program that you are going to set out for yourself as to how you will achieve it. When you want to do something, there is action that is involved. So, when you want to move into the creative mind, you take action into the creative mind which is stepping into the impulsive, the uncontrolled, the uncontrollable, intuitive self.

QUESTION: How do you do that?

PLEIADIANS: How do you stop smoking cigarettes? We are not being funny, we are being serious. How do you stop smoking cigarettes? You don't pick another one up, do you?

When you make the decision, that you are ready to stop with the logical mind, there are many techniques that will activate themselves for you. But, as we said earlier, you have contracts and treaties with the logical mind that you find very difficult to break. Take your own power. Design yourselves. Design your world. Go about it in any fashion that you choose.

We are going to teach you something new. It is not so new, but it has a new slant to it. When we were in Washington DC, the vehicle [Barbara] and her friends were meeting many humanities. The vehicle said to the others, "Let's not make this hard work. Let's just intend what we want and sit back and let it come to us."

So they began to intend up a storm. Each one was trying to out intend the other with outrageousness. They were laughing and having a good time, and they were sending out wonderful vibrations from their booth and the right people started flocking over. So, they made up a name. "Let's play Intendo."
Why not play a bit of Intendo every day with yourselves or with your friends? It is fun and we suggest you do it because it will allow you to break down the barriers.

QUESTION: I have altered state experiences every so often. But, I don't believe they are possible. I don't understand why I don't believe in the possibility of experiences I've had.

PLEIADIANS: You are stuck in the logical mind here. That is what you are arguing for, the logical mind. You are saying, "I don't believe what I experience is possible." You need to take a trip with Dorothy and Toto. It is the control of the logical mind. It will not relinquish a breaking of the pattern. The logical mind insists that a certain world vibrates within a certain pattern. And so you argue for the logical mind. We must ask you again, to step out of logic. Begin to believe that which is illogical and do not judge it.

QUESTION: You once told me that my consciousness would change when I got beyond the limitation of thinking that I am so-and-so, I live in this year, and I live in this body, I am this self. What do you mean by that?

PLEIADIANS: When we spoke about the defining of yourself, we were simply saying that when you make a statement in definition of who you are, it is a boundary that goes up around you, very simply. The more you define yourself, the more boundaries that you have, as far as what you think you are capable of experiencing.

Many of you describe yourselves so well, you form other peoples boundaries around yourselves. You say, "Hi, I am so-and-so. I have three children, and I am a typist."

What you are working towards, is relinquishing control of your identity and allowing [it] to have a new housing, a new definition. It is a very subtle energy, this redefining who the self is. You are understanding that as you redefine the identity, you will not become less. You will not lose a thing. You will gain perspective upon yourselves.

That is what you have a hard time convincing yourselves of. The logical mind has convinced you that you could lose yourself. That goes back to the idea of death. You associate giving up the logical portion of yourself, with the death of your ego and the annihilation of your being. Most of you are afraid of what lies beyond death. That is where your blocks come in. It has not been made known as common basis upon your planet, that there is no death.

QUESTION: If there is no death, there is no failure either, right?

PLEIADEANS: Failure is somewhat synonymous with death. Failure can be taken further and further, because when one fails, one is afraid that one will be annihilated. There is fear in failure because one is in disturbance about the place that one may be going that one associates with death, or blanking out, that nothing exists.

When one has failure, one usually feels close to death. One has given up. Nothing is there. But you see, that belief is the same belief as fear in death.

QUESTION: Isn't failure just a perception?

PLEIADEANS: Oh, yes, it is. Failure is the need to keep one in one particular place, to show oneself one is afraid to move.

There is no failure. Failure is a label, just like death is a label. It has a personal meaning for you. You take this belief, or this fear of failure, and you bring it to yourself because you put power into it, and because you label it a failure. If you could learn to trust that there is no failure, it is only stepping stones leading to whatever lessons you need to learn, you stop labeling things as failure. There are a number of individuals who like to dwell upon failure.

They are asking for sympathy. They are asking for a handout when they talk about failure. "Oh, I have failed. Someone come to love me, someone come hug me, someone come help me, I have failed." Simply say, "Someone come love me. I was successful today."

Make those things that seemed beyond your reach, within your reach. We will always offer you a new horizon, a new experience. It will be up to you to go for it.
The Only Lesson Is To Love Yourself

There's only one lesson to be learned. One lesson. To love yourself. It is the only lesson that there is. And that is what you are all going to be struggling with over and over again. You all have come from great entities creator gods that were curious about your Earth sphere, who came here to be a part of a vast experiment. Certainly from their perspective, they were viewing themselves as entities who were an extension of Prime Creator, who had vast abilities. They did not look upon themselves as Gods. It was only those that were not so evolved who looked upon them as Gods. You all have been in that position.

Why is it you have given up that position of godhood and broken yourself off and separated? Because you are curious, you wanted to know what it would be like to feel certain emotions, to have certain perspectives about life. You agreed to separate yourselves, willingly, anxiously, and to sojourn throughout many civilizations and cultures. The time has come for you to make yourself whole once again, for you to remember.

That is what is going on. And how are you going to remember? You are going to tap into the alteration that is occurring within your body. And you will facilitate all of this if you could but love who you are. You all have a confusion about what is called service. You think that you must take care of others to do service. Service truly means when you take care of the vehicle that you are, because that is your concern. When you take care of the vehicle that you are, you send into the consciousness of the Mother Earth a certain vibration.

That vibration works with the consciousness of Mother Earth and there is a uniting of spirit. There is a resonance that comes to being. Loving yourself is allowing yourself the greatest honor and dignity to be. It is placing yourself first through value, not through selfishness. Whenever you are putting in your life that which is less than keeping you happy, it is because you do not value who you are. You settle for less. You settle for less because you are afraid that if you don't settle for less you will end up with nothing. That is a belief. That is a fear.

That is a program you have accepted over and over again. It is part of the cultural paradigm. The children of the new main stream of ideas are not going to get involved in [that belief]. The new children know they do not have to settle for less. They will teach their parents. They will teach others that no one has to compromise. No one has to take less than what they are wanting.

We would like each and every one of you in this moment to make a commitment to yourself, to place yourself on your own throne. Honor that vehicle that you are and intend that all that you bring to your lives from this moment forward be gifts of great treasures for yourselves. You will create it. Do not fear your power. That is underlying all of this. You are to some extent afraid that if you start creating what you are really wanting, you are afraid of where you will go with this. And so you put it off. "I will be successful in a couple years. I am not ready."

Love the vehicles that you are so that you can be a guiding light for all of the others. It is your right. It is time for you to remember. It is important for you to honor and cherish yourselves and learn the only lesson that there is to learn. That of love because love is the key that is going to open every technology. It is going to open every doorway to extraterrestrial and interdimensional communications, inner-earth communications, that will allow you to truly live.

QUESTION: What time period are we looking at before we start seeing technology that will save us being used and manifested in the world? Are we looking at a few years or a century?

PLEIADIANS: What has occurred within this last year has been a good twenty years worth of work. Within this year that you are going through, each moon is like five years. And it will be sped up even more so that it will be more like ten years. It has that much energy, that much brilliancy.

Mankind is moving into a state of genius. Mankind is mutating. What is going to occur in the next ten years is beyond your comprehension at this time. The time is so accelerated, the energies are so vast that are coming that is why so many of you are having difficulties with certain things in your personal lives. Whatever it is that you are utilizing to stop yourself from growth, is smacking you in the face.

This is why some are moving into disease and discomfort, because there are changes to be made and the bottom line of those changes is that the love and acceptance of yourself about where you are and what you have done and not judging yourselves is very important. [You must have] the flexibility to change with the times, to give up old behavior patterns, and to be able to move forward into the future.

It is sometimes difficult to move out of old places that you have lived because it seems as if that is your identity. One of the best things you can do is leave, close the door and go forward. Build new houses and new structures of your identity. That is very important. You are on the verge of a leap of consciousness, and you all would not be sitting here if you were not very interested in it and if there was not a portion of yourselves that was attempting to be very courageous to go in this direction.

It is not a century. You have fifteen or twenty years ahead of you that are going to be some of the most interesting times the planet has ever experienced. There will be scientific inventions that will begin to flourish in vast numbers. They will not be able to be held from public domain any longer. They will not be able to be kept in secret because there will be so many of them coming simultaneously.

The libraries of knowledge are infusing themselves with the atmosphere of earth. At one time there may be two dozen individuals inventing the same thing simultaneously on the planet.

Your teachers from the higher realms are seeking students. If you are wishing to do something revolutionary, if you are wishing to alter your life, simply invite a teacher in. You will be infused with great inspiration.
QUESTION: I was wondering about a coding in our DNA system and how it continues from embodiment to embodiment.

PLEIADIANS: From your perspective when you come into body, you very very carefully select who would be the family that would allow you to have the characteristics that would enable you to represent yourself in the fashion that you are after. Many individuals have stored within themselves what are called recessive characteristics. In this time, many recessive characteristics are coming to the surface.

Many recessives have been crossed together so that the dominates are moving in the background. You select with care the lineage that holds within its own storage of information that which you can utilize.

Your DNA is long strands of chromosomal matter stored inside the cells. These very long, thin types of filament hold different codings for how the body would be projected whether you would be musicians, whether you would be female, whether you would be male, whether you would have blond hair, the tendencies of expression of health versus the manifestation of discomfort, or whatever.

What the scientists have uncoded is perhaps one-millionth of what is there. They know that they have only scratched the surface of what is there. But they are thinking that all of this entire filament is filled with superfluous material. Junk as they would call it junk DNA. That it has no purpose. That it is about nothing. This coding is genetically stored and has been dormant, recessive within many lines of families.

When you come into body you carefully select a family that has a certain lineage so that in the times that are coming, you are knowing that with your assignment to bring light to the planet you will have the ability to fire that which has been termed the junk DNA and to move into an awakening of new abilities within yourselves. As you do this you will assist the rest of mankind to do it.
You are now not all that you can be. You are becoming more. In your lifetimes you will birth new abilities within yourselves. You will birth literally new beings by activating this DNA that has been stored away. It is true.

You assist this activation when you get into what is called oxygenation of the system. When you breathe. When you bring in oxygen into the body, it fires the DNA coding and activates it.

Not only could this coding be fired by oxygenation, those that are called creator gods look out over you and see how you do. They are creating a method of altering who you are and that altering is coming through the energy acceleration. All of these things work upon the body and allow the body to change. That is why if you are wanting something now and you think you are not capable of it, relax. You will be capable of it. Trust your wantings. They are about something. The capabilities will follow.

You are wanting to do something that seems "How could I do this?" Or, "I could have done this when I was a child but now I am an adult and I need all this training." That is nonsense.

If you are wanting something you are responding to the beginning of the awakening of this portion of yourself, it can come very easily. You are all assigned the task of carrying the light and lighting the way for others.

There has been a darkness around this planet, a darkness as far as mankind can see. And you are here to light the way. For some of you it feels like it is a great struggle. "How can I light the way for others when I can't even keep the light for myself going from one day to the next."

Don't be so hard on yourself when you are not in love with who you are. You create abilities to understand where the rest of mankind is. You see, you are all accelerating so rapidly that you have forgotten where the others are and where you have come from. And so, in your own states of what is called anxiety you beat up on yourself for not being perfect.

What is really occurring is that you are bridging realities. You are there one moment and back the next. What you are doing is showing yourself, quite literally, the difference between being there and not being there. It is obvious that when you are there you are on top of the world. When you are not there you feel like you have been assigned to clearing out the sewers of the world.

That will show you the difference in consciousness and what that consciousness can do. You will give up digging sewers. Believe us. It is not going to be a lifetime occupation.

You are going to want to light the pathway and when you dig those sewers or you clean out those sewers, you are doing a bit of self-examination. It is giving you an understanding of where other humanities are and where they come from and how humanities hold themselves in difficulty. These are all lessons that are involved in loving yourself.

When you are finding yourselves in the sewers of yourself, say to yourself, "Well, here I am again. Isn't it interesting how I find that I am lighting the way one moment and I'm cleaning out the garbage the next? If I am in the sewers, must be there's more cleaning that needs to be done. Let me just light it up a bit." You bring the illumination into that portion of yourself that you do not want to look at, that represents the shadow of the dark portion of yourself.

Then look at what you see. What do you see that you are doing? What do you see around you without judging but with feeling? We want you all to be in feeling of yourselves. You are good feelers and you are learning how to be better feelers. You will be now learning how to balance that feeling.

You have found techniques, you have found the ability to stop judging when you are in feeling and to be there. When you are in feeling there is valuable information that is on the threshold for you. It is there in front of you.

You all judge your feelings and say, "Oh, here I am feeling this way again. Darn it, I must be terrible to be feeling this way." You need to say, "Being that I am after my greatest growth and I am feeling this again, must be there's great growth in this feeling. What is it that I need to know?"
Relax with where you are. Be easier on yourselves. You are attempting to do great homework so that you can move out and affect others in a balanced way so that you will have the compassion to work with those who will be in the same boat that you have been in.

You can say, "I know, I have been there." The greatest teachers live what they say, and they have done what you have done. And so they know. So when you see one running around going through what is called the crazies, you can honor them by saying they are going to be [a] great teacher when they get it together. Because of the time acceleration, these experiences are going to be jam packed into your lives.

QUESTION: I seem to be reviewing in the last month, things in this life time, I keep going back into situations I thought I'd forgotten about, and I seem to come forward.

Pleiadians: Yes. It is because you are cleaning house. This is what the process is about. All that you have locked away, all that you have not dealt with, is going to come smacking up. You make layers of yourselves and you cover it over, cover it over, cover it over. You are coming to the time when you will need to examine not only all that is in this life, but you will go into other lives and get other visions.

This is the beginning of your viewing of yourself. Do not under any circumstances judge what is coming up.

We want you to see it as if you are saying, "Goodness, I have this huge gigantic mansion and I have inherited this. I am going to have to remodel it and make it how I want it to be. I am going to go room to room to clean out and see what is here and what I am wanting." And when you see it you can say, "I remember this. This happened then and this happened then."

Do not feel guilty. Do not worry about it. Allow yourself to observe all that is coming up and to marvel at the dramas that you have put into your life. They are there to teach you.
These teachings you have been involved with, that are your own creation, are coming again to show you so that you can review all that you are.

Doing this for this lifetime and loving yourself and saying, "Goodness, there were times when I was a bit foolish here." Or, "Goodness, there were times when I didn't know what I was thinking of there. I guess I was really having my head turned on backwards there." This is the most amount of judging we want you to do. Be gentle. Love yourself. Don't feel guilty.

See who else was involved in your scenario. Look as if you are sitting in the audience and do a big clapping for the part that you played so beautifully.

Present yourself with an Academy Award here and there, for doing such a good job of portraying a role. See what the story is about and say, "I have got it. I see the purpose that I was working for."

This process is going to come furiously fast. Let it come. Allow it to cleanse your body. In a few moons you will have an opportunity, or already have taken a journey to a new portion of the world where you will go and look into past activities of yourselves because you are needing to heal the entire soul of your being and to accept with completeness. Love who you are.

QUESTION: When you love yourself do you attract situations that will show you?

PLEIADIANS: Because you are committed, and because you have decided to carry light, and because you have decided in this lifetime to do a journey that is not the easiest of journeys, but it certainly is the journey that is the most rewarding, there will be certain challenges that will test you, to test your worthiness of commitment to be included in a certain echelon of leaders.
That is what you are doing. So be easy on yourself. When those feelings get stirred up inside of you and it seems as if they want to steam roller you, say to yourself, "These feelings are my teachers. I will not be afraid of them. They have something to show me. And I will learn. I will change. I am flexible. I am courageous. And I am committed to myself." All of you, be easy on yourselves. Love yourselves.

We Pleiadians came to be involved with this experiment so that we could enhance our own service to ourselves. As you grow, you are our family. You are us. And we have come to gather you together and to teach you who you are, so that you can take your rightful place within the family of those that your Prime Creator has formulated, so that you can see the unlimited potentials that await you.

As we teach you, and as each one of you dares to try to do something that you thought you could not do, and as each of you moves a bit closer to honoring and loving yourselves, we grow. You add to what we are. And so, your success makes our success.

Our journey is contingent upon your commitment to yourselves. So we have a big stock in who it is that you are. And we do not want to see any crashings. Do you understand?

The lesson that you are to learn, the only lesson that there is, is the lesson of love. That love will give you the opportunity to go anywhere.

Go about your days in joy, in safety, and in harmony and step into that great unknown with love.
The Mind Game and Patterns

You have heard us say that all is true according to the perception, and [that] reality is far beyond what you can conceive of. There is a vastness that is ever growing and expanding. There have been on your planet quite a few humanities who have figured out the rules and have learned a little bit better than other humanities how to create, how to bring about what they are wanting and how to become manipulators, rulers, and designers of the game themselves.

Your planet started off with a certain plan in mind. That plan was to design a new world where there would be great exchanges of information. The great computer-like mind connected a crystal network of information that would beam out in this galaxy as a storehouse perhaps. It was an exchange center. A world was designed that was beautiful because this information was going to be held in the cells of each and every creature and molecule of consciousness that existed here. Consciousness was going to be endowed within all things.

In the vast expansion of creation, many different forms of sentient beings exist. They are all playing what you would call the mind game. The Prime Creator, First Cause, was, or so it seems, the originator of the mind game.

The Prime Creator thought itself into a reflected state and moved so that it could see itself so that it could prove to itself it existed. It created outside of itself. And so the game has gone. Even the Prime Creator continuously surprises itself with the new rules and the new possibilities of this substance that has been endowed with consciousness.

The forms of this substance continuously mutate and change and even the smallest portion of being has new potentials. Within this mind game that all of existence plays, the rules constantly change. That is part of the game.
What is occurring on the planet at this time is that you are being instructed and given information because the rules have changed. It is time for large numbers of humanity to call on their own innate knowing, to bring about their own beautification of development, to step wisely and to learn to play with all of the abilities.

You have heard us [say] to become aware of what you present to yourselves. Every portion of the material that is outside of you determines how you are going to feel and how you are going to set the parameters of your experience and what you are going to allow yourselves to put within your lives. What you see is determined by what you believe is possible. You are in a double bind so to speak, for you wish to change what you believe to be possible about yourselves and yet you do not quite know how to change what you are perceiving.

Codings are inside of each and every one of you. [They] are being reactivated by some of those ancient creators who brought your planet into being when they were playing with their own godhood. There have been many struggles over the territory of this, your Earth Sphere, Terra. Many have come here and reigned and have utilized the rules of the game and developed societies according to how they wished humanities to perceive.

You have been very often the product of a few individuals designing the mass humanity experience. Once again you are involved in this. This time, you are being told that you can be liberated through your own thinking and through your own perceptive abilities. We wish to push you further into this so that you can truly realize what your boundaries are and realize that every portion is part of the game.

QUESTION: Do these creators compete against each other and have their creations make war on each other?

PLEIADEANS: There have been competitions. There have been vast amounts of information kept from the public for eons. There have been humanities who have known the capabilities of mankind. You find yourself attempting to expand your capabilities, yet you fight and deny that you even have them.

The time has come for you to tap into this. Those greater humanities who you have called gods, those more expanded beings, have indeed made their own rules for the mind game. Within those rules they designed societies where mankind was not encouraged to a state of independence. Think about the history of your world for the last 2,000 of your years and look at the different societies. What did these societies do? How many encouraged freedom? How many encouraged independence? How many societies work with the idea of suppression?

You have heard us say that you live in the United States, the land of the free, or so you think. We are not here to start a revolution, we are here to expand what you believe to be possible and to assist you in your own growth and to turn you ultimately to yourselves and your own answers. There is nothing more to believe in than yourself.

When you believe in a God that is so outside of yourself you are not acknowledging the God that is within you, that has been your birthright. This is a major state of awareness for each and every one of you to move into the holiness of your own being.

Each and every one of you are all that you need to believe in. When you believe in yourself, expand what you think you are, you begin to learn the rules of the great mind game and then you are up there with the big guys.

QUESTION: I have been in a massive state of confusion, going back and forth from one belief system to another.

PLEIADIANS: When you are about to make a change, in general, you will go through a bit of disorientation so that you can come to a greater understanding of yourself. Also the disorientation has to do with the releasing of old behavior, with the relinquishing of control, because wherever you are, in whatever state of development, there is a certain amount of control.

The control forms the boundaries of what you think is safe behavior, and safe avenues to traverse. So when you are about to make a change you have to allow that to come down and reevaluate what you think is okay for you as humanities to do. And you become impatient and you cannot understand why it has taken you a long period of time to move from one state to another. It is quite simple. You are not making the decision.

The ideas that you are sending out to yourself are not clear. It may seem to you that it is clear. You do not understand how intricate your thoughts are and you think you make one statement and this is going to create and you can forget about it and make all the other statements that are going to uncreate it. Only you do not hear those. Your thoughts are like fog and they seep out from you into all forms. And they always seek to expand, to be out there in territory. So, when you are not certain about what you are wanting, you are not giving out a one-lined direction.

The energies at this time are becoming really very powerful, very highly charged. You are learning that there is a certain intensity of commitment that is going to be needed to lift yourself into higher states of consciousness. All of your thoughts count. If all of your thoughts are not lined up to your greatest intention, you are not going to get there, not in completeness. You all need to learn how to trust yourselves, how to have a greater love for yourselves and, of course, much more joy.

Learn to utilize the greater vehicles that you have to keep you within a balance so that you can move at these great speeds. When you do not have balance you are not going to move forward with acceleration. You will crash.

Many of you have bumped the heads and bumped the psyches because you have gone after something that you thought that you wanted and have not understood the rules of the game. Or you have sabotaged your own rule making by thinking that you were not powerful enough, or looking to others as being such great humanities, or thinking that you were not worthy of what you were after. The kicks you get out of talking about it [are more exciting] than it would be to manifest it.

It is most interesting. What is happening on your planet at this time really makes it an "in" place to be. If there were a People magazine for the cosmos, the Earth Sphere Terra would be on the cover. And you all are stars. So, live it up. Be alive because that is what it is all about. Wherever you go and whatever state of consciousness you are in, there is going to be stuff to learn.

As you learn how to utilize the rules here, then you would be changing the game for all of the other players. As you all become awake, you will be bucking the system. And you will be showing that the rules indeed have changed and that even the most minute forms of consciousness have figured out that they are like the gods.

QUESTION: What kind of freedom do we need to seek?

PLEIADIANS: When you are seeking freedom it is a freedom from expectations. Many humanities, just as you, have figured that out because word has been passed down on your planet and secret societies have known for eons many of the rules, so to speak. Many who learned how to play the games kept freedom as a precious food from reach of the majority of humanity.

They called it by mysterious names and they said that humanity would not know what to do with this if they have this. And so they kept it for themselves. So, when we say to you to seek freedom, it is freedom from anything that is going to define and suppress any of your ability that would limit you.

Stay within that freedom, move outward in all that you would affect within your life experience and your reality to extend that freedom outward to others as well. There are no limitations.
QUESTION: How far is it possible to jump from the level we are now?

PLEIADEANS: A tremendous amount can be figured out from here. In a very short period of time, the large majority of you will have made a gigantic leap. Within one, perhaps two of your years, there [are] going to be abilities to perceive in vastly different fashions.

Even now you are learning how to expand as you have seeded yourself with light and as you begin to listen to the internal self. Many of you are too intellectual with this. You are all "up here" and you are all afraid to be "down here" because this is where you are going to feel. You are going to connect your feeling and you are going to develop a compassion. And then you would move into these realms.

They are not thinking realms. They are realms of the highest connection of spirituality. And they would keep you tethered to great beings of light who would communicate with you as they are building light bridges to you at this time. You have no idea of what is possible. Your mind cannot conceive of what is possible for your lifetimes.

We have recently spoken that something that is going to be and is available for all of you is what we call the immortality of your being the ability to extend life and to stop your nonsense of labeling a programmed degeneration of the body. That is part of the game.

That is a flexible rule. Why do you determine that you are getting older? Why do you determine that the body loses with age? Because a certain sector of society passed on a rule of the game. Someone wanted to have power and make money and make up a portion of the game that was called health.

Everything is the game and you buy into every portion of the game. We [get] you very stirred up so that you won't be buying anyone's game but your own. You can learn to work with one another for support to make up the rules of your own game and then you will set things flying. You are unlimited beings. That is the great joy that you are experiencing. This is why you have all come here. To participate in that. To remember it.
Many humanities on your planet are going through times of great difficulty right now because energies are changing and there are certain beliefs that are smacking them in the face. You have heard us say that electromagnetic energy has completely changed on your planet and all has been sped up within the cosmos because of the movement of your universe into the new area of space.

You are being charged by new particles of existence. This is bringing about the shift in consciousness. It is this that makes all things different, that makes all things possible now. This is what is ringing out within your souls to satisfy and to describe and many who you study and who you read about are all telling you the same thing. They may use different words.

All you need to do is have the lights begin to go off in your head. It does not matter whose words say them to you for you have all the information stored within you. What you are merely doing is exposing yourself to certain triggers that you have set up in the outside world to bring about the activation of certain patterns within you. You do not have to get into a big sweat about the whole thing, you know. You are working towards it. You are only a few steps away from certain amounts of great changes. You will be awed by those and you will be excited and then you will move into boredom once again and you will be wishing for new abilities. You are moving quickly now.

Think about what you have done in a few of your years. Think about when you all were at the beginning of [the 1980's] what you knew, how you felt about yourselves, what was possible. And think about where you were one year ago and what you know now. You are definitely moving.

QUESTION: What's the difference between the old rules and new rules?

Pleiadians: There existed in what you would call biblical times, certain entities that came to your planet that were playing. They knew the rules were that if you created and if you sent out certain ideas you could get masses of consciousness to follow this action. So these entities came to your planet and they affected cultures. They played with the alteration of your DNA and formed new men out of the basic Earth stock that existed here at different times. These entities sojourned and are written about in your Bible. They affected mankind through the ways that you are presently feeling the results of. The old rules were that this was a territory for what you would call certain skylords.

These skylords made the rules. The rules were that humanities would worship those that were in the sky and that they would develop all sorts of expression of this worship. They would be given an endowment of themselves but they would not be given the complete information because then, who would they play with? There were other skylords who wanted these humanities to have a decent game to be playing in.

And so there has been a challenge on your Earth Sphere Terra as to the type of information that has come in to allow these humanities to perceive what they can be. The old rules were that the large majority of humanities were not given the understanding of who they were. They were kept in ignorance. They were kept in darkness. They were kept in submission. You were kept from ultimately understanding who you were.

The new rules are that all is allowed. You are being blown wide open so to speak. The gates have been opened and it is fine for you to know your ultimate experience with creation.

Do you know who changed those rules? You did. After sojourning here for thousands of times, you figured it out. This time was designed for you so you could bring about what it is that you have been after from the beginning.

One of the main rules, the one that you all are attempting to figure out and put into being is the idea of thought manifestation that you are a result of your thoughts. That is the one that is most important for you to learn at this moment. Not to wait for great beings to come from the sky to save you. You argue for your limitations. You hold onto them. You clutch them dearly like little dollies that you played with when you were young.
QUESTION: What about the dilemma of getting to know yourself and not liking what you see?

PLEIADES: It is an excellent point the dilemma of getting to know oneself, which comes with developing self-awareness and self-esteem, and not liking what one sees. Change it. What you are seeing is only your judgment anyway. You all love to call yourselves right or wrong. "I am beautiful today," and the next day, "I am what the cat dragged in." You do this to yourselves back and for, all the time. Why judge it?

You are learning. You are on your journey and you are feeling that certain expressions of behavior and experience give you exhilarations and others make you want to turn your head. When you are finding this within yourself you are allowing yourself to develop along a pathway. If you are finding that there is a portion of yourself that you do not like, allow yourself to love that portion and to release it. If you don't like a part of yourself then let it go.

Utilize the rules and make a new you. Change your behavior. Believe that you can change a portion of yourself. But don't release it out of hatred or anger. Allow yourself to realize that whatever it is that you are perceiving that you did not particularly approve of, you birthed it into being. Let it go. Do not tether it to yourself any longer.

It is not that you are going to always love every portion of yourself for you are teaching yourselves and you are bound to run across something that is going to get your attention. It is a message to gather more information and ultimately give you more compassion for others. So, be more easy on yourselves.

Until you love yourself, you are not going to experience love from anywhere else. This light energy that is being sent to you and this light energy that permeates existence, is made up of love. It is a substance of being that permeates all things. If your scientists were to break down the particles of the most minute aspect of existence to find out what makes everything go and everything tick, it is love. It's what connects you. It is what keeps you alive.

Start with yourselves. Realize that in this game you picked yourselves. You picked yourselves to be the player that you would move around in this aspect of existence.

When you don't except responsibility for the player that you picked, you deny your participation in the game. And so you are moved across the board of life without any control, always looking to connect with love and never realizing that in order to connect with love you must turn on your own light, which is turned on with self-love. When you turn on your own light by loving yourself because you have selected yourselves, and by not judging yourself, then the game completely changes. Then you don't go looking for love. You are it.

When you are love, and when you move with love, all you bring back to yourself is love because you are like a beacon and you draw it all to yourself. When you do not love yourself and you go out looking for love, you cannot even see it because you do not have the electromagnetic capacity to even recognize it, to even draw it to yourself.

Remember that you, yourselves, are your primary tools for enjoyment and experience. It is you, yourselves, who are your greatest teachers. So live, for you have it all within you. Everything else, when you discover this, will unfold before you in the most glorious magic of being.
Codings

Buried deep inside of you are all of your answers. The questions that come to the forefront of your minds are coming so that you can start within your own beings and bring up your own answers. In order to achieve this you must first believe that the information is stored there.

Humanity is learning a great lesson at this time. The lesson, of course, is to realize your godhood; to realize your connectedness with All That Is, with all that exists; to realize that there are multitudinous cultures and societies that exist throughout the vastness of what you call space, and that these societies and these cultures have been on and off your planet from the very beginning.

It is not just that we, the Pleiadians, have come to assist. We are one grouping from one star system. There are many who have journeyed here for many reasons. Some have come for resources, some for fuel. Some have come to teach. Some have come to suppress. Some have come to enslave. Some have come to use the Earth sphere, Terra, as a laboratory.

What we are speaking of is no great secret. But it is kept from your societies. It has served your world well to a certain extent to forget that you have star and spatial connections. As this information was passed down from one mouth to another and the stories were altered here and there to suit the teller and to suit the situation, certain aspects of the ancient history of your planet turned into myth.

When you are children you learn about these myths and you call them fairy tales, or legends. But, indeed, they are about something. They are about your history, and they are at this time very distorted.

There was a purpose behind all of this. There are no accidents. All is agreed upon and planned through the magnificent telepathic connections that exist between all of mankind and all of the cosmos. You moved into this state of unawareness, so that you could explore new territories of being on your earth.
Many of you who are familiar with our words and the words of many wise ones that are assisting you in your growth at this time, think badly of those who are on your planet who are not in accord with this information. It is completely unnecessary. The development and the unfolding of humanities is proceeding quite nicely.

There are many, many groupings at this time who are following the great pull of curiosity that moves them to their beings. They are stepping forward and daring to be a bit different, and daring to believe in new concepts and ideas.

It is our role to offer you a bit of confidence on your journey, to assist you to align yourselves with your own memories so that you can truly blossom forth and provide yourself with your own understanding.

Your bodies are completely coded with the information that is necessary. It is not only that your bodies are coded and that you respond to certain calls that go out. It is also that as you are being awakened, opened, and as you consciously seek this, you send out a signal and you draw to yourselves a great host of beings.

Your histories move in and out of very special times. Many of you became involved here eons ago through star energy, through Pleiadian contact, through working with the higher realms. Many of you know the difficulties quite completely that Terra has gone through how many times the lands have shifted; how many times help came from the skies.

Information was distorted as those who came from the skies to move you along in your development were turned into gods. Even children now idolize those who can do what they cannot do. Your society demonstrates to you, quite clearly, this concept of godhood. We are here to remind you, it is unnecessary.

Your third dimensional world is one of great challenge. It is one that allows magnificent limitations to set themselves up. Through these limitations, structures are formed. And you learn. And you attempt to create.

You all are a great portion of the First Creator, First Cause, and First Cause desires experience. So when you judge your fellow man for not being what you think they should be or, worst of all, when you judge yourself for not being what you think you should be, you place barriers around your experience. What we are telling you is that you are glorious beings.

Not all on the planet are ready for this shift. As we see it, there will be two probable worlds that will split off those who cannot follow the development into the fourth and fifth dimensional experience, and that of uniting, comprehending all is energy. Those that cannot follow this will form their own Earth sphere, Terra. What you forget, and we continue to remind you of, is the third dimensional experience is not one of solidity even though it seems to you that your world is solid and that you are solid beings. You are energy within space.

This energy can be manipulated and changed around through the process of thinking. Your experience in the world that you will be forming is completely contingent on your thoughts. When you learn to honor yourselves and to trust that your thoughts form your experience and that they do indeed count, that each and every one of you makes a difference when you begin to completely feel this and live this, then you will be stepping forward into your work. You will have great demonstrations of this, and you will begin to create, to form, and to magnify your feelings into experience.

We started off by telling you that you are coded. All mankind is coded deep within the essence of their being, deep within the cells of their being. They are coded to certain responses and certain behaviors, and these codes are implanted by you. None other comes into your life and takes control over you. When you are out of body in your times of overview and study, you plan the time that you would sojourn within and the personality that you would occupy, and the challenges that would rise forth before you.

How else would you know to respond? Think about it. Think about the intimacy of your own being. And think about yourselves and who you are and how glorious you are. You have placed within portions of your body, certain bits of information, that would be activated at the appropriate times, and you would meet the most necessary people, and you would be in the proper places. This is so for all humanities.

We are here to assist you to give you some basic understanding of how you yourselves are going to transform your experience on your planet.
It is not that you are going to be saved by those from the skies. You are being assisted, you are being guided.

You are asking for help, we are giving, as many others are. But, as a mother would say to a child, if I do your homework for you, you will never get to college. If you examine who you are and what your desires in life are, you will find that you know deep within you who you are. When you say that you do not, you are taking a position of powerlessness. You are not acknowledging the glory of your humanity.

Allow yourself to perceive new dimensions of experience and new realities, and to notice what you are doing for yourselves. Your beliefs can stop you completely in your tracks from moving forward. They are your greatest allies, your beliefs, for they allow you to move through your day-to-day experience in what ever way you choose.

You are awakening yourselves. You are encoded. Most importantly, you are a direct result of your thought manifestations. Your experience is a direct result of your thought manifestations.

QUESTION: In recent times it appears that things on the planet are accelerating in a very fast way to it's own annihilation. Unless there are changes, it won't last. So, should we be unattached to the earth or should we try to change it?

PLEIADIANS: There is no trying to change. You cannot try to change anything. When you try, you don't accomplish a thing. Trying is inactivity.
Doing is what will bring about change.

It is very important to care about your world. Indeed it does seem as if the world is going down the tubes so to speak. But this has occurred in other ways in other times in similar activities.
What you do not understand is that the world is not solid. All humanities, out of their love for Mother Earth, feel a need to change, to save the Earth. When you understand that it is not a solid mass of being that you are working with, you are already one step on the board of the game. When you understand completely that thought manifestation is what creates the world, then you understand how important your thought manifestation is.

Your doing, your activity is secondary. You can do all you want, but if you don't believe that your doing is any good, and that you are one powerless individual, then you will not help the shift of the world.

As we see it, the duality and the polarity that is coming on your planet will involve a breaking off of two completely different, separate Terras. You think that there are going to be two Earths and the astronomers from other places would have twin Earths.

You must understand that all is energy and that there are many probable worlds, and that each of you move into a probable world of your experience whenever you change your mind. That occurs continuously.

But, we are talking about a major event, a major splitting off now, so that those on the planet, who wish to come full cycle to be complete, will create now, a world that is healed, that is joyous and that is full of beauty.

Often, before one understands that one is on a path of destruction, that one is not moving in the greatest direction of growth, one must become ill in order to receive and to re-evaluate and to heal. The Earth sphere, Terra, could be cleaned up quite quickly by entities from the stars. [But,] the Earth sphere, Terra is your responsibility.

You can, and you will at some point, receive great assistance. But your challenge is to understand that the work that is to be done is not primarily done with hammers and nails. The work would be primarily done with thought. And when you learn to come together in groupings and to recognize one another, and to recognize that indeed you achieve tremendous steps forward when you focus on manipulating the energy to allow it to grow and manifest and bring in great light, then indeed, you are creating this.

You are greatly assisted as far as keeping destructive mechanisms from detonating. You have no idea. This universe has free will, and so the challenges often times are much greater. We have codes of honor that we ourselves must obey. There is only so much interference that can come about, so much that can be transmuted.

But when it comes to the great destructive detonations, many have been stopped so that energies can reassess what their intentions are. Often it takes the desire of one mind calling for assistance. One small child in the desert expecting to wake up tomorrow morning, and calling to some unknown god in the sky as he lays down to sleep, looking at the stars, knowing that he plans on waking up on the morrow. And so often, one small cry like that changes the balance of energy and great beings of light come and they assist because they know that it can be staved off.

Honor Mother Earth. Whatever portion of Mother Earth that you occupy, that you own, that you walk over, send loving thoughts. Align yourself with the Earth, and the Earth energy and do what you feel is necessary for your own personal growth. Again, the greatest work will be done with your thoughts. Do not allow yourselves to buy into the idea that your Earth is doomed. For we guarantee you that it is not.

QUESTION: Would you clarify the idea of two Terras?

PLEIADIANS: The concept of probability is that there is no one reality and that you yourselves branch off continuously through your thoughts. It is not that you ever change a world, you change which world you occupy. Again this goes back to the idea that your world is not solid. It is constructed of energy, and that energy takes form through the thoughts of those that participate within that world.

There are, and there always have been, probable Earths and probable experiences. There are probable yous who are leading quite different lives than the yous sitting within this room. You are frequency, energy. You are literally beating to a chord of energy that sings you into existence. You are so familiar with it, that you stay focused with it continuously on one aspect of your experience. But, experience goes on from many perspectives. and what you are learning is how to change the frequency and change the beat so that you can notice what you usually do not notice.

What is occurring is this great polarization of energies, participants and observers. Many who have come to observe have come to disrupt as well. They have come to learn their stuff in this time so to speak. [There are also] the participants who are completely intent on creating this world, which will be quite glorious.

As we see it, as the probable worlds begin to form, there will be great shiftings of humanities on your planet. It will seem that great chaos and turmoil are forming. It will seem that nations rise against each other to war. It will seem that earthquakes are happening more frequently. It will seem that the animals and the fish are departing. What is occurring is that those animals are now moving over to that world as it is being formed. They are not departing in existence, they merely slip into the world to await your pleasure and to await your joining them.

It is difficult for us to explain this to a certain extent because it is beyond the experience of the third dimensional entity. You are moving to the fourth dimension. When this move is made, literally you will form a new Earth. And literally you will be there and it will seem to you as if you have all awoken from a dream. You will awake in a world that is pristine and beautiful.

Your skies are full of observers watching and waiting to see how you will do this and give you assistance in doing this, because it seems as if it is completely beyond the possibility of your world for many. Not for you who have studied this energy as alchemists, as ancient Atlantians, in temple life. The training that you have had in other times has all been the encoding that has been placed within your being to prepare you for this juncture.
QUESTION: So, if this new world is in the fourth dimension, would you clarify what the difference is between the dimensions?

PLEIADIANS: The newly formed world will have all dimensions in it. Dimensions exist over each other, on top of each other, within each other, around each other. Because of your training and because of the way you have been set up to believe and think about yourselves, it does not seem possible to accept these ideas.

That is why we scramble up your minds, so to speak, so that you can make room when you are on your own, and have lights go off in your heads to comprehend. It is not that we are explaining to you so much, it is that we are jumbling you up.

You, yourselves, will right your energy. Any of you that are feeling jumbled at certain times and confused and frustrated, it is because you are doing great work, it is because you are realigning the thought process and the understanding process of who you are.

The third dimensional experience is one that seems to be solid. It seems to be in straight line, event following after event, and it seems that the whole world is defined. It [seems] solid.

The fourth dimensional experience is one of perception. It is one where you know certain things, where the body is seemingly less solid. Where one can see light beings, where one can hear sounds, where one uses other facilities to learn and to gather information.

The fifth dimensional experience allows one the opportunity to become less solid completely. And it is that ability that you are working towards. That is where humanities are eventually moving to.

Some will come on this new world because of great love. They will come purely as third dimensional beings because they are pure of heart, and pure of love. It is not that they have studied in temples and schools of learning, it is because they have learned to love. And they have learned to speak with the Earth, and they desire peace and beauty. Many of that type of man will come to this new Earth.

Your roles will be to teach these men and women how to move in the fourth dimension and fifth dimension. Because they will not be blocked, they will be completely open because of their love, they will grow and they will make an evolutionary leap within their consciousness that is astounding.

Love is the key. Love is what makes up the universe. We have said to you that your technology will only develop to a certain extent because mankind, the scientists, do not understand that love is necessary. Energy can take all forms of creativity, but when one is dealing with greed or hatred, or any of the other multitudinous emotions that are not working towards light, then you only are allowed to go so far. There is only so much information that is available to that sort of vibration. Love is the basic building block. When one has love, all possibilities exist.

QUESTION: Assuming we finish up our duty on Earth in this lifetime, where do we go?

PLEIADIANS: There are many on the planet at this time who are here to complete within this activity of experience. They have sojourned here over and over again to learn, to plan, to educate themselves, to encode their beings in preparation for this time.

When this new world is formed, your extension of lifetime will completely change, your perceptions of time will completely change, and it will be an altered state of being. You will be united with the star energies and extraterrestrials that have been assisting your planet and cultures for eons.

[They] will come to offer all sorts of varieties of experience. Some will choose to work on other planets as conscious beings. Some will choose to stay here on Terra to rebuild and to structure a new society.
Many will stay to work with the children and to have the children teach them.

When you are translating from whatever experience you have, those who are here to complete [will understand] that the job is done. A new world is formed, and that those that wish to, will have a safe platform and a beautiful planet, a jewel of a planet, to move forward with.

That planet will draw only certain energy to itself because the energy would have been purified and righted and brought into great alignment. Many of you have been here for so long, that you long for other experiences.

It is not that you are stuck here. It is that to complete a portion of your journey, you stayed. And you all have come to be very fond of one another and so there will be greater discussions, and greater options of where you would be going.

Some of you would not choose to come into third dimensional bodies for a long long time for there is much to be done without coming into bodily incarnations and being born. Within the spirit world, there is much traveling to do and many of you will take vacations as you would call them, and travel about to re-activate what you have forgotten.

You will check out certain places of activity. You will go to different planets and see different forms of being. Time does not exist, so it would be possible, in your terms, to spend one million of your years searching to see where you wished to go next. And those one million years go by like a month's vacation.

You may go somewhere and become involved in sound or light or manipulating matter into shapes. Or you may be content become part of crystalline forms that merely exist, that merely act as senders of information. You may become one with these crystalline structures that have become gigantic [and] make up entire planets on other dimensions.

You would go there to ease your soul's journey and to become one with all the consciousness that would be, like the central computer in certain areas of existence. These crystalline structures would take in and pass out information. That would be quite satisfying because you would have perceived the experience without actually having to go through the bodily incarnation.

Some of you, after your success, may be quite bold and daring and choose to assist another planet in its growth. [You would] come in and be born as them, or buzz them within these starships and intrigue them.

It is quite complicated. It is all fun. It is all loving. And it is a vast magnificent plan that changes all the time and is always available to you. You must understand that you, yourselves, are very important in all of this. You have wide vistas of experiences open to you.
Immortality of Being and Contact

The death experience as you know it, is something that you program yourselves for. Your aging process is something that is an expectation within your lifetimes. We would like to plant the seed for the idea that you will be around perhaps for at least a hundred more of your years, if you so choose. If you so choose. What you are going to be working on is an understanding and a releasing of ideas that have set about limitations for your experience and how to reprogram, so to speak, how to release trauma that has been built in, that is coded and written within the bones and the cells of your structure that anticipate a certain form of development.

This is not a new idea, this idea of immortality. But it is an idea that is going to come alive. You are being prepared to teach the masses whether you realize it or not. Each of you will be working in a different fashion, manifesting your own unique sense of creativity. Yet, each one will be catching the core issues that are being stirred up in the masses at this time.

It is imperative that many of you stay around to help formulate the new earth that is being birthed. You are not being trained to work for perhaps twenty or thirty more of your years and then to retire. That is not what this is about. You are in the midst of a gigantic shift in consciousness covering the entire earth sphere, Terra. At this point in your time, you are only looking through one pin-prick of a view of what this is going to involve. It is beyond your comprehension. Rest easy with this for it will open as you are in receptivity to understand what is needed to know.

This idea of immortality, this longevity in the life experience, will have to do with your understanding of the importance of aligning the beliefs with the vehicle, of utilizing the great healer and regenerator called oxygen on your system, and how through breathing and the releasing of limiting ideas and limiting programs that have been placed on the vehicle, you will allow yourself to regenerate.
Some of you may feel despondent at this idea because your lives are not in harmony at this time and you may say, "I do not want to live 100 more years." [This will change] as certain difficulties are brought to the surface and released and worked out. This will come about through your intentions. It will come about in a natural process. It will develop over time. We are giving you an avenue of exploration to show you what you are working towards. As you make your lives in order and as you are forming the new earth you will want to be here for the gratification and for the satisfaction and for the ability to have this great completion that will free you with flying colors from your tethers to your Mother Earth.

You all expect to die. You celebrate your birthdays and you are most joyous about these birthdays to a certain age. Then you begin to dread them because you have a program set out for yourself that says that each birthday is bringing about the degeneration of the body, bringing about a decrepit state, a state of ill health, a state that promotes inactivity. Your cards in your stores that you buy promote this. You turn 29 years old and you say to yourself you are over the hill. We are bringing this up to you because we have been working with you and preparing you not for a few years of excitement but for many years if you choose. It is always up to you.

There are probable lives that exist in front of you that are free of physical difficulty. If you wish to be free of physical difficulties it is you that needs to be in receptivity of healing. Healing is necessary when there is a discomfort within the body. A discomfort exists within the body when one refuses the growth that the soul needs to experience. It is a blockage of growth. It is a fear of change.

You have heard us speak often enough how important it is to change and yet each and every one of you fear change and you wish to control down to the minutest detail every aspect of your lives. When you allow the vehicle to move forward without fear, then there is no need for discomfort or disease. When you learn to believe that you can maintain a consistency of body structure, a consistency of cell regeneration, then truly will you be able to demonstrate to others.
Expand your ideas, particularly in the areas of aging and immortality, about who you can be. You can revitalize yourselves. There are ancient sciences, as we may call them, on your planet who have spoken of the importance of the breath over and over again. And yet to you it all seems like too much work. What do you all have in common with one another throughout the entire planet? You all need to breathe. Is that not so? And what is it this oxygen does to your system? It regenerates it. It activates what is going on inside.

In this time of energy acceleration it would behoove each and every one of you to add more oxygen to your being. There are many ways to do this. The most simplistic is to become consciously aware of your breath. Through the breath you can do many things. You can activate the crystalline structures or deactivate the crystalline structures. You can activate your own self. You can clear energy that is coming between two beings purely by inhaling and releasing. You can bring about a state of great calmness. You can bring about a state of altered consciousness. You can bring about a state of healing. You can bring about, eventually, a state of teleportation and bi-location and dematerialization. This is all something that you are working towards.

The second part of our discussion is about being in preparation and what it is to have contact. Contact has existed on your planet from the very beginning. There have been those that have come down and it has been their life journey to sojourn on your planet and to teach cultures. There are those who are even on this day sequestered away within the deep catacombs, as you would call them, the deep underground tunnels and monasteries of your ancient Tibetan area that house the bodies of those who are kept in what you would call perpetuity so that they can be reminded of the star teachers who have given so much to this planet.

Whenever mankind has made a leap forward that leap has come because mankind has been guided and because mankind asked for assistance. Much information is transferred to your planet in a variety of ways. Each and every one of you is on the verge of having great volumes of information come through to you. It is up to you whether you are going to believe this. It is up to you whether you are going to call out and ask for a teacher and ask for the assistant that you are needing in this moment to bring about your life's work and fulfillment. You are all here for really important reasons.

Eventually you each are going to be coming into contact. That may occur in a variety of ways. You have heard us say over and over again that there are many dimensions of experience. Each dimension of experience has its own validity. As third dimensional man who would call "real" only one portion of its existence, when everything you perceive and everything you feel is real.

Prepare yourselves and wait in each and every moment for more information, for a gentle love to come through and relinquish your fear. You may think it is easy for us to say to relinquish your fears. It is easy to say. Your fears have to do with a multitudinous buildup that has come from your childhood. What your ideas of the unknown may be, what your ideas of safety may be and what is in store for you.

At first, you may be startled when one comes into your presence and resonates four or five feet off the ground and gives you teachings for an hour or two. Yet, if that is your experience, you have called it to yourself.

This year you would find that each month, each one of your moons, will multiply itself exponentially prior to the month that you have just experienced. So whatever it was that you have experienced in your month that has just passed, you will find that it will double itself in the next month. It will continue to build. You are creating for yourselves a massive acceleration because you are each calling it to yourself.

You had best, if you wish to take our advice, keep yourself in balance and by all means, clearly call out through prayer or through intention, whichever feels more correct to you, call out to what you are desiring to manifest and utilize the great gifts that are coming your way. You each have selected yourselves and you each have placed yourself in an opportunity to grow beyond your wildest dreams. We are here as always to assist. We encourage you and we say to you that there is a pathway of joy and glory that lies in front of you and it is all that you need to know. Move yourself towards this.

QUESTION: Will we begin eating a lighter and lighter diet as we learn to rejuvenate ourselves and learn to take more energy out of the ethers and less out of our physical surroundings?

PLEIADIANS: You've got it. For those of you who like food, it is not that you need to let it go. It is not that it is going to be a great sacrifice. It is that you will find that there are alternative ways of being and you will find that those habits that you had you are no longer in desire of participating within.

You will find, many of you, that as you begin to oxygenate the system more, that you would bring about a greater state of energy and that as you begin to bring about this greater state of energy you will find that it is not necessarily coming from the food source, that it is coming from light, that it is coming from meditation, it is coming from being aligned with your thoughts and the changing of your beliefs and that the body does not have to be based on what your nutritionists say you need to have to keep alive.

QUESTION: What would be the first step we should take in this rejuvenation process?

PLEIADIANS: Oxygenation. Oxygenation flushes out what is unnecessary and keeps the body full of light. Breathing is the main thing. There are additives that are also oxygenators. There are many assistants to bring about oxygenation [that you can buy].

The breath has not been focused on enough. All of these other things certainly assist you but breathing is your key. Whatever it is that you are going to add to your lives, utilize the great process of breathing. Each man on your planet has been given all that is needed to come to a completion. It is you, yourselves, who go about inventing things to assist this and there is nothing wrong with this. We applaud your creativity. But you, yourselves, each have the ability and your breathing is one of your greatest tools.

There are many techniques. There are many journeys that can be taken by utilization of the breath alone. Utilizing the breath and the oxygenation process in conjunction with taking substances that have oxygen within them, particularly if you participate in foods that are rich in oxygen, you are enhancing a lightness of being. You are activating an energy form that brings about greater states of awareness.

QUESTION: You began the evening talking about contact. I feel that I have been contacted but I'm not sure whether it was real or not.

PLEIADIANS: What do you think we're going to say that you were imagining it? What have we been speaking to you about imagination? What have we been speaking to you about the various realms of experience? They are legitimate. You had your wits about you and you were told at that moment to receive. Many of you are surrounded on a continual basis. It is up to you to have your wits to receive.

Some of you will begin to feel pressure on your body, to feel pressure on your skin. There will be slight hintings. There will be feelings around you in the atmosphere that the air has changed. There will be a difference in the light molecular structure in front of you. This is all a portion of a variety of energies that are attempting to communicate with you. More than [the fact that] these entities are attempting to communicate with you is that you, yourself, have broken down your barriers as to your definitions of what you think is possible. You are moving more steadfastly into what you would call fourth dimensional experience which allows you to be feelers and not thinkers.
QUESTION: What about our fears of contact?

PLEIADIANS: There are very few existing on the planet at this time who are fearless. So, first of all, relinquish any judgment you may have of yourself or of others who are facing their fears. One of the best ways to overcome fear is to acknowledge it. Where you trick yourselves and you try to pretend that you are not afraid, you hold on and you hide deep inside of your being this intimate feeling that you will not admit because you think it is a weakness. When you lay it out in front of you and you say, "I am afraid," you are willing the issue to a head and you are asking that you understand this fear and you are asking for assistance in this area.

When you have fear, particularly of contact, you are fearing that there is going to be the unknown, the "x" factor, that is going to come in and affect you in a way that you will feel out of control with. We have been saying that your world is a result of your thought manifestation. This idea works in all of the realms of experience.

Your intention about the kind of experience you wish to have can literally change in the moment. If ever you are finding, whether it be in third, fourth or fifth dimensional experience, that you are drawing to yourself something less than what you are choosing, then you must learn to believe that you can vanquish that in an instant whether it be a dream or one who would come to literally attack you. Your powers are such. Your thoughts will send out a wall of protection and you can use a thrust of energy that will stop whatever is coming your way.

When you are feeling a fear and if you wish to stop the experience and you are not prepared for it, state this and put up around yourself a shield of light and know that that shield of light is as real as any wall that you would build with cinder blocks. This is what you are teaching yourselves, that your thoughts form your world.

The large majority of you will not be in need of protection because you have the ability to understand that you would draw to yourself the highest of light energy. If you are desiring contact, ask that the contact come in a time when you are safe, when you are comfortable, that you not be startled.

Define how you wish contact. If you are going about saying, "I want contact. I want contact," what are you going to get? If you want contact in a certain condition in certain parameters of experience, state this. "I would like to have..." and define in the affirmative how you would be designing your experience. "I would enjoy contact with one who would approach me with love and that I immediately sense this and that I immediately move into a state of receptivity. I [want to be] contacted by one whose physical visage and vibration is something that I am comfortable with." It is up to you to design how adventurous you wish your experiences. There will be a time when you will be gathering so many experiences that we will be pushed to the background waiting our turn to come in.

There are many, many contacts going on on the planet at this time. Your universe is teeming with life. Just because one has certain abilities does not necessarily mean that they are of the highest intentions. When you are bringing an understanding of teaching into your life and energies from the outside, whether they be extraterrestrial or whatever fashion or form the higher energies come to you, discernment is most important.

The way you discern is by the feeling in the center portion of your body. How is it that you feel? Are you feeling in comfort? Are you feeling uplifted? What is the message that is being given? Are you being pointed to your own abilities or are you being asked to do something that does not feel comfortable to you? All of these are keys.

Most definitely on your planet you are going to be experiencing great confusion because it is all going to break loose very shortly. All that has been covered up, all that has been kept from you is going to come out in this decade and you are all going to have the opportunity to fine tune discernment and to align yourself with energies human and otherwise that will afford opportunities for your growth. It is you that, through your intention, will decide how that growth will be.
[Most of] the beings coming from the skies at this time are those to enhance the spiritual understanding of mankind. Mankind will learn to resonate with his own beauty and great desire to become one with the higher realms. Do not call those who come from the sky aliens. Realize that we are your ancient heritage and that many have come to assist you. Many have come to reawaken and allow you to move beyond this time that you have been greatly sequestered by your own energies. We congratulate you on your journeys into yourselves.
You are coming to maturity. You are coming to be full in your blossom, full in your vibrancy, full in your seed. The fullness and the ripeness, the sweetness of your own being the beings that you would be a bit nostalgic for, that would almost be something like an ache inside of your being when you look back at these times.

Many of you have done very well and brought yourselves to a very firm stance within yourselves. You saw what needed to be changed and you rose to the occasion and allowed yourself to just be nourished by the energies that would bring you to become ripe upon the vine. Some of you have heard us speak about the time that is coming, the new energy accelerations. For some of you it must seem as if you live from one energy acceleration to the next.

Tremendous currents of energy come with each new acceleration. Now you are ripe. Now you are ready. Now you have moved past that which has been difficult. Now you are ready like spiritual warriors to face what is coming, to go full on into what lies ahead in the light, the brilliancy.

Your population is beginning to double at an accelerated [pace]. You are moving into the electrifying leap of consciousness because there will be more and more and more people upon the planet. [In the '70's] there were approximately 2 billion humanities upon the planet. Now you have over 6 billion people, in less than fifteen of your years. What is going to happen in the next fifteen of your years? Why are so many humans coming upon the planet?

You are at a very interesting point in your development. Many of you do not see so clearly where it is that you are. We would like to say that you are poised on the brink of the cliff. You have traveled very far and now the next step for you is the journey into the boundless energy. Life is going to get much more thrilling, interesting and exciting.
We would discuss with you the sweetness, the richness, the ripeness of life this evening of your days and how the point that you have reached will take you further into areas where you are all going to need to become experts [and] have tremendous confidence in your abilities.

QUESTION: I want to ask about the population increase. When people incarnate onto the planet they know the changes that are going to happen, so why would they be incarnating?

PLEIADIANS: You must understand how the earth has been for so long. It is the same place, the same cyclical type of situation where everyone comes onto the planet in order to work through what is needed always working, working, working. Think about 10,000 years ago. How many humanities were on the planet? Then think about 5,000 years ago and see how the numbers have increased. When the numbers were smaller, of course, things would go much slower. Now that the numbers have accelerated so vastly, things are sped up.

Now, this is where humanities get stuck. You all think it is bad to die. True? You want everyone to live happily ever after, forever. Immortality of being. So you all think it is not good if mass amounts of humanities are terminated. That is your premise, many of you, that starts off all this questioning.

You must understand that before one comes into physical body one knows that one is not going to become annihilated. So one comes in with confidence that they are a continuous being. It is only when one is entrenched in the body, in the physical reality, that one is not so certain that one goes on.

Many of the beings that are coming upon the planet at this time, that are helping to bring about this population explosion, are coming here knowing that they are not going to move into immortality within the physical body. That is going to be for a small grouping. It is going to be for a very dedicated grouping that will extend their physical lives. But those that come onto the planet knowing that they may be a part of the great earth changes, knowing that their lives may be a momentary light upon the surface of the earth, but they know the power that their transformation will have upon the consciousness of not only the earth, but all of the humanities that are involved.

You see, as human beings you need to be shocked out of your complacency, out of your apathy. Sometimes it is the only way that you learn. So there are shocks coming to your systems that will literally jolt you into other realities of being. If you were to find out that 20 million people died in a matter of a moment, and if you were to look upon the wreckage of it, it might jolt you into another reality.

So, the groupings are coming because they are knowing that through their intention the purpose of having this many humanities on the planet is going to bring about a planetary shift in consciousness because the activities of this many people cannot help but make a psychic impact upon the evolutionary process of Adam Cadmon man.

QUESTION: If a volcano erupts and 2 million people are killed, do these 2 million people also benefit from having taken part in the experiment and having placed themselves in that position? Are they also involved in the growth process?

PLEIADEANS: Absolutely. There are 5 billion people on your planet at this time. Shortly, within the next five years you are going to hear much discussion about controlling the population although there will be no controlling it because you are in the midst of discovering your freedoms. It is something that is out of control. Have you taken a trip lately and looked at your highways and freeways and airports to see how many of you are out and about? Can you imagine that that will be doubled in a number of years?

What will happen is that you will reach a point, and you are quite near this point, when you overload the circuitry of the planet. There will have to be a shift, a tilt to take it to a greater state of awareness. There will come a time, we guarantee it, where there will be mass group exiting off the planet. Mass death. These groups tend to bring about an alteration of consciousness. Those who remain upon the planet in physical reality are those who will alter the structure of the planet.

We would like to incorporate with this what you would be doing as you begin your intensive study of working in the astral plane. This is going to be your project. Once you get yourself involved in this you will find that it will be a life's work. You are going to become pioneers in this area. You will come to work together for an amount of time. Many of you will eventually go off and lecture, perhaps write books from the experiences that you will have as you learn to become spiritual creators and travelers on the astral plane.

You will be able, when you are capable, to get out to what is called the corridor of time. It is a place that at this time you would need to be guided to find this location. Once someone has shown you how to ride this corridor, you will go there astrally in groupings and you will project yourself into different time segments of your own future to see what probabilities are most prevalent and to see what preparation you will need to work with the changes that will come through the masses working together to alter the planet.

It is very interesting what lies ahead for you. You will be quite occupied and quite rewarded for the work that you will do. When you master these skills and techniques many of the struggles that you presently have will no longer exist because you will be able to move in a realm that will enhance the picture that you presently have of reality. Your means and methodology for securing prosperity and securing monies and securing all kinds of desires, will be closer to hand and you will have a much clearer picture as to certain decisions that you would make.

QUESTION: When I think of these earth changes, I don't see how I can really plan anything.
PLEIADEANS: You cannot. What do you want to plan for’?

QUESTION: If I want to go to film school, the only places to go are Los Angeles, New York and Chicago and I heard they're going to be wiped out.

PLEIADEANS: When the time comes for you to make a decision to do something, knowing your intention, knowing your exposure to the expansion of yourself, if it is in your best interest to [do something] it will all work out for you as if someone had planned the entire episode. If it is not to work, if it is not the timing to get involved in [something] then doorways will be slammed in your face.

You go about your life, all of you, with your intentions. You need to have great flexibility with how those intentions can be played out. It is a limitation for you to buy into the idea that film can only be studied in those three places. It seems that that would be the case. We are saying that if you had your heart bent on studying film you could create it anywhere that you are wanting because someone that would be a great film director, or whatever, could be spending years in retirement and looking for someone to be a student.

What we are saying is keep your dream. Don’t give that dream up. Simply open the probabilities as to how you will learn about what you are wanting. You all get stuck in this. You think you have one or two choices as to how you can receive something or how something can be done for you. For all you know, you may go to the beach one weekend and be walking along the beach and find something upon the sand and pick it up and it belongs to someone. It is their wallet or something. So you return it to them and they thank you and invite you in for tea and it turns out that they were in the movies for fifty years and they are coming here three times a year for a month to do some work.

You never know how spirit is going to set up a situation for you. Remember, you are at the point where you are to recognize, those of you who choose this, that you are employed by spirit. When you really wish to make the acceleration and to make the big leap in what you are, you are employed by spirit. Spirit has no limitations. Spirit does not require that you pass any tests to get into school.

Spirit will give you lessons for free with no tuition. Let spirit arrange for you what you are wanting and trust yourself. Intend that when the earth changes and the shifts in consciousness come about upon the planet that you will be safe and provided for and you will be flexible with what your choices will be.

QUESTION: Since we create our realities, with enough massive thought and loving light can we stop the earth changes from happening?

PLEIADIANS: Many have asked this question. You are thinking again that the earth changes would be bad because life would be annihilated. Correct? Remember that life came here to help, to participate. So some lives make their translation knowing the effect on consciousness. You are forgetting everything is integrated. Everything is all one. You, yourselves, may be able to bond and secure light-wise an area that you may live within. And you, yourselves, may miss any kind of deep catastrophe. Yet, in general, you are not going to stop the changes that are necessary to bring about the shift in consciousness.

You may alter the severity or you may alter one aspect of it. But, in general, the pulse of the world is moving towards something and all you need to do is look in your newspapers. Thirty or forty years ago, do you know how many earthquakes there were? In a year there were a handful that many years ago. Now there are thousands in one year. Each year they increase more and more and more. These are your earth changes.

Sometimes we don't like the word "earth changes" because it gives all of you the idea that the earth is going to crack down the middle and that there is going to be horrible devastation. There are going to be changes, definitely. But, as we said, the earth changes have been building your weather patterns. All of these are about earth changes because they capture the attention of man and make them think.

The purpose of all of this is to bring the species upon the planet to the brink of understanding that you are spiritual beings and not material beings. The bridging of spiritual self is the whole idea of this shift in consciousness. To take away the over-emphasis of the material world, the struggle of man, the competition of man, the need to go outside of the home to work, to bring monies in, to live in the material world, this is what you are moving away from.

It is a time when Mother Earth is cleansing herself, when she is shaking off the shivers of a fever. It is like she is birthing something. Each one of you has allowed yourself to search inside of your own [personal] earth and to shake it up and to recultivate it and to go through your emotional furrows and plant new ideas of being, new patterns of energy. In a sense, you have gone through it already and now you are going to project outward what you have done and let the earth demonstrate to the rest of humanity what to do. This will bring about a cleansing. It will bring about a restructuring and bring about the coming together of a brotherhood upon the planet.

QUESTION: Can you talk a little bit about how we can juggle our schedules to fit in all of the things we want to be doing?

PLEIADIANS: That, indeed, can be a challenge. As you reach this sweetness of days, this ripeness of your being, all of a sudden you will find that almost anything that you turn your hand to you will become quite proficient in. You will find that there will be a multitude of areas to learn about.

Always do that for yourself which facilitates you feeling good first. It does not mean that it has to be first thing in the day. It means that it is your first priority at some point during the day. That during the day this must be done. That means breathing. That means eating properly. That means exercising and utilizing the physical vehicle in a proper way. Those things must come first. The breathing, the ingestion of good food and the proper expansion of energy, physical exchange of the body. And meditation. As you do these things on a regular basis you will find that you will have much more energy and you will have to prioritize what you are wanting. You will fit it in if you feel good physically.

Often people get busy and they say, "I need to do this, this, this and this and I don't have time." After awhile, you cannot do all the things you wish to do because your body is not up to par. Always put your physical vehicle first.

Let yourselves move with grace and dignity throughout your days. There are many adventures ahead and we are certain that you will all be upon them. We will do whatever we can to bring you the assistance and the energy needed to bring about the great transformation of earth.
Over [the last couple of years] we have discussed many ideas with you concerning boundaries that you have set around your definition of reality. [There] is a need for each of you to examine the boundaries that you have set around yourselves. Each of you believes that you have evolved, that you have a large picture, that you see many things. Relative to where you have journeyed from, indeed, you have made progress. However, we guarantee you that you are not seeing the boundary that you presently set for yourself, the boundary that still defines what you believe you can and cannot do. This is what tethers you to this version, this frequency of reality.

These boundaries that you set, that you advertise and announce about yourselves, keep you from moving with the information that is beginning to awaken inside of you. The information is part of the spiritual upliftment. Different layers of reality are removed so that you become more in tune with the realms that are called spirit. That is what spiritual advancement is.

We want you to give up boundaries. We want you to stop defining and protecting every aspect of your lives.

Light represents information. Darkness represents ignorance, not being informed. You have heard us speak many times of the Family of Light or the White T-Shirt and the Dark T-Shirt teams. You represent a return of the White T-Shirts. That's basically who you are. You are members of the Family of Light and we want you to contemplate who Light are. We want that to be a concept that filters through your consciousness.

You all know that the body is changing. There is a rearranging and a rebundling of the light encoded filaments that have been scattered inside of your physical body. Your bodies are being retooled, redesigned. Light encoded filaments make up the strand which forms each helix [of the DNA]. As this energy [during the energy accelerations] moves into the body, it is like a gridwork of energy that is superimposed or aligned over the physical body. All of the bodies must be intact in order for the light encoded filament bundling to be affected. What does this mean?

Remember there are millions of light encoded filaments. They have been purposely scattered in your DNA so that a long time ago when you were created, you could be controlled by some. There were those who were of Light who biogenetical created a great liberation within one species of the planet. Your reality, your world, at different times was raided. There were other forms of extraterrestrial stewardship or cosmic kings that came in and took over the project of your earth. This has been called "the fall" in religious terms. A change of administration took place.

These new administrators on your planet called themselves God with a big "G" when they were really gods with a little "g." They did a biogenetic manipulation upon many members of the species. Your relatives that made up the organization of the DNA material were put asunder, or scattered within the body. That formed tiny fibers of data that were at random within the cells of the body. These are the light encoded filaments.

The light encoded filaments are beginning to find their counterparts and data, information, history that is your right to know, is organizing itself inside of your bodies in conjunction with the rays and the gridworks that are being put over your physical bodies, you who are members of the Family of Light.

It is an awesome task to carry light. Once you allow light to come into the body you begin the process of change. [It] is not always a joyous, uplifting, fun-filled time as some of you have discovered. In this process, when things are not so fun-filled, the first thing that you all do in order to keep yourself from evolving and from changing, you immediately begin to respond to all emotional events with fear. You blame someone else and you whine and you complain and you feel and believe that someone did something to you.

The rest of the planet believes this. The rest of the planet are not members of the Family of Light. There are millions of you here, of course, and light is returning to this planet where the Dark T-shirts were in charge for a very, very long time, where the Dark T-shirts fed off of your emotions of fear and negativity and war and greed. Because this is a free will universe, all of this has been allowed. And, of course, Prime Creator, First Cause, is the Dark Team as well as the Family of Light. Prime Creator, First Cause is all things.

We teach you in terms of stories. Some day perhaps you will see through some of the stories that we tell and you will not need these stories any longer. You will be able to smash paradigms and come into a knowing of larger realities. Until that day, we speak to you in stories so that we can hold your interest and entice you along to areas where you are petrified to go and yet in areas where you have committed to the deepest portion of your soul to journey.

You have agreed to carry light and to return light to this planet. So it is that as light begins to fill your bodies, your memories must be opened and you must evolve as the DNA evolves, into a multi-dimensional self, a multidimensional reality.

EDITOR'S NOTE: In earlier tapes the Pleiadians explained that as we are evolving biogenetically our DNA, which was a double helix, has now become a triple helix. The triple will become six, six will become nine and nine will become twelve. Each new strand relates to a corresponding chakra in the twelve chakra system.

When the triple helix was born, there was a rebundling of certain information which coincided with the double helix as your scientific community would describe it. There was stirring up and there were memories and there was energy that needed to be brought to the surface. The first two strands [the double helix] that are in each person relate to the first two chakras the base chakra and the chakra of sexuality.

The triple helix relates to the third chakra, that of feeling. As the triple helix came into blossoming and as the triple helix began to release its data, as the nervous system continued to evolve, the brain began to move into a functional capacity – full function you are striving for today rather than a mere 5-8%. This mutation process is all of the data. The complete history of yourselves in the universe is in these light encoded filaments which have been scattered inside of the self by beings who did not want you to be that talented because they could not control you.

You are now coming to the time where there are three more strands so there [will] be six strands. The six strands will work you through the heart center, the throat center and the third eye center.

Anything that you have not let go of that has to do with identity, sexuality and feeling if you have not worked through these and simply used the material of your own history to create soap operas around your life that you want to run and have a non-ending show, you will get stuck in these areas. As the other frequencies, as the other DNA's begin to form, if you do not clear this stuff, everything will go into chaos in your body.

The self must explore all of the history of this body so that you can accept who and what this body is, and who and what this body has done and what has been done to it. If and when you can reach this place of understanding why you created others coming into your life to create great disturbances, then ideally you will put yourself in a position to sanely explore the channels of the multi-dimensional self where we guarantee you, you are not going to be pleased at what you have done.

Many of you have been practicing the art of projection. That means that you blame someone else for what you have created. That is acting completely against all that we have taught you. No one else does anything to you ever. You create your reality. In order for you to get the body ready to move into the multi-dimensional version of self, you must stop judging it.

The multi-dimensional self is where you literally begin to feel this data from the light-encoded filaments that is your history, that is your identity, that is the history of your world on this planet and of f of it. In order for you to have this history revealed to you as a frequency, you must move out of right and wrong and judgment. You must smash the paradigms.

We have carried the idea of sexuality into many of these concepts. A long time ago we taught you that sexuality is a frequency of ecstasy that was not taken away from you like the data in the DNA. You were left with the frequency of orgasmic experience in sexuality so that you could remember your higher identity.

When this energy, or this history of yourself begins to reveal itself and you begin to discover who you are, you have to unite many bodies in order to receive the full impact of the gridwork of your identity to let the 12 helixes fit in the body, to let the light encoded filaments rearrange themselves. It has to do with the mental body, which is of course connected to the physical body. Mentally you can send an image or you can stir up the physical body. Everyone gets stuck in the emotional body. The emotional body is connected to the spiritual body. The emotional body is the body that everybody wants to skip. "I want to evolve. I want a rapid acceleration and I do not want to go through the feeling center to do it."

You are connected to your multidimensional selves through your feelings. So it is through your feelings where primarily humans get stuck.
That is why men have given up feeling. In your society, men have simply bypassed or recircuited the energy from the first chakra, the second chakra and they move up into thinking. That is why the female vibration has been very frustrated with the male vibration because the male vibration does not feel.

The male vibrations have lost their feeling into their second chakra.
It has been very frustrating. If the male vibration felt, they could not go out and commit war. You cannot feel and take the life of another. In general, if your feeling center is open, you are connected to how someone else is. You would feel their pain and it would be a rare group of people who would get off on that kind of pain and killing. War occurs because feeling centers are shut down. So the male vibration has been in agony by having feelings locked into the penis for all these years.

You may think it is a joke. It is not a joke. That is what allowed the patriarchal society to develop without feeling men. Your world has been organized by men for quite a number of thousands of years as the woman or the goddess energy has decided to be quiet for awhile. Now you are experiencing a reawakening of the goddess and the merging of the male and the female identity within each person which has been called on your planet the twin flame. The twin flame is the male and the female within each person.

QUESTION: Sometimes the things you really want to experience or that you crave to express and you feel like are truly you, you're terrified of experiencing. Are the craving and the fear somehow connected to the fact that the DNA has been scattered and the light is in there but you can't seem to get to it?

Pleiadians: Gold star for you. That is a very good stretch of understanding what you fight with to understand. The physical bodies of the creatures of earth were designed. You all represent the renegade group of Light. A renegade factor of Light shall we say. You have agreed to come back on the planet. You are on assignment. You come into these physical bodies and take them over.

You intend through the power of your spiritual identity to change the physical body. You all selected with great care the genetic line that would best give you a head start with all of this. So each of you genetically chose your parentage or your genetic genealogical history somewhere where members of the Family of Light have threaded through your own genes.

When you begin to awaken this identity, this reality, when the coding begins to be fired in you, you must follow. The logical mind wants to fight with the coding. It is the logical mind to some extent that has a memory of the pain that was suffered when the fall took place. When man existed in his right domain, man had the ability to understand many realities.

Man had the ability to be multi-dimensional, to be one and equal with the gods. The gods raided this reality just like corporate raiders come in and take over a place because the pension funds are in great abundance.
the funds upon this planet were in great abundance. So long ago, in order to have these gods be believed as gods, they rearranged you genetically.

The DNA was like a fantastic library [before it was scattered]. Imagine going into a library and pulling all of the books off of the shelf and letting them all be heaped into the center of the room and then destroying the card catalog so there is no way to find information. That information exists, but if it is not stumbled upon it is lost. It is not cross-referenced.

That is what happened with your genetic structure. That is when the Family of Light was scattered from the planet. The Dark Team, that which operated out of ignorance, came in. The body carries a fear and a memory of striving for knowledge that the gods represented, that they took away from you. The gods who did this are magnificent space creatures. They can do many kinds of manipulations and work with realities in many different ways. When this occurred, man began to be in ignorance and man began to call these space creatures God with a big "g."

God with a big "g" has never visited this planet. God with a big "g" is in all things. You have only dealt with gods with a little "g" who have wanted to confuse you, who have thought of this as a place that they own out in the galactic fringes of this free-will universe.

QUESTION: It seems such a paradox; that on one hand we create our reality and on the other hand we have been genetically altered into ignorant beings.

PLEIADIANS: Yes. This is the paradox we want you to be confused with at this time.

You see, both of those concepts are boundaries. They define your reality. There are enough of you awakened. You are not alone. The process is occurring so rapidly that you are ready to have a huge realization about your identity as members of the Family of Light. You must begin to integrate the concept that, yes, you are biogenetically manipulated and you create your own reality.

In this free-will zone all is allowed. One of the primary lessons that has been going on on this planet is, in a free-will zone, authority, sovereignty, tends to be the major issue all over the universe. You have the free-will to give up your authority and you allow others to define your existence. Others created you just like you create many things. You bring light to things you do not understand. Ideally, the things that you bring light to and the things that you become steward over, you have a certain degree of responsibility to. You have a certain compassion of stewardship and you balance out your power over what you create. The beings who created you, [had] their creation raided. Others came in and took over in this free-will zone where all is allowed.

You, as members of the Family of Light, have designed this time to alter the planet, to eventually alter the whole universe. The Family of Light is very vast. There are many more of many other kinds of families besides light. We are simply talking to you about light because that is your primary affiliation at this time. Perhaps [later] you will begin to realize what is beyond light, what else there is besides light.

QUESTION: When the DNA was scattered, where did the information go?

PLEIADIANS: It was all set asunder so that there was no way to make sense of the information. So, how do you find the information? The information is going to reveal itself to you. That is the process. You don't have to go looking for it. This is your heritage. This is who you are. It is the memories that are going to come flooding your consciousness.

As the DNA begins to form these new strands, these new strands will travel along a nervous system in the body that is being developed at this time. Over this last year we worked with you to develop the nervous system, to pull light into the body, to oxygenate the system, to learn how to move through energy accelerations and call more ideas, more experiences into the body. As this process begins to grow itself and nurture itself in the body, you simply observe it.

You want to know how to access it. When you get stuck in your dramas, that is when you keep reading one of the books and don't let all of the information of the other books come together. There is a whole story.

The story has to do with your whole soul. The entire soul. You are, as members of the Family of Light, agreeing to hold in your physical body, conscious awareness of all of your existence and to accept what you have done, the parts you played in all these existences. And then, to raid different realities, to change them according to the dictates of your agreement as a representative of the Family of Light. You have free will within this, of course.

The triple helix brings you into the feeling center. The feeling center is emotion. Emotion is linked, no doubt about it, and it is your road, it is your bridge, your ticket to the spiritual self.

When people don't like or deny the emotional self, they can't get in to the spiritual realms. The Christed one said "Know thyself." That was given on the planet a long time ago and distorted so that people could not understand how grand indeed they were, that all they had to do was rearrange themselves.

It is always internal. When people want to know how to go about bringing the change upon the planet, we've always said work with yourself. Develop yourself. Move beyond the boundaries of self. Learn to become multi-dimensional. Learn to exist in the astral world. Learn to travel beyond the physical body. Stop defining the body as ending "here" which is what society encourages you to do so that you can be controlled.

In a free will zone control is part of the game because, in a free will zone someone is going to say, "I want to be in charge." You are members of the Family of Light. To what hierarchy and to what gods do you answer?
The Saga of the Family of Light

It is time for all of you to redefine in a much greater sense your own identity. Events are transpiring in the cosmos that you and many of your political leaders have no idea of. You must stop this foolishness about your definitions of gods. You must stop this foolishness of thinking that there are beings who come from the skies to your planet with special talents and abilities and that they all are spiritually connected. You are going to discover as a species some very disturbing ideas over the next number of years; perhaps it will be not for fifteen or twenty years. Nonetheless, we are preparing you by decree of the Family of Light so that you can understand and be informed as to your own options.

The Family of Light has been noted for its penchant, its predilection for creating societies where there is a tremendous movement in all directions along the light rays. What does this mean? Light is information. The Family of Light is the Family of Information. There are consciousnesses that are Families of War, that spend perhaps billions of years in your conception of time, studying, promoting, experiencing control over consciousness. In a universe that is existing out of a limitation of time, all scenarios within a free will zone get played out.

This is a time for you to radically change your views about yourselves. It is time for you to bust down boundaries. It is time for you to rise [out of] the pettiness of day-to-day dramas and events, to begin to connect on a cosmic level the higher drama that is occurring so that you can be better informed for your own intentions, purposes and drama. You must be able to understand your identity and your ability to ride your identity into any world that you choose.

You have had changes, many of you. Look back to see who you were one year ago and, ideally, each of you will feel much more empowered. Each of you will feel, ideally, that you do, in every instance, create your own reality. And, ideally, each of you would at this point accept that every situation that you experience, whether you are employed or unemployed, is by your own design. Ideally, at this time each and every one of you has the art of manifestation down, because it is now time for you to pull [in] the cosmic gridwork, a gridwork that is fired by light encoded filaments outside of your body and to plug this gridwork of information into your psyches so that you can become broadcasters of this data upon your planet.

[It is time for you] to smash down the boundaries around you. Those boundaries came from beliefs that were given to you when you were within the system of the double helix. As the other helixes form in your body and begin to bundle information together, and the Family of Light begins to once again vibrate upon this planet and change the vibrational course of this planet. You will discover that you will need to know and believe that you are much more capable than you presently believe you are. You must be much more discerning about what and who is going to come from the skies because you are going to be duped and you are going to be tricked and you are not going to understand it.

We see this because we know how easy it is to dupe you and to trick you. Sometimes we do it to you to move you along. We have said this to you. We have been very tricky with you. If we told you the whole story, many of you would have turned tail and run a long time ago. It is true. So, we have instilled in you confidence. We have instilled in you [new information] that you create yourselves, that you create your reality by your thoughts. [With that information] you could begin to formulate a world that has been designed by the Family of Light so that a plan and a new gridwork can overlay a portion of this earth and that a completely new probability can burst forward, because there is potential for a great cosmic war here upon your planet at some time.

You have been given, in historical terms, names of beings and names and colors of rays and it has all been so much hocus-pocus that you do not even get a true picture of what is going on in the cosmos. You keep calling all of these beings gods, and you have a completely convoluted view.
You, as members of the Family of Light, have a stance in another reality that is that identity that you read about or that others worship. It is not to be worshiped. It simply is. It is no different than the you that sits before us. It has its own drama that it is working out in the same way that you do. It simply is more informed because it operates on a different frequency than you do. You came here to bring that frequency and to let that frequency once again reign upon the planet. That frequency that is informed, that creates an equality.

The Family of Light are renegades. They are definitely renegades. They bring something into reality that wreaks havoc of others' plans. And many say, "Oh, no, here comes the Light." Their systems, or their plans are set asunder because Light comes in and Light wrecks systems.

Systems of information, systems of society, systems of worlds, are formed by information that someone gives you. But they are formed more by the lack of information that someone gives you. What you do not know (what others withhold from you), forms your beliefs. As in sexuality. As in no one giving you the idea from the time that you were born that your thoughts create your world, etc. So, light represents information of a sort that has so much movement that eventually all systems evolve. Light can be a systemless organization because it is constantly breaking down its boundaries.

Within the Family of Light there are those who are conservative. Who want to hold on. Who want to hold systems and ideas. You are a part of the renegades. You are not going to kneel down and worship anyone. There is no master that is going to come before you that you are going to agree to follow. You may for a while because you will have forgotten. But you will know that you are from that portion of the Family of Light that continuously carries a banner of freedom, to follow no one but the inner guidance.

There are those who do everything in their power to keep Light from coming into systems. There is a Divine Plan that is set about in many ways upon this planet. That Divine Plan has to do with a protection and a shielding of Light. Everything is done in its proper order. Light does not need front page advertisements or bulletin boards or newsletters. Light is a frequency and the frequency is what is spreading around the planet. As this frequency spreads, it spreads because members of the Family of Light allow information to be housed within their body and then let that information-simply be dispersed by living, by being.

Can you understand there will be those who will come from the stars to your planet who will have abilities that will be incredible to the mass consciousness of the people upon this planet? These beings do not feel. They are not connected to any spiritual seeking. The choice of the seeking, of the awakening of the spiritual self is, of course, free to each person upon this planet, each person in this universe. Not everyone is going to realize it.

Just as you have cultivated very powerful individuals upon your planet who do not feel, who have no connection to their emotional and spiritual consciousness, there are those who exist in space who are extremely powerful space kings, space entities, who have nothing to do with spirituality. They will be powerful forces, forces that if you meet them you could feel like David meeting Goliath. That is why it is important for all of you to learn how to alter your reality, to learn how to dance between the vibrations of frequency, to be able to flip into the station of the world that you will be wanting to experience.

QUESTION: So, these highly evolved, mental beings are disconnected from their spiritual center and are not members of Light?

PLEIADIANS: This is one of the great lessons for you as humans. The Family of Light portion of yourself knows this very well. But you are not awakened to that portion yet. You are still in the human portion. And the human portion has set boundaries about who is a good guy and who is a bad guy, and who is who in the space hierarchy. There have been tremendous amounts of literature on this and you have bought every one of them. We are telling you, smash all of those. Smash every one of them, including who you think we are.

Over the next number of years those who come from the skies will not be members of the Family of Light. They will be the mirror of those upon the planet. We have said to you, your lesson is becoming your own authority and stopping always giving over the decision making process to governmental people or parents or teachers or what have you. It is time for the people of the earth to become sovereign.

The people of the earth are going to need to be tricked first before they become aware. Many of you may find that you will be very frustrated. You will see things that others will not see. You will see a mass mania occurring upon this planet and you will not be able to live with it. You will see masses of people walk towards something, a false god that is foolishness. That will be the time, that will be the signal for you to go to your places of retreat.

You are beginning to feel what may be coming. As we have said to you before, it is an awesome task to carry light. Once you put it in your body there is no stopping it. There is no saying, "I quit with the light team." Once light is there, that is it.

We want you to realize that those beings who are space beings, who are on and around your planet at this time and who your governmental forces have made deals with, etc. they are dealing with the same issues that you are. There are those of the lower intelligence, the lower hierarchy, or whatever terms you wish to label them. They are beings who are reflecting your beliefs and your drama back at you. They have been accused of heinous behavior, doing mutations and abductions upon the human species that have sent an outcry among many of the organizational members of UFO study.

Yet they act as a mirror to show you your world, what you acquiesce to and what you acquiesce to let your leaders do all over the world. These extraterrestrials who come here do nothing different than your own species does or that the masses allow the [leaders] to do in their name because they do not rise up and say, "Hey, I do not approve of this! "

There is a complacency upon this planet. "You do it for me. I don't want to be responsible. You become my governmental official. You become my teacher. You become my boss. Some one tell me what to do."

These extraterrestrials mirror this to you. Remember the movie "V?" Many years ago, the movie "V" was shown upon your planet to give you some idea of the cunning and the conniving of certain entities who will come from space that some will indeed worship and think they are absolutely powerful masters. These scenarios are going to prove true. There is a pending merging of the human consciousness and the extraterrestrial alien presence upon this planet. It is being marketed to you at a rapid rate.

What we are saying is that many of you who have studied and who used your own discernment will be shocked and appalled at the foolishness and at the worship that the rest of the race will have toward certain beings from space who will pass themselves off as your creators, even though they do not have bodies that look like yours. They will be able to do many things, share many technologies. They will perhaps cure certain diseases that they helped create in the first place by teaching germ warfare to your planetary scientists.

You will retreat because you will become disgusted with society because you will not fit with the new gods. Do you understand this? The new gods may be lizards? That's a little funny, you think? Hold on to your seats. You have no idea what is coming. That is why we said, "If we told you everything that was coming you would have scattered a long time ago."

And, remember we said to you [before] that some play on both teams because they are double agents, etc. It is very complicated. It is so complicated and it is time for you to grow up and understand it. We have held your hands for quite a few moons and we are pushing your paradigms, stretching your identity because we are preparing you for something so that you will be able to stand firmly in an identity and not be crushed by what you thought was out there.
Oh, dear humans, you are in for an adventure. And only you can carry this adventure out. The non-physical realms continuously support you. The members of the Family of Light are around you and with you all of the time. Yet, it is up to you to master the laws that we have shared with you and to anchor them upon this planet.

When you begin to live all that we have taught you with this divine nonchalance, this trust of identity, this trust of synchronicity, this trust of being a part of a plan, then you will find that even in the midst of great calamity, of incredible odds, will you be able to defy the laws of man.

QUESTION: In a sense then, Light are the destroyers. We destroy the old in order to create this new world. So we can't really take a passive role.

PLEIADIANS: Of course, you do not. You take an incredibly active role. As we said to you, there are many who say, "Oh, no, here come the Light!" Light is known to alter every vibrational frequency that it encounters. Light carries information. Information expands systems. And old systems can no longer exist. So, as light moves to destroy, it births new systems by what it leaves behind. A new order is formed.

[Some of you find it difficult to think of yourselves as destroyers] because you have a belief system about it. It is a paradigm. Those who get stuck within that vibration, if you do not smash those ideas, you will become very confined and restricted in experiencing reality.

Yes, you are destroyers. You are definitely destroyers. You destroy systems where the Dark Team prevails, where ignorance prevails. Light goes in to destroy all systems.

[When we talk about retreat] we doubt you will want to stay. You will feel so isolated and so alone. You will feel the destruction of a belief system all around you and the formation of one that you have no relationship to, that of worship of perhaps lizard people, or some other kind of people. The toys for children called Masters of the Universe, depict energies that are very non-spiritually connected and that are somewhat ferocious. They are legitimate depictions.

Those humans or members of any consciousness that deal with struggle and that deal with fear of giving up or changing authority or the need for authority, will have a tremendous combat with these creatures who are going to come from space.

QUESTION: What is the most effective way that we can deal with these energies? If we engage them on their level then we are just going to their level.

PLEIADEANS: This is what you are being trained for. This is where your cosmic diplomacy is going to come in very handy when those of you get your diplomas in that course.

You use your feeling center. You feel these things out and you allow. You have your wits about you to not want to go out with sticks and stones and bows and arrows that you made from your backyard and attack Masters of the Universe. You allow each person to have their drama. You understand impeccably that you create your own experience. Even if it seems as if a two mile ship is going to land on top of your house.

Being the destroyer on this basis means that by carrying light inside of your body, you bring that frequency onto the planet. And that frequency has information. The frequency of light is about the history of your identity. The history of your particular consciousness. As we have said, that consciousness was scattered from your data base or from your cellular structure because those who came in to be your gods could not control you if you had the same abilities that they did. So they came in and did the biogenetic experimentation and mutation that has been called "the fall." That was when the ignorance of man became more predominant. There were many different experimentations at that time. It went on for a very long period of time.
Light represents the putting together of that which was asunder. All you have to do is be. As you simply be and as you evolve yourself and let your own personal life evolve, you are to take for granted, and this truly you are to take for granted, all the other members of Light are evolving as you are. You send your telepathic broadcast out that you are here, that your presence is here as we always say to you, "We are here." We are members also of the Family of Light and we bring information with us. That information is broadcast everywhere.

There will be those who will seemingly be in chaos to you. To themselves they will feel as if they are in states of ecstasy for a while [when they find what they think is] new authority, a higher authority, a new paradigm, animal gods, or whatever.

Back to this animal god thing. Now you know why the Egyptians have all of those statues. These beings can do miraculous things. They are the ones that your governments are going to be working with. Your government and the members of all of the commissions are going to promote and speak highly of these particular entities because these particular entities are going to assist these beings for a while to have more and more wealth.

These beings who are not spiritually informed or leaning in spiritual ways, deny the existence of a force. They have developed scientific principalities and technologies that are scattering around the laws of spirituality.

You all think that because you understand or you believe in the spiritual realms that each person as they evolve must naturally move into that information. It is not so. It is possible to become brilliant, a master of manipulating matter and reality without understanding spiritual connections. Very important that you learn this.

QUESTION: How can connecting with our multi-dimensional selves help us?
PLEIADIANS: There are portions of yourself that know of you that you do not know of. It is that that you are needing to bridge and pull together. You are an operative in the field of a larger identity, an identity that is seeking to discover all of its field forces, all of its correspondents. And you, of course, are prime correspondent. You are in the hottest territory at this time. You are in the pivotal spot. This is the hot spot now.

Ideally, you will be able to become multi-dimensional travelers and you will be able to take the force from this body. Sometimes, perhaps, you will be working in the field, perhaps you will be gardening or chatting with someone or picking strawberries and something strikes you, a sound. And you go and sit and you allow [your current earth personality] to depart and with consciousness you take [that personality to where it] is needed to add to the Family of Light's capability in that reality. And you will know it. You will know it.

You all will become multidimensional players. You will travel with consciousness. It will be then that entertainment will come from the self. You will not seek to read books and listen to tapes and go to movies. You will be living those things. As you bring the abilities of the Family of Light upon this planet, others are not going to want you to be here because you will not fit with their gods.

Not everyone wants to be free. You, as members of the Family of Light, are going to create a new earth that is going to be free. Those who do not wish to be free will have their earth as well. There will be a splitting and a time of separation. Members of the Family of Light know that there is no need to force anything. They are simply to work together in harmony, to support one another, to seek one another out so that you feel comfort in what you are to do because some of the things that you are to do will be outrageous. Very outrageous.

QUESTION: Will we know whether these beings are Light or not by listening to our own feeling centers and intuition?
PLEIADIANS: Yes, that is how you will understand if you are able to develop the ability of listening. There will be many who will turn to these and say, "Yes, these are wonderful. I feel wonderful about them. They are so magnificent. Look what they can do." It will look as if they are coming to fix and to save your world. When in actuality, it is simply another form of authority and control.

What we are saying is that people will put a belief system and a paradigm on these entities. There will be a large marketing program that is already going on to sell the presence of these entities to you.

Many will turn to worshiping because it will seem as if miracles [are being performed]. It will seem [to be] the grandest event in the history of the world. It will be marketed as such. It will not be marketed as "our space brothers return." It will be marketed as if this is the first time they have ever come, as the biggest event in the history of your world.

There will be a very big surprise. At first it may seem that mankind is being given a whole new opportunity, a whole new golden era. Then [you] will find that the tyrannies will be larger than ever before.

The purpose, of course, is for each one to become sovereign. And for the planet to unite. [A friend of ours] used to say he wanted each person on the planet to make it. Each one is not there. Each one is not in that vibration that they all want to work in harmony at this time.

The Family of Light, as it has infiltrated and penetrated this planet, is going to create its own planetary sphere, its own earth. You will do this by building first your light communities. Then by working within the cosmic rays and within the time sectors. It will take a tremendous unity of strength and harmony.

QUESTION: Everywhere I look in my life, I see boundaries that I put there. There are so many of them it seems that the easiest way would be to just intend that they go away because if I have to deal with each one of them it would take a long time.
PLEIADIANS: You are going to deal with each one of them. You would love to say, "Golden stardust, eliminate all that has limited me. Boom! I am free!" That is a classic example of wanting to re-circuit and bypass the feeling center. You have certain emotional beliefs or feelings that assist in making these boundaries outside of yourself.

As you have to break the boundary you have to deal with the emotion that put the boundary there in the first place. Through the emotional body are you connected to the spiritual body. That is the problem to many people. They want to bypass that which is difficult because they are going to have to feel their way through it.

That is the gift that you want to sweep under the rug and say, "I don't want to do this." When that is your gemstones. That is your key to breaking through each boundary, even if you discover you have 101,000 of them. The thing to do is to not feel frustrated that you have two dozen boundaries. Simply say, "Isn't this interesting." Look at the boundaries that you have set up and instead of [swearing at them,] simply observe. "Isn't this interesting." See if you can discover how it came about. What purpose it served. What grocery store you shopped in when you bought that item.

As soon as you acknowledge and recognize something and be willing to release it, it moves. When you cling or when you have fear or when you think, "I like that boundary. That serves me very well." Then you limit yourself.

Feeling is what connects you to your humanity. Feeling is what connects you to your emotions. Emotions are connecting you in this realm of existence to your spiritual body. What we are saying is that emotions, feelings, are the key to being alive in this reality. Many realities exist without emotions. If you want to deny the emotional self in this lifetime then you had best just realize you have hung it up. Because if you are not going to be part of an emotional self then you are never going to make the game that we are talking about. You will simply be one of the masses who watches television and feels like she is a victim over and over and over again.
If you are feeling pain within your emotional body, ask yourself why you believe this pain is there and what purpose the pain serves and why do you choose to create pain through emotions. Why is it not your choice to create joy? All is choice. We need to remind you of this.

Most humans are afraid of the emotional center, the feeling center. They are afraid to feel. Trust your feelings no matter what they [are]. Trust that they lead you to something, the way that you feel brings you a realization.

You all want to be in life and be removed from it at the same time. "Let me just be here and be a powerful person but I don't want to feel or participate too much in it because it hurts too much and then I will get sucked down."

[When] you are not afraid of feeling and you are moving past judgment and you are allowing yourself to feel all the ways that you feel and you move through it, you will come to a tremendous breakthrough because you will be able to ride feeling into other realities. [Some of you] are afraid to feel in this reality so you will not even participate in this reality, let alone ride into other realities.

If you wish to have an acceleration, dive into something that brings up feeling. Stop skirting the issue so that you can think you are in control. Dive in the middle then see if you are in control.

It's not that you don't know how to feel. You are afraid of your feelings. You don't know what to do with them when you have them. They bring up a sense of powerlessness within you. You associate feeling with, "Oh, no, I blew it." You have a boundary of belief system that when something comes up that is emotional, that brings pain or feeling or anger to you that that is not good. It is time to stop tip-toeing around things. Stop avoiding your emotions.

QUESTION: I have a fear that when I get into my emotions and let them flow that I will become less centered.
PLEIADIANS: Do you understand that because you have a fear of something it keeps you from experiencing it because you put up that wall that says, "If I go there it is bad." You put the brakes on so you don't go there. In actuality, sometimes the greatest thing is to simply say, "What the heck, I will go there." Then deal with being there while you are there and not worrying about being centered while you are in the feeling center.

That is wanting to take control into that situation again. Of course, you will strive to be centered within the feeling center. But if you intend to go into the feeling center and always just be centered, you are not giving yourself the range of movement that is needed to ride the emotions that knock down boundaries and belief systems.

You can make an intention to go into the feeling center and that you learn how to be centered there while you explore all of the opportunities of the feeling center. Not to say, "And I am going to be centered there." Then it sounds as if you won't allow yourself any movement within it.

Strive to have eventually a centeredness. A centeredness does not mean that things don't fluctuate. It means that you allow things to fluctuate. When the boat is ready to tip over or when it is calm water, you allow it. You ride it. Then you get out of the event, whatever the ride was, a calm ride or a rough ride.

Anger serves a purpose. All of you want to get finished with it. You want to sweep it under the rug. You want to act as if it is no good. You act as if it is rotten vegetables. Throw it out. Bury it back in the garden. There is no purpose to it.

What we are intending to emphasize is that there is a purpose to fear and there is a purpose to anger. If people would allow themselves to express, to experience their fears, which may lead to the expression of anger, they would learn something. Those of you who want desperately to avoid fear and anger and make a huge issue not to confront it and who are really afraid of it, you have something great to learn through these techniques and you are simply afraid to experience it.

Most of the time you are wanting to be accepted. You feel, "No one will like me if I do this or if I feel this way." And you don't give yourself permission to have certain feelings. That is where the anger comes from. You make the anger because you make the judgments about what you can and cannot do.

If you do not give yourself permission to feel, you cannot learn. You can have good things in your life if you do not feel. It is not a very fulfilling existence. Feeling connects you with life.

We will say to you, enjoy yourselves during this time of transition. There are many wonderful discoveries to be had. We trust that you will gather all of them for yourself.
In Search of the Exalted Self

We want to encourage you to seek the exalted self. In search of the exalted self is a quest that is well worthwhile. It is quite a quest, indeed.

You do not have to work with us continuously, or to work with anyone continuously to gather information. The only continuity that is needed is for you to continuously work with yourself and to seek the meaning of what we call the exalted self. Feel. What does that mean the exalted self? Triumphant. Liberated. Joyous in achievement. The highest in attainment.

Your planet is in desperate need of committed entities who are in search of the exalted self. The continuity that we have been speaking of that will behoove you to bring in to your lives, is that from moment to moment you know inside your being that you are committed to discover this exaltation. This exaltation can be translated in words as a frequency, as a wave of feeling, as a vibration. You all understand vibration in terms of Light and sound. Vibrations are ongoing. They carry forms of intelligence. They transmit forms of intelligence as well. When you look to yourself and do not forget that you are on this path and you continuously remind yourself that you are pulling Light into your body and that you are seeking to raise the frequency of your physical being, to defy the laws of man and to alter the frequency of the planet, this kind of continuity can do more than all of the books and the tapings in the world.

Your commitment to that exalted self there is nothing stronger. Once you make that commitment and once you speak to the gods and the goddesses, you commit yourself to the energy of Light, to the energy of exaltation and uplifted frequency. Then you are marked. Then you must live according to what these energies put before you as you call for your task to be accelerated.

Many humans are very concerned about what is going on on the global scene. First of all, understand that the global scene is never telling you the truth to start with so you must not be worried about what the global scene is doing. Always in those terms there is a divine blueprint, a higher plan that is operating. You must learn at this stage of your development to begin to have direct translation of the divine blueprint. In other words, absolute confidence, knowing what is going on at all times. This is where we want your commitment to move in to.

Our intention is to put a spark of life, a greater spark of life and Light inside each of you. We intend that the time that we have to speak to you is compounded upon itself so that information is transmitted on many, many levels and you can receive many moons' worth of instruction by simply being in receptivity.

QUESTION: I have a question about being grounded. I think I know what it is to be grounded and sometimes I think I forget.

PLEIADEANS: To be grounded is something that many do not comprehend the necessity of. You will all soon find out that when you move into greater and greater acceleration if you do not have a ground, something to connect you, to pull the worlds into one, you can have difficulty with the nervous system. The importance of being grounded as one alters one's frequency is this when frequency changes, when more Light comes into the body, the typical vehicle begins to receive much more data.

Sometimes you get very bored living in your world and you just want to come into data receptivity. If you are not grounded you would not have a way of having that information enter your reality and putting it to use. It could simply overload your system or you would not be able to translate what you are getting and not be able to be calm.

You need to balance many worlds at once. How do you do this? By intention. By practice. By decree. Grounding allows worlds to merge and it allows you to access many worlds. It allows you to feel surges of energy and then to direct those surges of energy where you need them, when you need them to become super-human. A good way to ground yourself is to go outside and sit on the ground. Go outside and be in nature. Stand next to a tree. Or sit next to a tree for awhile. Or put your chair in the sun and read a book with the sun shining on you. Or go swimming or put your feet in water. These are the elements.

They make up the Earth so you can feel them. Your jobs as you evolve, as the entire species moves to merge dimensions, your nervous systems must be able to translate all of this information that will blow the socks off of how you define your world. Absolutely. It is coming. In the last year the information that you may have known for years is becoming much more public. Many more humans who are not interested in extraterrestrials are interested in personal development. They are aware that there is a growing movement. Something is changing. All over the world. It is not just in the United States.

There is a conflict at this time of energies. You could call it a skirmish. You could call it a grand battle. The battle is going to become grander still. It is whose frequency is going to prevail on this planet and who is going to own and manipulate and train your frequency. And who are you as a frequency, in disguise as a human, and what specifically is your job in this time? It is essential to know who you are, to know what you are doing when you are doing it.

As you become interdimensional and multi-dimensional and as the frequencies alter and the energies accelerate, what occurs is that your body goes through drastic rapid change. Change that the nervous system, the conveyer of information, must handle.

Many of you know how to cook and use an oven. Some things you must bake at 350°F for a certain amount of time and that is all there is to it. What is happening on your planet now is that many humans operate at 350°F frequency when the frequency is up to 450°F and 500°F now and they are going to get burned if they do not get taken out and find a way to ground themselves or integrate the experience. Let the buzzer go off to warn them that they are in many realities.
You must learn to handle many realities at once to realize you are doing it and then to have a place, this your Earth, to translate the information into. You would not be here if it wasn't important for you to ground information and energy into the Earth. So, whenever you are finding yourself electrified or energized, you must realize when you are in an altered state. You must realize how many versions of altered states there are. Then you must instruct yourself to become a conduit, like a big pipeline.

When you realize that you are in an altered state and you are being given information, healing energy, exaltation, upliftment, act as a pipeline. Funnel it through yourself. Acknowledge, recognize that you are in a multi-dimensional expression. Register it. Do not analyze it. Let it filter through and into the Earth. It will make more sense later on.

QUESTION: I have been having some experiences that I would call being in an altered state. I like some aspects of it. What I don't like about it is not being used to it and not knowing how to function in a normal way.

PLEIADIANS: People are getting on the band wagon. They are getting serious. They are getting committed. You must be committed all of the time. If these gifts, these abilities are becoming first-hand experience for any of you, you must learn to work with them. It is like someone is dumping barrels full of gold in your back yard and you are saying, "Gosh darn it, the gold is wrecking the grass."

The lawn isn't as beautiful as it used to be because all of that gold is being dumped there. Whenever you get an experience, learn to participate within your experience. Be a full participant within your physical body. Enjoy it and have a good time with it and learn how to simultaneously observe your experience, the impact of your experience, the affect your experience has on other people, on yourself, the results you get from all of your experiences.
That means that whenever something of an extraordinary nature comes into being you can say to yourself, "Oh, goody goody, here it is again. What can I learn from this?" You can begin, when you are not having these experiences, to fantasize, to take charge of your life and act as if you can command or move one of these experiences the next time one sneaks up on you. It is the same way that some of you have learned to come awake in a dream and command your dream and stop being chased by boogie men. Or to learn how to make the bell ring when you are just about to get an "F."

Or learn how to wake up in a dream and say, "Hey, this is a dream. I am out of here." That kind of belief and that kind of intention that you can have over all experiences of life you must as individuals, you must as a species, cultivate.

We guarantee you it is going to get tough. There is going to be such a vast acceleration within this decade that many will have no idea how to translate all of the experiences. Not only are the dimensions going to merge and you must be able to be in this meeting place of spirit, you balance all of this. It is a tremendous task. Not only do you have all of these worlds to balance, at the same time the world that you call 3D is going to shatter itself as far as its historical perspective goes.

The Earth is going through an initiation at this time. You are going through an initiation because you are part of the Earth. You cannot separate yourself from this system. The Earth is transforming itself. It is intending to act as a domino for your solar system. It is intending to merge multiple worlds into one and to be grounded enough to allow all those worlds to exist and to be able to translate the experience. This is what your Earth is up to. So, of course, you all must be up to the same thing.

QUESTION: I don't seem to have control of getting myself back to a normal state.
PLEIADIANS: You must learn to cultivate it. You cultivate anything by your will, by intending that it is so. How does one learn to ride a bicycle? First of all, wanting to get a bike, wanting to ride it and then persistently sticking to it because one wants to do it and suddenly one is riding a bike. Imagine that you are in that state. Imagine that you have control over it. Imagine how you would act. Act as if and it is. Everything you want, humans, you must decree, determine and pull into reality by your will. Not someone else's will and not the laws that someone else says is possible or impossible. Yours. This is your exalted assignment.

We would also suggest that as the energy accelerates and as you have more to balance inside of the body that you be much more kind to the body, that you drink plenty of water, that you practice oxygenation and breathing on a daily basis, that you stretch or move the body in some way, acknowledge energy moving through your body. We suggest you get some bodywork done. Many humans in the influence of our words have been having their bodies Rolfed. They have been having the skeletal system realigned. Many go to chiropractic. Many are working on the emotional aspects, networking chiropractic. All kinds of things to allow the body to integrate the energy.

Another thing is that at this time you are working with a twelve chakra system, seven inside the body and five outside of the body. These are energy centers. These are information centers. They move you. They assist you. They entrap you. They block you. By visualizing your seven energy centers moving, by working with acknowledgment of the various centers and by asking the centers to be opened by having bodywork done to open them, you allow yourself to accept a greater belief in the concept that you can control energy. All we are here to do is to convince you that you can do it, whatever it is that you want.

QUESTION: You have mentioned before about the DNA structure in the body changing and that extra strands of DNA are actually coming into the body. Can you speak about this?
PLEIADIANS: The evolving helixes are filled with information. They make up your DNA. You have seen there are two strands of your DNA that look like a ladder that is spiraled around. This spiral of the DNA is made up, each strand, of millions of tiny infinitesimal light-encoded filaments just like fiber optics. These fiber optics come together and allow a tremendous amount of energy to be transmitted. If you take the idea of super-conductor coupled with fiber optics and bring the super-conductor to a frequency or a temperature where it can be accessible, you are on the verge of an information explosion in the physical world.

The physical world is a clue to the spiritual world. The world of spirit, the world of self evolving is on the verge of a room temperature super-conductor coming together with fiber optics. Information explosion. Cheap energy. Free energy. Everything given to you. It all has to do with the evolving light-encoded filaments.

At one time in your history certain creator gods who put themselves in charge of your planet needed to have you operate in a certain way in order to control you. They needed to unplug your intelligence and so they did. So the light-encoded filaments were scattered. They were not connected. They are beginning to connect now because of the mutation process that is timed because certain humans have agreed to evolve, to merge many worlds and to be able to attempt a noble effort to translate other worlds of reality onto this world. The quest to translate worlds and to make them merge and all make sense to free people, to free yourself.

These helixes evolve in sets of three. First the one starts and it makes three. Then three more evolve. Then three more. Then finally you have twelve. Twelve strands of helixes bundled together individually, a multitude of light-encoded filaments. When these twelve helixes, twelve strands of many, many light-encoded filaments begin to vibrate within the body, each of those strands corresponds to a chakra center.

The chakra centers are your energy centers. There are multitudes of chakra centers. There are multitudes of potential helixes that can form. Right now the most, the common denominator that the consciousness of man can handle without destroying himself is twelve. Many humans could handle multitudes more and activate many more chakra centers and many will. It is the status quo that is being raised now, that is being established, a new standard.

So this evolutionary process will take place. For some it will take a while. All of this must travel through frequency of human encountering human around the planet because each human contact broadcasts it. So, of course, after a while the telepathic storehouse of it is so vast that it covers the planet and it becomes what man is.

These twelve helixes plug into the twelve chakra systems seven in the body, five outside the body. The seven in the body are not too difficult to work with because if you allow yourself to feel, you can physically touch and locate all of these places. It is when you get to the five outside of the body that you must begin to find new ways to figure out what is going on with something that you don't even know for sure is real.

The eighth chakra is in your realm of activity. It hovers anywhere between twelve inches and for some people further than that. Most keep the eighth chakra center close. The ninth will stay close as well, within a few feet, until the nine helixes are formed. Once the nine helixes are formed this chakra will move out into the atmosphere of the Earth so that it becomes more of an Earth chakra, connecting into the gridwork. It is a link. The tenth, eleventh and twelve move much further.

The tenth chakra once it is in line and plugged in will be in your solar system. The eleventh will move out into your galactic system and the twelfth will be located and anchored someplace in this universe. You will receive and be affected by information from these personal centers. These personal centers are collective centers as well. Just as your other personal chakra centers are collective centers as well. You must learn to translate the experience. You can see life is not going to be too much the same anymore.

Not all people on the planet are going through this right now because they are not all coded to respond at this particular time. Each person came in with a certain order, a map of when and where and how you can best operate. Many of you are learning how to follow that plan of the self that will lead you to discover the exalted self. Once you learn how to do it, life becomes effortless. Everything does become quite effortless because you become a vehicle for Light and you are moved by your intention to commit.

Different humans will be hit with the changes at different times. It would not do to have it all at once. It would create chaos. There is a certain order that is needed. As each one is able to translate the experience, they can turn to someone to assist them. For the beginning people it can be very difficult. You are the way showers. Once you are able to do it you make the path and show the others.

The more humans that can translate their experience, the more humans that can go and have experiences and not feel out of control with them but can cultivate them, go into them, gather information, change probabilities, move onto the corridor of time, alter their own lives and then come out with complete and total use of will as to how they use these altered states, the more that can do this, then the acceleration will be absolutely phenomenal. Then, when there are that many consciousnesses on the planet registering that kind of ability, then the whole network that organizes and monitors human consciousness alters itself and more energy is able to come onto the planet because there are those that can accommodate it.

Everyone must learn to accommodate this energy. It must learn to be housed. It is like an oil well. What good do oil wells do you if they are untapped and shooting off here, there and everywhere? Very little. It is just a mucky mess. When, however, you take an oil well, natural gas or a waterfall and you insert your will for it and you put a purpose together or a way of directing the energy, then wealth occurs for those who direct those natural resources. You are being given an incredible natural resource at this time and you must tap it and direct it and you will all become very wealthy individuals. If you want wealth in the material world then that may be what you draw for yourself. But you will become wealthy in the realms of accessibility, in the realms of mastery.
QUESTION: I have a question about Light and Dark forces. The New Age movement talks about calling on the Light forces all of the time and never giving any energy to the Dark forces. I'm beginning to feel that the Dark forces are us, too, and we need to recognize that and heal it and integrate it.

PLEIADIANS: Yes. 3D is headed for a collision of dimensions not a collision of worlds, a collision of dimensions. Many dimensions are going to come crashing into each other. Some of these dimensions may seem horrifying and very frightening. The test, the initiation and initiation is always meaning to move through another reality to conquer it, to transmute it the initiation is to be faced with these energies and entities that seemingly are of incredible darkness and to understand that they are coming to merge with you because they are you, they are part of your multi-dimensional self and you are the standard bearer and you are Light. Dark will come to Light.

Be very clear when you deal with these things. If you are hesitating do not do it. Be clear. Many people will befriend or encounter something that perhaps would frighten them in order to bring about a transmutation, in order to bring about a bridging of consciousness. Some of these entities that have been talked about on your planet, beings from space that are coming, the reptilians, the Greys, etc. are all real. You will have a chance to meet them all eventually.

When you think of your soul, you think of your soul as you have been taught, that human is exclusive. When you picture your soul you picture an evolution of human incarnations. What we want you to understand is that as you grow up in consciousness the story gets bigger. As you evolve in consciousness and you mature yourself to a certain frequency of life and you are able to grasp certain concepts and you are able to intend to implement them into your life the story gets bigger. You are convinced of the basics and so now the blanks can be filled in. You exist in multitudes of guises and forms. Things that you would think would be heinous, you must meet and integrate in order to evolve your soul.
Knowing how clever Prime Creator is, would that not be a plan of Prime Creator to give all kinds of guises, all kinds of opportunities of expression and then to have them meet on different planets at different times and they would all be the self? The self must recognize and realize it and bring about a unification, a harmony where all species can offer each other what they want. When that point comes from self-realization, when you seek that exalted self and you understand who that exalted self is and when you meet the portions of yourself in physical reality, you will ask, "What can I do for you? I know what we have in common." Not, "Your skin is different from mine." Or, "You have scales and I have smooth skin."

There is a meeting point of consciousness and Earth is the appointed place. That meeting is beginning to gather in many different ways. In order for the meeting to be a very successful meeting it must be very well orchestrated. Different consciousnesses must be introduced to one another so as not to upset or disturb or alienate any.

Light forces as we define them Light means the promoting, the dispensing and the sharing of information. Dark means controlling and withholding information. Think about this and feel this. You have come onto this planet with a coded blueprint to carry Light and to bring about a huge planetary transformation. And you come to be the standard bearer of your soul, the portion of your soul that is going to lead, the portion of your soul that says, "I set the pace here and the pace is Light and information, no more being in the dark."

Think you maybe that there are portions of yourself that are in the dark that don't know how to find the Light except through you and they want it as well? They want solutions, answers. What you may be feeling is not necessarily the intent of the dark force but the emotional makeup of the dark force the fear of that which vibrates out of lack of information. You all know when you are informed you feel much better. If you are sitting in a room and it is dark and you are hearing noises and you are thinking something is in the corner you feel much better when you are informed, do you not?
Portions of yourself that are uninformed are going to come to be informed. How do you do it? You shed Light, you share Light. Say, "I intend for all of my other selves to come along on this journey too and for them to get it as well." It is quite simple. We like to make it sound practical in your terms because if you can feel it is practical you will make it practical, and then it is yours.

QUESTION: Can you speak about ways to strengthen ourselves?

PLEIADIANS: What we suggest is not always how humans think they can strengthen themselves. It works very, very well. It is making an appointment with yourself and saying, "I love you, Self. You are a good Self. You are a wonderful Self. You are my Self. You are my own Self. You are my best Self. You are me here in this reality and I love you. You are magnificent. You are A-Number 1. The best Self."

When you give yourself the dignity of your own love as if you were royalty receiving the accolades of the people. when you do that for the self that you are, the physical vehicle that is yours to operate with, everything changes and strength becomes yours because you believe in and love who you are. When you believe and love the vehicle that you are everything starts to go your way. The big thing is making the commitment to believe it is possible that you deserve love. No one else has to love you. You are not here to go around gathering love from other people to convince yourself that you are worth it.

You are here to master a very difficult task in a system that is dark that gives very little input, stimulation, information about the true story. You are here to do the impossible. By loving yourself and making that commitment the number one step from which you operate every day, it falls into place.
QUESTION: I have noticed in my personal life that it seems that men and women think very differently. What can we learn about each other that would make it easier to understand each other?

PLEIADIANS: You will see that for a while it will seem there is even greater separation between man and woman as more men come into crisis in order to feel. The difference is a cultural difference. It is a learned cultural difference. It is a cultural difference that has been purposely put to separate you. If you look at the myths that your Western religions are based upon, the whole role of the female is almost an embarrassment to the species.

So in modern times it was purposely recorded in history by those who wish to uphold a patriarchal point of view that a woman was a trouble-maker, carried the curse and was inferior. Her worst factor was the curse, the menstruation because it made her erratic and she was moody and you could never trust her feelings. She was noted to feel, particularly around that thing which was called her curse.

The old stories of the magic of the female, the creator, the one able to bring birth, the one who had the mystery of the blood, the life force, bleeding, able to put that life force back into the Earth, those stories have been buried and covered away. The goddess who loves and feels and nurtures. The man used to have the goddess energy inside and would feel the need for the goddess.

In the last number of thousand years, in order to better control the planet, all of the myths have been given you by extraterrestrials. The extraterrestrials have seeded all of your religious institutions. You are an experiment. At times it has been an uplifting and loving experiment. In recent times it has moved into incredible decay. You, as members of the Family of Light, have come to raid this planet and to pull Light back on it so that that nonsense never ever need be believed again. Man and woman are meant to complement each other.

At this time the best understanding that you can have is that in the male vibration, because of conditioning, because of genetics and because of a weak will within the male species, they believe that they cannot feel. Remember, feeling is emotion. How many times have we showed you where emotions can take you? Emotion is the key to getting off this planet. It is the key to figuring out the multi dimensional self and healing it and becoming one.

By men being in charge of this planet for the last number of thousand years, the patriarchal society, the woman taking a position underground actually, not even a back seat, it has not even been in consideration. You have been automatons. You have been performing roles women to produce children, to produce more wealth. Remember emotion is consciousness for others to feed off of.

When you truly wake up, when you really, really wake up, you will understand that every time a baby is born your wealth increases. One day there will be communities who will live honoring each individual's contribution because they occupy a physical body and they are in charge of a consciousness that can be cultivated to do anything. The more consciousnesses that pitch in together, guess what they can do? This is what we are striving for. We wish to convince you of your power so that you as a human species can put it to work. So that you can feel that you have every tool that you need for the times that are coming. And you do. You have your will and you have your mind.

The harmonics that the planet is looking for is a balance of self. Of course, the self is a composite of all things. You must balance all of your extraterrestrial selves, all of your multi-dimensional selves, your male and female.

QUESTION: I have a question about fear. Sometimes I can't distinguish between being fearful and being practical. How do you know whether you're feeding the fear or are you allowing yourself to become a victim of fear?
PLEIA DIANS: Look at the energy packet that you are creating. Examine fear. It is useful. Do not be afraid of it. Do not say to yourself, "I have overcome all of my fears," because then there will be one right around the corner looking at you.

Fears are useful. They help you self correct so that you do not lose your life. They also show you your destructive thought patterns. Whenever you get a big fear, you must examine to see, "Is my life in threat here or is this me creating a reality or am I picking up on the mass psyche?" All of this you must learn to discern. How do you learn to discern it? By looking back over yourself and asking yourself, "Where is this fear coming from? What is it about?"

Examine. Look at yourself. Look at your dreams to see what fearful things are coming in the dreams. Sometimes when portions of yourself that have greater information than you do, when these portions want to assist you in something and you dismiss it, it will come to you in a dream so that you have some premonition in order to take action or not to take action. All events are designed to bring optimum growth. If you can remember that then it's a piece of cake.
Gods Trapped in Illusion

Welcome, indeed, to an opportunity to expand your consciousness, to an opportunity to demonstrate your cleverness, an opportunity to read energies. This evening's discussion is going to be a continuation of the chronicles of those on assignment out on the fringes of certain galactic systems. These chronicles concern the gods trapped in illusion. Not just the gods that operate your planet. You, yourselves, as evolving gods.

We remind you that at this time there is incredible galactic identity wishing to emerge throughout the identities of yourselves. This galactic understanding of mankind is something that you are trained to take on. As members of the Family of Light you are more than human, you are part of an intergalactic species that resonates with a certain type of life fulfillment or employment. That employment is moving into systems of thought, systems of consciousness, established systems, and changing them. Wherever you go you bring change.

You are members of the Family of Light and, as we have said to you often enough, light needs information. You are all fascinated with gathering data about unknown portions of your world and yourselves. You want to uncover those mysteries. It is part of your nature. As members of Family of Light you are for hire, you are available to travel, to go into different systems of existence and to take on the native disguise and to act as if you are a native born and bred, evolving through.

Accept [that] you are in disguise, you are on assignment. You come not to just evolve through a system, to learn from it, you come to bust it open, to change it.

A systems buster, that is what you are.

QUESTION: You have repeatedly mentioned that earth is a place that beings come and train themselves to become a god. One of the realizations
I've made recently is when you tie this into what the creator gods have done, now I understand that you come to earth to learn how to be a creator god, to work with creation and this is the place where we learn our integrity about when and how we create life.

PLEIADEANS: Yes. That is very good. And the simplest part of that training is to begin to act as if you do. Do you understand that? Act as if you do create your own reality. Acting as if gives you a commitment of intention. You see, there are so many things we can say here, it is difficult. We could speak all evening long on just this one subject because there are those who learn from watching you learn. Then there are those who become so fascinated with certain human learning processes that the humans give over their power to certain energies and then there is learning on many, many levels.

A long time ago we said to you that the humans in some situations are likened unto playthings of the gods. A long time ago we said this. We are choosing our words carefully here because we want you to really expand your picture. Also we want you all to know that you are in disguise as human. If you can study the earth knowing that you are in disguise as human it will give you a certain removal from the anguish or the emotional sucking that the planet is now going through, the emotional pain, the birthing process.

QUESTION: Are we as members of the Family of Light on some level creator gods in disguise working within our own experiment?

PLEIADEANS: This earth has been an experiment and it has been an experiment in biological creation, in genetics. A long time ago we said to you that the earth was designed to be an Intergalactic Exchange Center for information. It can sound like the whole world is made up of one file box after another. Can you picture a metallic world filled with file boxes and that is the earth as a center of information? Or can you picture an earth that is covered by computers as one comes and sits in a computer terminal and gets dataized by computer.

That is another way of having an Intergalactic Exchange Center. However, those of you who have listened to what we have been sharing with you know that we have stated that when this project was put together for its own purposes that the call went out and many forms of sentient life donated their DNA.

Does DNA make up file cabinets? Does DNA make up computers? Or does DNA make up humans and animals and plants?

The Intergalactic Exchange Center for information was to be what was called the Living Library. One would come onto the earth and one could plunge into all of the experiences of those who participated by giving their life force to create a living life force here to be experienced. Knowledge would be stored genetically within all things. Remember we said that your creator gods were master geneticists? Remember when we spoke of the returning Reptilians and said that they are master geneticists as well? You have been led out from the truth as to how information is truly experienced.

Recently we talked about the Adam and Eve chronicles and how knowledge was given to them and how knowledge was stored alive. Alive in the fruit that they ingested and through eating a substance they attained knowledge. Does that give you some idea perhaps of what this place is?

The original human was coded in a certain way to be a vehicle of experience, a vehicle that could be occupied. Throughout earth's history there have been many battles among the creator gods for ownership of this place. As we have said to you, about 300,000 years ago one of the more recent battles took place and certain energies have claimed ownership of this territory since that time. Since that time these that are master geneticists have been able with their incredible knowledge of that particular science to control the frequency of evolution on this planet.
You as members of the Family of Light are sent here to change the frequency of the planet. It is quite simple. That is what your purpose basically is. You come as humans, yet you are not just humans. You came from your future into earth's past. Feel that for a moment. You have heard us say often enough that we come into your present, which is from our point of view past, to make changes, to affect probable changes. You do the same.

You all feel that you were born and that you have had many past lives. We want you to picture a scenario where there is a plague that overruns the humans in this free-will zone and there is tremendous tyranny and frequency control, where there is fear and chaos taking over this universe. Quite imaginable. We want you to understand that technology can become so far-fetched that those existing in a time period that are besieged, beleaguered with this kind of frequency, can go back hundreds of thousands of years to points in time in order to change an existing present. From those time periods certain energies can change the chronicles of their own history.

You were sent from a point in the far distant future back through your past in order to prepare for a time when your talents could be utilized, when your abilities to sift through systems and change systems instantly could be manifest, could be put to work. This is some of what you are doing.

QUESTION: I've been having dreams lately about shedding my skin. In the dream I'm not a reptile, I'm human. And when the skin is shed there is nothing there but light.

PLEIADIANS: You are a systems buster. That is what your card says. "Systems Buster. Available for intergalactic systems altering. Travel with family and have many friends. Reliable, efficient and adventurous work only."
So, you and your buddies were called to go and bust a system. What does that mean, bust a system? It means that electromagnetically if a system is operating with 100 volts and they want to change the system to a million volts you must learn to carry a million volts in a hundred volt body. That is what a systems buster is. As a systems buster you are capable of carrying any kind of energy because you are a certain species of creator.

The Original Planners, those whose project this earth was originally, set out to change what was going on here and to bring the Original Plan back into action. As all systems evolve and all forms of consciousness evolve, change is best when it comes from the inside rather than the outside. As members of the Family of Light you specialize in infiltrating systems in disguise of the natives. You live lives just like the natives and then when the time is ripe you receive the voltage and you transform yourself, still looking just like a native.

Then you broadcast a new frequency because there are multitudes of you there to catch the prevailing frequency and you keep a gridwork activated amongst yourselves as you occupy the system, of course, in disguise, and you begin to change the whole system by changing the frequency in yourselves.

In order to understand the system you come from the future back into the past of the system evolving forward up until the time that you are ripe. What you are recalling are realities where you simultaneously exist, where you are simultaneously dealing with another version of the system. As systems busters and members of the Family of Light you incarnate not just into the human realm.

As you are evolving here on this earth, striving to understand your identity and to incorporate this inner knowing with a life in disguise of a human there are portions of yourself working in many other realities doing the same thing and your world of dreams is the doorway through which you can very readily access this kind of experience.

Those of you who are courageous and those of you who are taking the sharp edges off of your reality, are beginning to have safe memory of other aspects of yourself. When you begin to realize how grandiose the plan is for the dimensional changes of this place you will realize that operating purely from the stance of a human would be ineffective. As a mere human there would not be enough comprehension, enough energy to pull off what is going to be pulled off on this planet. So you are infiltrating many different realities at this time with a very parallel consciousness. You are changing many realities and you are beginning to awaken into them.

QUESTION: A lot of us are going through a lot of emotional upheaval at the moment. Can you speak to us about the value of emotions?

PLEIADEANS: When you have emotion inside the physical body there are chemical reactions that take place. When you do not use the emotions there is a different route that one may access. The emotions release hormones, enzymes, many other things, and these begin to have a catalytic effect upon one another. When the light encoded filaments, those tiny gossamer threads that carry all the data of your history, begin to be lined up with the proper emotion, one can move through memories into other realities.

Emotion is very, very necessary. Many of you have made the mistake of not wanting to deal with emotion. It is one of your biggest fears, getting steeped into something very emotional and then what control do you have? You are all going to have to learn that there is a lot that you can discover by giving up control. Feeling very deeply about someone or something can catapult you into a higher memory of your identity. Be aware of this please.

QUESTION: You have recommended that a lot of us get in touch with these emotions and go through the emotional clearing, clearing the emotional body. If we can really get in touch with our early childhood emotions or those things that were traumatic, hard and painful, to me it is preparing for the meeting of the multidimensional selves which may have pain or trauma. Having the courage to feel everything prepares us for what is to come.

PLEIADEANS: If there is anything that you all need at this time to cultivate for yourselves it is the courage to feel, the courage to step forward in emotional identity with other versions of yourselves that maybe you don't really understand. That is why those of you who have had bodywork this year have definitely felt the results of it. Those of you who are wondering what to do next for yourselves, go have your body adjusted, have it worked upon, have it aligned, have different work done.

Open what you are holding so tightly inside so that you can feel a little more vulnerable. One of the things that will happen for all of you is that your physiology is literally going to change as you begin to let go of what you have held onto in order to protect yourself. That is a big one. Remember we said to you, as members of the Family of Light you come in disguise of humans and you disguise from yourselves that you are not human so that you can understand the human dilemma, so that you can understand the effects of frequency control.

What does this mean, the effects of frequency control? We have said that 300,000 years ago when certain creator gods who are Reptilian by nature raided this reality and took it over, they changed the existing DNA of some of the humans that they gathered up for their experimentations. Of course, you must know that there are many civilizations that existed prior to this one. What occurred was that the human was rearranged and was left with what you know as the double helix.

Then many investigative energies were put on this planet to make certain that with this double strand of information the humans would basically work through struggle and survival and that very little high achievement would come about and if it did it came about for a very short period of time. As members of the Family of Light, by changing the DNA you make it impossible for that scenario to continue to exist.
QUESTION: When you said "gods trapped in illusion," who are the gods? Are they us?

PLEIADIANS: To some extent they are you. Though we want you to understand that your Reptilian gods are trapped in illusion. Can you understand how vast everything is? Can you understand what a big ball game is going on? These creator gods that, yes, you have worshiped, and, yes, they are technologically far superior to anything you can conceive of, so what? They have forgotten who their gods are.

They are gods lost or trapped in illusion. In the same way that they have controlled your frequency and made a controlled world for you and toyed and played with your world and set up one scenario after another and used frequency modulation to their own benefit to create certain broadcasts from the humans and direct these out of portals into space for whatever nourishment or whatever use they have for this energy. Remember, consciousness is energy. Consciousness is in all things.

Remember that your planet has been controlled by a society that has limited you and created chaos and fear and war and famine and man against man. That has been the history of the last 300,000 years. It has been man against man and that creates a certain fear amongst the natives. They broadcast it out. Collectively the planet broadcasts energy that these creator gods use. As members of the Family of Light you have come in to change the predominant frequency that is broadcast by the natives. You have come to be a living inspiration to show them how to act contrary to what they have been taught.

QUESTION: One of the things that I have come to realize is that we create our own reality, however, we also create our own illusions. Then, there is the controversy what is reality and what is illusion? I haven't tied it all together yet, but there is something that you said about being trapped in illusion.
PLEIADIANS: Trapped in illusion. Yes, because if you can understand that just as those of you who are beginning to stretch your consciousness realize that the planet itself it trapped in false knowledge, is trapped in a false identity of what it is and you see how the humans are controlled by certain individuals, you must understand that the creator gods are trapped as well.

They trapped themselves just as the humans trapped themselves. It looks as if the Lizzies trapped the humans, doesn't it? Remember, humans create their own reality. So, in actuality, the humans created being trapped and having genetic manipulation and DNA rearrangement by the Lizzies. Remember, everything that you create you experience. So they began their own version of it in their own lives and did not even know it. They are the gods trapped in illusion.

QUESTION: You have talked about the importance of holding the frequency of light and I don't quite understand.

PLEIADIANS: You have agreed to come in and to hold a certain amount of current, electromagnetic energy. When a human vehicle is souped-up with a certain amount of electromagnetic energy, of course, the whole vehicle operates very differently. As you have agreed to receive and to keep frequency by having a certain amount of electromagnetic energy continuously evolving within you, you change your own voltage, you change your own awareness in the process.

By beginning to hold this frequency and keep it consistently, it means that eventually 100% of the time no matter what the situation is you will believe you create your own reality no matter what it looks like. That is a Keeper of Frequency. Frequency is consciousness. It is awareness. It is how you impact what is around you.

We have suggested to you from the very beginning to live with and get used to the idea that you create your experience, that you design it, that you are in charge of it. It is part of what you are led to believe on this planet, that you have nothing to do with it. That is part of the robbing of your own energy.

Someone teaches you that you are not in charge and you buy it and you operate with a sense of powerlessness. "I am not in charge of my life. I have nothing to do with what happens to me. It is all out of my hands." That is an incredible tyranny. It is exactly the opposite of how this planet operates.

QUESTION: Do your emotions affect holding your frequency? For instance, if you're upset or angry can you still maintain your frequency?

PLEIADIANS: It depends. When you become angry or upset, are you becoming angry and upset because you feel that someone did something to you or are you becoming angry and upset because once again you created a duplication of a situation to teach yourself because you have not gotten it?

QUESTION: If you look at anger as simply another expression of emotion without judging it, does it affect holding the frequency?

PLEIADIANS: Absolutely it affects holding the frequency. The frequency we are talking about that you are to bring to the planet is one of, I created it, I did it, I am in charge, I can undo it, I can heal, etc. Do you understand? You are bringing the frequency of potentiality. As Keepers of Frequency it is your assignment to consistently live like that, not to talk one way and to live another. That is when you are not a Keeper of Frequency.

When you act angry and upset and when you are upset at yourself for acting angry and upset, you are acting victimized because you did something that you did not want to do and you are not being a Keeper of Frequency. Absolutely not. What are you showing everyone else? What liberation are you showing others?
A Keeper of Frequency lives life in such a way that you begin to show others how you rise above every situation because you are able to keep what you know in the forefront of your mind that you create and no matter what things look like you are able to create with joy because you find, even in the anger, that what you create leads you somewhere.

QUESTION: So within holding and keeping the frequency is feeling as well, emotions without judging them.

PLEIADEANS: Without feeling disempowered or powerless. Usually when you are angry, you are angry because you feel that you had nothing to do with what occurred. Think back on this. There is no point in feeling angry with yourself. If you make the agreement with yourself that your self will always create one opportunity after another for a good adventure and a good time, if you live your life that way then you must trust that everything that you create is along that plan. It is being consistent with what you know.

We will go a little bit futuristic for you. Every human emits a certain frequency. We like to call it your song. It is your tune. In this controlled world, the frequency control has been set and you have been reminded to be fearful over and over again. When you were growing up your mother would say, "Don't stay out late," or whatever. You would have something said to you to put you into a vibrational frequency that could teeter on worry, fear, confusion, etc.

Think about it. "Buckle up your seat belt, you are going to get into an accident." "You must take your vitamins." "You must have flu shots." All of these things, everything has been based, your whole society, on an underlying current that is not comfort. Your underlying current on this planet is not, "Hey, everything is cool." That is not what you have been taught.

When you learn to modulate and control the frequency that you broadcast and you begin to affect the whole planet with that, the planet... begins to come into its own ownership. You are learning that there are patterns of behavior within individuals that are quite common. As you begin to recognize patterns and take them as global patterns rather than individual patterns, you will be able to do emotional healing for the planet while coming into a realization of the why of certain things from a higher order, from a higher tune and you will be able to transmute many things on the planet because you will recognize the need of the planet, not just the individual. If you take things personally then you have hurt feelings.

And when you have hurt feelings you are not a Keeper of Frequency because then you act as if everything isn't fine. We want you to see the divine order, the divine nonchalance, the perfection within all things. So, you may notice how you feel and you may only feel it for a second or two and say, "That is interesting. I feel this way and yet my higher self knows what this is about," so that you are able to transmute. By feeling powerless you have an idea how most of the planet feels all of the time. Do you follow this? All of you are so ready to make pronouncements on what you experience. You are to look at events as events and to see what comes of them. Always look at every event as opportunity.

It will become so essential at some point for you to know who is a Keeper of Frequency and who is not because there will come a time when you will be able to transmit knowledge quite easily. Some of you are already able to do this to a mild degree. When you can transmit knowledge you will want to know that the other person is consistent in their behavior and that their emotions do not run amok with them. Because if they are not consistent and if they are able to get lost in emotional dramas you will not be able to link with them. It will be like holding hands with a weak link.

The times will come when you will want to count on who is a Keeper of Frequency and who is not because your life and the lives of many will depend upon the stability and the consistency of those that you can look to. It will make a big difference.
QUESTION: We create our own reality and this planet is filled with information. If we think something, it is. Does this have something to do with how the Lizzies got enmeshed or trapped here?

PLEIADIANS: They got trapped here, yes. They are trapped in illusion. They don't really know what they got stuck in. You are hitting on something here though you must go further with.

QUESTION: It makes me think that you have to be really responsible for everything you say and everything you think because they turn into the stone and bone of earth and affects everybody else.

PLEIADIANS: The earth was formed for a certain purpose, an Intergalactic Exchange Center for Information. This Exchange Center for Information is not the only one. There are a series of these Exchange Centers that make up a gridwork that unifies your local universe together. This gridwork creates a living link of the Living Libraries. As systems busters you are operating in the parallel worlds at this time that are part of this gridwork. What has occurred in one probable future is a tremendous tyranny that exists over this local universe and the information systems have been vastly shut down. There is a stalling of your universe. Your universe has become so choked that it is stalling itself on life.

Through frequency modulation, the controlling of frequency, there has been an energy that has taken over many of these Information Centers and life information; everything as you know it, in your future is coming to a halt. In the future that we come from it is quite disturbing. We are members of the Family of Light in the same way that you are. We have been assigned to go to work with you in our past, in your present, to alter the far-reaching future by changing events where they first began and where they could be meaningfully changed in the past from our present. In your present.
QUESTION: Will our present change our past?

PLEIADIANS: Yes. Listen to these words very carefully. You will change the past by making a new past. Not necessarily by eradicating an old past. Do you understand? So that a new road, a new probability comes to be. Everything that exists exists. We want to create a new avenue of choice. Being that you are systems busters, you are experts on bringing choice into systems. You go into systems where the choice has been limited. You allow the choice of a different potential. You are here to bring a potential of cooperation and harmony. That in itself is in complete opposition to the future, the future that we are assigned to create an alternate probability around.

Understand that where you are going to go is going to be most interesting. We have been very clever in the way that we have assisted your evolving consciousness. We have purposely set this up so that you discover for yourselves your own truth so that you will have a myriad of experiences to rely on for yourselves, so that you can have a family to look around at and to realize none of you ever have to be alone. And we have created an arena where you have permission to live your light, to finally come out from the deepest portion of your being and shine with who you have always known that you are.

The assignment continues, our task continues. Your task is vastly accelerated. Your work, all of yours, will go more inside of yourselves. The days of ongoing outside gatherings are at an end. The energy, everything that you seek, comes from spending time with yourselves. Those of you who are making the greatest leaps and the greatest accelerations are making the deepest commitment to have your bodies altered, to consciously change your speech patterns, your thinking patterns, and to begin to go within, into quiet time, and to begin to hear what is being broadcast to you. You are all receiving the data. The problem is that you will not consistently accredit yourself with what you know. It is this that we constantly push you towards.
The benefits and the rewards that we have received from this are multitudinous. What you teach us is invaluable. You are showing us something, far more than you can ever realize. In your innocence and in your trust you emit a frequency that we utilize to beam into the future and we show something to those in our future that you in your now gift them without even realizing. You are quite noble. In many worlds you are quite famous. Some day you will know what that means.
Whose Plan Is It Anyway?

We are here. Many of you have heard us talk about your need to commit, to live to the highest attainment that you can achieve consistently, all of the time. You have heard us talk about the idea that you are involved in many dramas that are occurring in many places at one time.

You have heard us say that your planet is in the midst of an incredible transformation. You have heard us talk about the Divine Plan. You have heard us talk about the Family of Light. You have heard us talk about the need for the Family of Light to begin to work together. Some of you have begun to question some of these things. Some of you have begun to say,

Well, whose plan is it anyway?
Whose plan do you operate under?
Who are the overlords, the overseers, the owners of Earth?

Someone does, indeed, own your Earth. Someone does, in deed, own every planetary combination of molecules that exist. Someone believes they do. You are isolated completely from the higher knowledge of existence. You are isolated and quarantined for a multitude of reasons according to certain plans. You are isolated by frequency control, electromagnetically. Sometimes it is even difficult to locate the Earth on maps that chart space. Some of the owners of your Earth have disguised the existence of Earth as you would know it and forgot it on the maps of existence for a long time. That is interesting, is it not? Why would they do that?

Some of you have heard us speak that there are incredible treasures of consciousness locked here in the Earth. You have heard us speak about the original purpose of this planet, that it was to be a storehouse of information information that was gathered together and generously given by a huge collection of sentient consciousness. The experiment was to create a place, a storehouse of information where one could travel even from other universes into this universe and go into a Living Library and understand the purpose of the energy and the history of the universal structure.

Feel out what we are talking about because what lies ahead in the next few years is that this concept of the Living Library is going to be plugged in to your body. [What will it be like] to experience these things? Once you begin to plug your body in to the pebbles outside your door, the pebbles begin to sing to you what is in their molecules. Or the salamander that walks across the fence. Or the bird that comes to sing by your window in the morning. The Living Library was formed with a grand purpose. It was an experiment where life could genetically be implemented and planted with knowledge.

When one came into this Living Library, if one knew how to play the frequency codes and learned how to change their own electromagnetic spectrum through thought, they could receive the entire history of the universe as it existed the insects, the plants, the soil, the rocks, the trees. All things on this planet were purposely designed to hold knowledge. It is just like your Library of Congress holds knowledge on the printed page or on microfilm. The Original Planners designed Earth and the solar system for a very important reason and then eons later there were schisms, separations. In your most modern times you have been owned and controlled by a very renegade group.

This group started off very small and very insignificant and somehow created a raid of the probabilities of time and were able to go into many different realities because they began to own different portals that existed in space. There was a tremendous revolution and a great upheaval that lasted for millions of years. Your Earth was not affected by this until about 300,000 years ago. You must remember that time is very elastic and affects different realities not all simultaneously. As we remind you over and over again, you are part of the Family of Light, energies that carry an ability to transform energies. You, as members of the Family of Light, have something in common.

The characteristic that you share is that you are able to be impeccable transducers. It is like you could be struck by lightning and keep going and it would just give you a high jolt and you would be on top of the world for the day. You can take energies that are sent from the cosmos and you can hold them in your body and change them and pass them out to the planet. Others cannot even perceive that this energy exists.

The energy does not penetrate their physical body because there is nothing in the physical body to catch or to hold the energy because they have been rearranged as a species. A battle was fought amongst beings that you call gods whose sole job it was to oversee structures of consciousness that you call planets. When these tyrannical owners came and took over here 300,000 years ago, after tremendous destructions, they created an entirely different species and they genetically rearranged and manipulated who was left upon the planet. There is a plan now that is in the works.

The plan has to do with bringing the original owners back into alignment with your Earth, bringing the Original Plan back into its own purpose.

Who are the original owners?
Whose drama are you in?
Who is making a movie of your life?
On what screens in the cosmos are you famous?

Begin to think in these terms. Begin to allow yourself to expand your identity about who you believe you are, about perhaps how anonymous you are not. As members of the Family of Light you are sent on assignment to go in to alter a system. You have been trained to handle incredible amounts of energy. In Hollywood you have stuntmen. They are able to perform tricks and to take blows.

You are like the stuntmen of energy. You are the stuntmen of life. This is what the Family of Light is. You are specialists within the systems.
There are many individuals on the planet at this time that are specialists. The Family of Light is here in the millions. There are other families of consciousness. When the time is right you will find that there will be many, many millions who will pool their energies together.

The days of what you do not have in common will fall far to the past because events will unfold that will draw you all together and you will find that your life will never be sweeter. It is true. You will find that all of the emptiness and the loneliness and all of the things that have kept you separated from your higher identity will be gone.

QUESTION: There is a lot of information coming to us now from off-planet beings yet, I understand they aren't allowed to alter free will. Is that right?

PLEIADIANS: There are two sets of laws. The drama that the Earth is presently involved in is a multidimensional drama. You are pressured into your own integrity at this time. Any lack of integrity will catch you with your pants down. It is true. So you must come on alignment with a consistency. Your globe must come on alignment with it's consistency. In other words, you cannot have corporations pretending to be environmentalists and at the same time doing more dumping and starting more wars than anyone else. That would create a tremendous dichotomy within the energy.

There are those that are doing something in the ownership of your planet in this way. There are those who are not following the laws that say that a world exists in its own integrity and it is not allowed to have a frequency control. The energies that want to bring these laws of freedom back into existence are bringing in their plan. It is only one of the plans that are presently clashing at this time on the planet. [There are those who] say, "Hey, you cannot involve yourself with this. Life must evolve."

On the other hand, if you are left alone and never had any assistance in evolution, you would go nowhere because you are owned.
You cannot exist without those whose playthings you are. You do not exist separately. You exist in a collective. It is just that right now the humans are at the very low end of the collective, locked in 3D and frequency control. They have no idea of the richness of potentiality that comes from the cooperativeness of existence when one form of existence knows that it influences another, that it adds to it. It is a symbiotic relationship. We are not certain we are explaining this as appropriately as is necessary. It is very large.

Sometimes when we say you are the playthings of others, it pisses you off. You think, "Well, wait a minute. I have free-will. I do not have to be owned here. Who is going to tell me what to do?" At the same time, those who First Cause created to go out and create other worlds, could they exist without First Cause? You could not exist if someone didn't create you. You are the product of a plan. So you are the playthings of others. You have been the overlords when others have been your playthings. You get to act it all out in the multidimensional self, the self that knows that it has hundreds of thousands of simultaneous existences. It can be that vast.

That much energy can collect and know itself, no big deal. There is a sense of reward. There is a sense of achievement because one knows how complex one is. One does not wonder if one is isolated all by themselves. One knows one is not. And information threads itself back and forth from one system of reality to another and one does not feel that one is owned and operated, one feels that one functions in a sense of harmony. Does your finger get mad when it has to go some place that it does not want to go and the rest of the body goes?

You begin to understand that your hand can't say, "I'll stay home while you go here. I don't want to go with the rest of the body." It is part of a collective. As your body ideally works together and understands the cooperation of all parts, it is the same with all of your identities. This is what your creator gods did not want the humans to have access to any longer because then they could not control them.

So they destroyed the place as best they could, took what was left, rearranged the genetic structure and created a species that was biogenetically locked in ignorance and could perform and would emit fear. That fear was utilized. It was cultivated. It was harvested. It was used to broadcast out to control other worlds in your universe. This is what is presently being done in the Middle East at this time.

QUESTION: It's almost like there is a culling of who is standing for the light now. People are being shaken and they are either paralyzed in fear or they're saying, "This is not right. I've had it. I'm not going to do this anymore." Now is the time and we cannot be lazy, we cannot sit on the fence. You are either going to be paralyzed or you will be moved into action.

PLEIADIANS: Yes. And those who are not moved will be affected by events that are formulating themselves with even greater impact. It is going to come about shortly. There is a steady increase. Whose plan is it anyway? There are many plans in action. It is like a multidimensional holographic chess game where different pieces are being moved and different ones have different intentions and another plan comes in.

This one wants to do this. This one takes the energy of that one and lays this on top. There is tremendous creativity outside of your planet that is orchestrating events. Powers you have no idea of that exist, move human consciousness like puppets. You, as members of the Family of Light, are coded and programmed. It all lies within you. You must come to the place where you trust that you have it. You must begin to listen to the message, to the energy that is programmed inside of you, coded inside of you, that will begin to reveal itself.

There will be an ongoing communication to move you as those who oversee the planet use the plan of others to bring things about. Those who wish to control and up the frequency of fear do, indeed, do this. At the same time they count on their technological superiority to create frequency control and to have this fear frequency established upon the entire globe. They do not count on the members of the Family of Light having it together enough to telepathically link themselves and become an entity, a station of power on their own. There are those who are not informed enough of your abilities. Or, perhaps, they don't believe in them.

We believe in you. We are counting on you. There are multitudes of energies, energies that have no number who are counting on you to be able to do this one simple thing to be able to transform your reality from the place of fear and chaos into a place of freedom simply because you intend it and you know that you can do it.

QUESTION: I'm interested in knowing how to receive information or receive guidance.

PLEIADIANS: First of all, for all of you, let us go over a few basic things here. Believe it or not, everywhere around the globe at this time, the energy that you are all feeling is a very common thing. Many are not alone any longer. They have discovered a small family or a growing family of consciousness.

They are beginning to understand that there is a purpose that is much grander to their life than they ever realized. They are being unified through one source or another. We are only one source of information. We are on assignment just as you are on assignment. So, let us remind all of you all over the globe, wherever you are, those who are not here today in this time of February 19, those who are in the future, we speak to you as well. Begin to rely on yourself.

Begin to know that how you think it is, is how it is. Begin to call and to commandeer to yourselves all of the assistance that you require for no matter what you require it. There is not energy available only for some events and not for others. When you begin to recognize yourself as a member of the Family of Light, you realize that there is a host of energy that has been quite aware of who you are for a long time.

They have been waiting for you to know it. Once you are certain of it, you can begin to have all of the assistance that you ever dreamed of and you can begin to operate at optimum capacity simply because you believe it. Trust and love what you have and the vehicle that you occupy. Begin to feel the communication that is waiting for you to listen.

Then, with great discernment and no foolishness and with all fear put aside, begin to allow yourself to feel loved. Not by a woman or a man or a parent or a family member. Begin to feel love of self to self. As you begin to commit, to agree to love what you have, then you will begin to feel the multidimensional self's existence that loves you where you are on assignment because you feed all of these other identities a potential to bring about an incredible universal change of consciousness.

QUESTION: Fear, as I understand it, is used as a food source and beamed off planet. Also, on other tapings it's been stated that this fear is directed to other worlds to keep them in control.

PLEIADIANS: It is like a radio station or a frequency that is sent to other worlds. This is what surrounds them. Like we said to you that there is something surrounding your planet that controls you.

QUESTION: My question is that if the emotion fear is the desired frequency what occurs at the other end when on this end we have the World Peace Meditation? Does that disturb those beings who are using the fear?

PLEIADIANS: Of course it does. It is obvious that the signals that the planet was emitting at one time have changed. That is why you have the return of these beings, to deal with this.

QUESTION: This frequency of fear that's being transmitted off planet, say someone is utilizing it and all of a sudden mixed in the signal there's a great deal of love and happiness and joy does it do more than just give them indigestion?

PLEIADIANS: It gives them great concern. Great concern, indeed. Yet, sometimes because of the energy, the frequency, the link that has been established, there is nothing that can be done about it. When you believe that you are in charge, you are in charge. The will that you begin to muster will be tested. Sometimes something will come to throw you off track.

Yet, when you can pull yourself back through will then you cannot be tampered with because you begin to operate on your own strength and you begin to receive energies. The electrical fence, or the energy that was put around the planet, keeps certain energies out to some extent. Also, when other energies were able to be penetrated through the electrical fence, there was no one there to receive them for a long period of time. The energy can come through but what if no one takes it into their body and can transmute it. What good does it do?

It is like pouring water. It is great but if you don't have a container to catch it, it simply goes into the ground. The bodies of the humans could not be penetrated even when the Earth was found, even as electromagnetically the pulse of the Earth was uncovered. There was nothing here for a long time to receive, to hold the energy that would allow the reorganization that would allow the putting of the pages back together of the big book.

As some of you around the planet are able to alter your frequency it is absolutely, positively noticed. It is quite understood within all existence that Earth is undergoing a tremendous shift at this time. It is counted on. It is planned on. It is a gigantic game. It is a gigantic war, as it would be in some energies' eyes. Your Earth exists in so many realities. We are not talking about one Earth or one reality of Earth. There are many versions of your Earth and of your future and of your present.
QUESTION: Have those other aspects of ourselves figured out how to unlock the reality or come to an understanding of their multi-dimensional selves?

PLEIADIANS: Some of them have come to that realization and they wait for you to come to it. Others are still oblivious, have no idea that they are connected. You intellectually are told that you are connected and that you exist in many places. Some of you experientially have tip-toed into this. Yet, because of the over-eagerness of logical mind you have completely and totally discounted even the remembering of experiencing something of this nature. Sometimes it is difficult when you create the experience of it and then block the memory of its existence.

You have no idea how intricate or how controlled the frequency of the body is and how many realities are always pushing at this reality and how many experiences you have that you blank out because you have no place to plug them in. You are continuously monitored as to the effect of the neurological changes that take place in your bodies. When you have this rewiring or this restructuring, we like to say you are going from a two-lane highway system to a twelve-lane highway system in your nervous system.

When this takes place, you will have memory of events that run simultaneous to other events and at first you will maybe freak out a little bit because you will have no place to plug them in. In other words, say two years down the road you could be remembering a Thanksgiving dinner that you were having in 1989 or 1990. Suddenly you would have memory of an event that you never before remembered and you would have it right next to and parallel to the Thanksgiving dinner that you did remember. And you would realize that you were at two Thanksgivings.

This is what will happen as the nervous system begins to come into a new pulsation, as the body is beginning to have the library put back together. As the light-encoded filaments reform themselves and begin to broadcast what they have available, the nervous system must be able to carry it and translate it. Why do you think the brain has been dormant all of this time? Why do you think you have been using such a small percentile? Because the DNA was unplugged. That is why. Obviously if you have a brain and you are only using 5-8% of it there is a reason for the rest of it.

Something in the body is not hooked up to it. Doesn't that make sense to you? Now the body begins to be hooked up, because rays from space, electromagnetic cosmic rays, can pierce through the electrical fence and you are here to catch them. You are on assignment to do it. The process has to be slow at first, otherwise you would be fried. It would be too much. It would be way too much for all of it to happen overnight. There is an unfolding that will take place so that eventually you will begin to bring about the full use of the brain on the planet.

Whether it is in your lifetime or not we are not, certain. For yourselves, yes. When we say we are not certain if it is in your lifetime or not, it means for the whole human race, those who decide to stay here. For yourselves, yes, more than likely, you will go, if you are not frightened and you do not hold yourself back, you can extend your life by hundreds of years, you can move the body into complete rejuvenation that is unheard of at this time and you can come into complete operative ability with the DNA in complete alignment of twelve strands operating with full brain capacity. Think about who you would be.

QUESTION: In your opening comments you were speaking about whose plan is it and maybe we could ask about how they affect our personal lives. Recently I had a feeling for myself that I would be doing certain sorts of things in the future and I'm beginning to see there are other sorts of things and I'm wondering now how many plans are going on and if the plan is switched.

PLEIADEANS: The plans are always switching. There is always new juicy material to insert. New scripts to write. New ideas. Just as you get all excited and see new possibilities, those who utilize you, your puppeteers as it would be, get excited and see new possibilities as you become more available. As you become looser you make yourself available for wilder adventures.

QUESTION: Okay. So what I'm wondering, the idea that there are many plans that we work with and that they are changing and that that's part of our job to be aware of the changes and to go with the new...

PLEIADIANS: Your job is to have a good time. To be clear about your availability and to be clear about the assignment that has been given to you, that you are a Keeper of Frequency and that you are here to defy the laws as they have presently been stated to man. In other words, everything that you have been taught about this place you are to defy.

Every idea and every law that has been passed down to you through your educational system and all the degrees that you have tacked after your name. Any one that says "It stops here," you are to say "Watch me!" You are to defy everything, to change the paradigm that drastically so that everyone becomes confused and no one believes anything any longer. And you are to have a good time doing it. You are not to be overly concerned about the plans. Sometimes it is really none of your business. It is alright for you to speculate.

Sometimes you get too into worry and think that you have to orchestrate and check things out and you don't. You be available to keep frequency and your condition we would imagine to be a Keeper of Frequency is that you want to have a good time. And you want to be well compensated and you want to learn. And you want to have joy, safety and harmony. A little sex now and again.

QUESTION: I'm getting that it's all connected. Light equals information. Love equals creation and DNA is creation. It's almost like in the universe and maybe the multiple universes this is a very important unique way of forming creation when love is involved and free will is involved. I'm stretching here to see that this is all connected. The free will and the light and the information and the DNA and how important the human being is. In fact, human being now becomes the hub instead of the rim.

PLEIADEANS: As a matter of fact, that is dawning on a few throughout this universal structure that the human being does hold the key and is a hub and was tucked away by the Original Planners just in case a probable world, a probable universe cropped up where worlds began to die because the love frequency was not in existence. We come on assignment, on assignment, from that probable universe. It does not mean that we are from that probable universe. It means that it is our assignment to deal with that probable universe.

Remember we have said to you that we are renegades and that there are those within the Pleiadian system who think we are crazy. Who wonder and question what we are after and if it can be achieved. We started with a few and we can say to you that our name is now known around your world and it is spreading. Our name is being remembered from the cells of many humans. Our name, "the Pleiadians," which is only one collection of consciousness that represents the Pleiadian system your humans are coded to respond to that. That, alone, we are banking on to bring an awareness of consciousness within humans. That coding.

Simply that code of Pleiadian knowledge, the Pleiadian love for the humans be activated in the human memory and that through this can there be a shift. Without the insert of the Family of Light, your world is headed for destruction. First of all, it has been under control for all of this time. Without the insert from the future of the Family of Light, without the '60's to activate the codings of many members of the Family of Light, without this, there would be a take-over. There are probabilities where there has already been a takeover in your '50's and in your '70's and now in your '90's.

You change the probabilities because you change the frequency here. You change everything by your presence. We are banking on the fact that as we change this kernel and that as the secret is unlocked in the humans, and as the humans are able to carry the frequency, that they will of their own knowledge and their own history [make a change]. You cannot force it on them. You can't force the humans to change. You can simply make the possibility available.

As you make this frequency available and as the humans make this choice, they begin to insert something into a reality that is needed millions of years into the future. They begin to stand up to a tyranny that has taken over this universe far into the future where worlds are dying because there is no love. So, what occurs is that from this kernel, from this point in time are we and many others instigating the erasure of a probable universe where love and freedom are forgotten, where they have no context. That is part of the plan. These next twenty years are incredibly important.

The events that are going on now are incredibly important. We want you to sharpen your wits. We want you to experience love and play in these multidimensional terms while enjoying life, while intending what you want, while going beyond limitations, while being a Keeper of Frequency and stating with clarity what you want as a Keeper of Frequency. As you become aware of your potentiality and as you become aware of your abilities, how would you like to be compensated for having developed these abilities? What do you want?

Get clear on it and forget it and then just watch these things come into manifestation. The more you worry about whether you have these abilities and what you deserve, the more you get yourself all turned around and twisted and don't know what you are doing.

QUESTION: You said we have a lot of responsibility here. You talked about the future of the world and the universes coming from a point of no love. So we are to go on this path and have fun but we have a big purpose.

PLEIADIANS: That is why we tell you to have fun, because if you don't have fun you might take yourself to seriously and it might become too heavy of a burden and you all might check out and say, "We are not doing this." See, if we tell you to have fun and you create your own reality, we tell you to create this and you go and create it, then you will hang around a lot longer and we will get a lot more mileage out of you. If you are having fun you are more available.

If you are having fun it is easier to utilize your energy than if you are not having fun. You are very resistant when you are not having fun. You are very mutable and available and flexible when you are having fun. You say, "More, Pleiadians! More! More!" Do you understand how we trick you in certain ways? If you are not having fun, stop it. We don't care what it is that you are involved in. If you are not having fun, don't do it because you are building up a resentment and you are building up a misuse of energy. If you don't like it, simply say, "I am not available. Sorry if I offend you. I'm not mad at you, I'm simply not available for something that is not fun."

It might be your mother inviting you over to Sunday dinner. You might have been doing it for twenty years and now you say, "This is not fun anymore. I'm not available." You need to face these things and stop being victims in situations where you have refused to stand up and say, "I don't like this." Don't do any longer what you don't like. It doesn't mean that you have to be angry about it. You simply begin to stand up now for the integrity of your molecules.

QUESTION: What if it involves your job? Do I just stop my job and don't pay my bills?

PLEIADIANS: You sound as if you have no choice. You sound as if the only choice that you believe that you have is that you have to stay in something that you don't have fun with because if you quit it there is no alternative. We are simply saying to you that when you begin to understand the idea that you have a right to have fun, that you can make much money and you can do many things to have fun. If you are stuck in a belief system that says, "I hate my job but I can't quit it because what am I going to do?"
Hey, that is your reality that you have designed. We are saying to you that you can say, "You know what, I am not going to work any longer at things that aren't fun. I am going to stop all things that are not fun. I am only going to participate in things that are fun. I will be provided for and I will be safe." You have a tremendous fear about losing. This is how society controls you.

The whole society is controlled by fear. How many of the millions in the United States do you think love their jobs? Very, very few. They go to their jobs because they believe that they have to in order to survive. There is a whole society that has been moved to keep their jobs based upon the whole idea of intimidation and that they need their jobs in order to survive. You have been fed an available material abundance and you feel that you cannot exist without it.

Once you understand that that material world is only one weeny world and there is a spiritual world that is much more fun to start with and that you don't need jobs to keep yourselves going, that you can manifest what you want, simply because you are clever enough to believe what no one else believes, that you can get things for free and that you can simply bring things from other realities into this reality. When are you going to get this and start doing it? You all act as if it is completely difficult. It is if you argue for the limitations that your society has fed you with mind control. There is no arguing with us.

QUESTION: Do you mean bringing something from another reality? Is that how one could theoretically win the lottery?

PLEIADEANS: To some extent. You act as if winning the lottery is an effort. What is the big deal? You don't have to rely upon the lottery. You can rely upon yourselves. You can rely upon your ability to commandeer reality to simply bring you what you want, to have money manifest for you. To have prosperity. To have nurturing and security simply be available for you. You completely erase the idea that you need to work hard for it or that someone would tell you that you don't deserve it for free.

That is what stops you from getting it. You are afraid you don't deserve or you have been trained, you have been programmed with the idea that you must work in order to be compensated. That money doesn't grow on trees. No, it grows in the air. It doesn't grow on trees, it grows in the air and it can show up in your hand if you begin to believe it. It has a tendency to show up in drawers now and again. It is planted there by different energies. Things go from one reality to another. It is an open system.

The more you get in tune with these nonphysical beings the more they will play with you with these kinds of energies. Your wrist watch is here one day, it is gone for two months and then it shows up again where you are certain you left it two months ago where you dusted and cleaned and looked high and low. Then all of a sudden it comes back. It happens to you all of the time.

Get clear about what you want. Get playful with it. If you get clear about what you want and then worry about it, forget it. It is a waste of time. You are to get clear about what you want and then forget it and let it come to you and stop worrying and wondering about what your mother taught you, about what your sixth grade teacher taught you, about what your friends are going to say.

That is what stops all these things from coming to you. Enough of a pep talk on creating your own reality. You are all well along the way and you are doing very well.
