

TTIP Proposal for Chapter: Good Regulatory Practices

Article 1 – General Provisions:

1. The parties reaffirm their commitment to good regulatory principles and practices to achieve public policy objectives based on a high level of protection, while facilitating trade and investment.
2. Nothing in this Chapter shall affect the rights of each party to:
 - (a) adopt, maintain and apply measures without delay, in accordance with deadlines under its respective regulatory or administrative procedures to achieve its public policy objectives, in accordance with its regulatory framework and principles.
 - (b) apply its fundamental principles governing decision-making in its jurisdiction, for example in the areas of risk assessment and risk management.¹
3. This chapter shall only impose obligations on the European Union and the United States.

Article 2 – Definitions

For the purposes of this Chapter:

- a) “regulatory acts” means acts of general applicability²;
for the EU:
 - i. proposed regulations and directives submitted for adoption pursuant to article 289 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union;
 - ii. Delegated and Implementing acts pursuant to Articles 290 and 291, respectively of that Treaty.

¹ For the EU, such principles include those established in the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union as well as in Regulations and Directives adopted pursuant to article 289 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

² For greater certainty, this does not apply to measures addressed to individual natural or legal persons.

for the US:

- i. Draft bills introduced by Members of Congress in Congress (with respect to article 5 of this chapter)
- ii. Draft bills proposed by the US administration to Congress
- iii. agency statements of general applicability and future effect designed to implement, interpret, or prescribe law or policy or describing the organisation, procedure, or practice requirements of an agency:

in respect to any matter covered by this Agreement.

b) “Regulatory Authorities” means:

- i. for the EU, the European Commission;
- ii. for the US, any rule-making authority at the central level of government, including any executive branch or independent agency that develops regulatory acts.

Article 3 – Internal coordination

Each party shall maintain internal coordination processes or mechanisms in order to foster good regulatory practices, including transparent planning, stakeholder consultation, impact assessments and retrospective evaluation of regulatory acts.

Article 4 – Description of Regulatory Processes

Each Party shall make publicly available a description of the processes and mechanisms employed by its regulatory authorities to develop and to review regulatory acts, including the applicable guidelines, rules or procedures which allow the public to provide input to the development of regulatory acts.

Article 5 – Early information

1. Each Party shall make publicly available at least once a year a list of planned major³ regulatory acts. Such list shall provide information on the scope and objectives of the regulatory act.

³ Regulatory authorities of each Party define “major” regulatory acts.

2. For planned major regulatory acts undergoing impact assessment each party shall make publicly available, as early as possible, information on planning and timing leading to their adoption, including on planned stakeholder consultations and potential for significant impacts on trade, investment and on small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs).

Article 6 – Stakeholder Consultations

1. When preparing regulatory acts, each party shall, in accordance with its respective rules and procedures:
 - (a) offer a reasonable opportunity for any natural or legal person, on a non-discriminatory basis, to provide input through a public consultation process;
 - (b) publish either draft regulatory acts or consultation documents that provide sufficient details about a possible new regulatory act to allow natural or legal persons and the other Party to assess whether and how their interests might be significantly affected;
 - (c) consider the contributions received.
2. Each Party should make use of electronic means of communication and seek to use dedicated single access web portals, where possible.
3. Each party shall make publicly available any comments it receives, except to the extent necessary to protect confidential information or withhold personal data or inappropriate content.
4. In publishing a proposed final regulatory act⁴ each Party shall endeavour to provide a publicly available explanation of the results of the consultation process.

Article 7 – Feedback on the existing regulatory framework

Each Party shall offer up the opportunity for any natural or legal person to submit views to the relevant regulatory authority on improvements to existing regulatory frameworks; including whether a regulatory framework has become ineffective at protecting health, environment, welfare, safety or other public policy objectives, or suggestions for simplification and burden reduction.

⁴ For greater certainty, this obligation may be met by publication of a separate but contemporaneous document.

Article 8 – Regulatory Impact Assessment

1. Each Party affirms its intention to carry out, in accordance with its respective rules and procedures, a regulatory impact assessment for planned regulatory acts.
2. when carrying out a regulatory impact assessment in accordance with paragraph 1, each Party shall ensure that it:
 - (a) considers the need for the proposed regulatory act and the nature and the significance of the problem the regulatory act is intended to address;
 - (b) examines feasible regulatory and non-regulatory alternatives (including the option of not regulating), if any, that would achieve the objective of the regulatory act;
 - (c) assesses potential short and long term social, economic, and environmental impacts of such alternatives and the anticipated costs and benefit benefits (quantitative, qualitative, or both, recognising that some costs and benefits are difficult to quantify).
3. when carrying out a regulatory impact assessment in accordance with paragraph 1, special attention shall be given to the impact of the regulatory act in development on SMEs.
4. Within the overall framework of regulatory impact assessments in accordance with paragraph 1, the regulatory authority shall, among other aspects, assess how the options under consideration:
 - (a) Relate to relevant internationally agreed regulatory documents⁵;
 - (b) take account of the regulatory approaches of the other party, when the other party has adopted or is planning to adopt regulatory acts on the same matter⁶;
 - (c) have an impact on international trade or investment.
5. The findings of regulatory impact assessments shall be published no later than the proposed or final regulatory acts.
6. The Parties shall promote the exchange of information on available relevant evidence and data, on their practices in assessing impacts on international trade or investment, as well as on the methodology and economic assumptions applied in regulatory policy analysis⁷.

⁵ For greater certainty, only regulatory documents adopted by international bodies or fora in which both Parties' regulatory authorities participate and to which they have agreed can be considered as "internationally agreed regulatory documents" for the purposes of this provision.

⁶ For greater certainty, this is an obligation for regulatory authorities to examine the approaches of the other Party on their merits, but not to a particular result...

⁷ Any exchange of information needs to respect the rules to be agreed on the exchange of confidential information and needs to be consistent with each Party's legal framework as to confidential information and information protected by intellectual property rights.

Article 9– Retrospective Evaluation

1. Each Party shall maintain procedures or mechanisms to promote periodic retrospective evaluations of regulatory frameworks.
2. The parties shall promote the exchange of experience and share information on planned retrospective evaluations.
3. Each Party shall make publicly available the results of any such retrospective evaluations.

[Article 10 Placeholder for a provision on Regulatory repository]

Article 11– Non-application of dispute settlement

Chapter XX (Dispute Settlement) does not apply to this chapter.

TTIP- EU proposal for Chapter: Regulatory Cooperation

Preamble to the TTIP:

The Parties, having regard to:

the importance of regulatory measures to achieve public policy objectives, and each Party's right to regulate and adopt measures in accordance with that Party's respective regulatory or administrative procedures to ensure that these objectives are achieved at the level that each Party considers appropriate and does not reduce, undermine or otherwise compromise the level of protection in the relevant public policy areas.

Article x1. Objectives and general principles:

1. The objectives of this Chapter are:

- (a) To establish an reinforce bilateral regulatory cooperation in areas where the Parties identify common interests and where this cooperation would benefit citizens, entities subject to regulation, in particular small and medium sized enterprises, as well as the public interest.
- (b) To contribute to the parties' activities pursuing public policy objectives such as inter alia a high level of protection of:
 - i. public health, human, animal and plant life and health; health and safety; working conditions; animal welfare;
 - A. the environment;
 - B. consumers;
 - C. social protection and social security;
 - D. personal data and cybersecurity;
 - E. cultural diversity;
 - F. financial stability;

whilst facilitating trade and investment.

- (c) to promote an effective regulatory environment, which is transparent and predictable for citizens and economic operators
- (d) to promote compatible regulatory approaches and reduce unnecessarily burdensome, duplicative or divergent regulatory requirements, including through recognition of equivalence, promotion of convergence and other methods, as appropriate;
- (e) to further the development and implementation of internationally agreed regulatory documents⁸ in order to achieve consistent regulatory outcomes with each other and with third countries.

2. Regulatory co-operation activities shall aim at improving, and not reduce, undermine or otherwise compromise the level of protection in public policy areas such as referred to under paragraph 1 a), as considered appropriate by either Party.
3. Nothing in this Chapter shall affect the ability of each Party to:
 - (a) adopt, maintain and apply measures without delay in accordance with deadlines under its respective regulatory or administrative procedures to achieve its public policy objectives such as those referred to under paragraph 1 a) at the level of protection it considers appropriate, in accordance with its regulatory framework and principles;
 - (b) provide or support services of general interest, including those related to water, health, education or social services;
 - (c) apply its fundamental principles governing regulatory measures in its jurisdiction, for example in the area of risk assessment and risk management⁹.
4. The provisions on this chapter shall not oblige the Parties to achieve any particular regulatory outcome.

Article x2. Definitions

For the purpose of this Chapter

- (a) „regulatory authorities“ means:
 - i. For the EU: the European Commission
 - ii. For the US: any rule-making authority at the central level of government, including any Executive Branch or independent agency that develops regulatory measures.
- (b) „regulatory measures“ means measures of general applicability¹⁰ concerning specific goods or services prepared by the regulatory authorities, including:

For the EU:

8 For greater certainty, only regulatory documents adopted by International Bodies or fora in which both parties' regulatory authorities participate and to which they have agreed can be considered as „internationally agreed regulatory documents“ for the purpose of this Chapter. Cooperation related to voluntary consensus standards developed by private standardization bodies is not covered by the provisions of this Chapter; reference is made to [Chapters on TBT, SPS and specific and sectoral provisions -to be identified].

9 For the EU, such principles include those established in the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union as well as in Regulations and Directives adopted pursuant to Article 289 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

10 For greater certainty, this does not include measures addressed to individual natural or legal persons.

- proposed regulations and directives to be submitted for adoption pursuant to Article 289 of the Treaty on the functioning of the European Union;
- Delegated and Implementing acts pursuant to Articles 290 and 291, respectively of that Treaty;
- measures which are not legally binding but have a de facto impact on rights and obligations of entities subject to regulation¹¹

For the US:

- Draft bills proposed by the US Administration to Congress;
- agency statements of general and future effect designed to implement, interpret, or prescribe law or policy or describing the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of an agency;
- measures which are not legally binding but have a de facto impact on rights and obligations of entities subject to regulation¹².

in respect to any matter covered by this agreement.

Article x3. Scope

1. The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to:
 - (a) Cooperations covered by specific or sectoral provisions concerning goods and services in this Agreement [to be identified];
 - (b) cooperation in any other areas or sectors covered by this Agreement that has, or is likely to have a significant impact on trade or investment between the Parties, in relation to which regulatory authorities of both Parties have determined common interest.¹³
2. This Chapter shall not apply to regulatory measures concerning those services to which Section 1 of Chapter II [Liberalisation of investment] and chapter III [Cross border supply of services] of Title [Services & Investment] do not apply.
3. In case of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Chapter and the provisions laid down in specific or sectoral provisions concerning goods and services [to be identified], the 11 NB: guidance documents related to requirements for the marketing/supply of individual goods/services in the EU or the US.

12 Idem

13 For greater certainty, it will be up to the relevant regulatory authorities of each Party to determine their interest in a particular cooperation.

latter shall prevail.¹⁴

4. Regulatory cooperation in Financial Services shall follow specific provisions set out in [to be identified – Financial Services chapter/section...]
5. Regulatory cooperation in competition and subsidies as defined by [to be identified -Article x2. of the Competition chapter/section or Subsidies chapter/section respectively...] shall follow specific provisions set out in that [chapter/section].
6. With the exception of Article x7., this chapter shall only impose obligations on the European Union and the United States.

Article x4. General provisions governing regulatory cooperation

1. The Parties shall pursue and keep under periodic review ongoing regulatory cooperation and, in this context, shall periodically update each other on any developments related to their upcoming regulatory measures. They agree to collaborate bilaterally and at international level with a view to identifying opportunities for cooperation and, where appropriate, aim at achieving common or compatible regulatory measures. To this end, Regulatory Authorities of either side will have the opportunity to propose to the regulatory authorities of the other side particular steps to deepen existing cooperation or to start new cooperation and will receive timely feed-back on their proposals. They shall incorporate in the Joint Annual Regulatory Cooperation Program referred to in Article x6. paragraph 2 those cooperation initiatives, which they consider joint priority and which have or are likely to have a significant impact on trade or investment between the parties.
2. When developing new or amending existing regulatory measures which will have or are likely to have an impact on cooperation:
 - (a) The parties shall provide each other opportunities for cooperation and information exchange, at the earliest possible stage¹⁵ to allow for the responsible regulatory authorities of both Parties to discuss regulatory objectives and opinions and any other related issue.

14 NB: It remains open at this stage whether in some sectors, such as for example chemicals, such specific or sectoral provisions might have a comprehensive character.

15 For greater certainty, US regulatory agencies shall provide cooperation opportunities before the launch of the (advanced) notice of proposed Rulemaking or in a timely manner before adopting or consulting on a guidance document; the Commission shall provide cooperation opportunities before the Commission adopts a formal position. Such cooperation opportunities do not imply any commitment to share draft texts before they have been made public under the respective regulatory or administrative procedures.

- (b) without prejudice to the parties commitments under Article x5. paragraph 3 and other international legal commitments, each Party shall take account of approaches by the other party¹⁶, when the other Party has adopted or is planning to adopt regulatory measures on the same or related matter.

Article x5. Specific activities promoting regulatory compatibility

1. Cooperation activities towards furthering regulatory compatibility will be conducted by the relevant regulatory authorities of both Parties. These activities should promote regulatory compatibility through different means and approaches, inter alia:
 - (a) Common principles, guidelines, or codes of conduct;
 - (b) mutual recognition of equivalence or harmonization of regulatory measures in whole or in part;
 - (c) Mutual recognition or reliance on each other's implementing tools, to avoid unnecessary duplication of regulatory requirements; such as testing, certification, qualifications, audits or inspections.
2. Natural or legal persons¹⁷ of both parties may jointly submit to the Parties concrete and sufficiently substantiated proposals¹⁸ for the regulatory measures, which may inter alia include any of the means and approaches identified in paragraph 1. The parties shall consult each other and, where they consider common approaches to be meritorious each Party shall provide timely feed-back on the submissions received and the Parties shall incorporate a cooperation initiative in the Joint Annual Regulatory Cooperation Program. Where the Parties have identified a common approach achieving further compatibility, each Party's relevant regulatory authorities shall launch the necessary regulatory procedures on this basis.
3. the parties shall co-operate bilaterally and with third countries in international for a, with a view to strengthening, developing and promoting the adoption and implementation of internationally agreed regulatory documents, where feasible including through presentations of joint initiatives, proposals and approaches.

16 For greater certainty, this is an obligation for Regulatory Authorities to examine the regulatory approaches by the other party on their merits, but not to a particular result.

17 No class of stakeholders should be accorded privileged treatment. Particular effort should be made to seek input from small and medium sized enterprises and public interest groups.

18 Each party should provide guidance to facilitate the submission of such proposals, taking into account in particular the needs of small and medium sized enterprises.

4. The Parties will promote cooperation at the stage preceding the regulatory process, including on research, when appropriate. This may include the exchange of any information relevant for this purpose.

[Placeholder for article on the exchange of confidential information between regulatory authorities]¹⁹

Article x6. Transparency and public participation

1. Regulatory cooperation shall be carried out in a transparent manner. To this effect, each Party shall:
 - (a) Take appropriate measures to ensure that any natural or legal persons²⁰ are provided timely opportunities to present their views on the progress of existing regulatory cooperation, propose new initiatives and activities²¹ and present their views on priority setting;
 - (b) provide timely information on its assessment of any contributions, received, and make the contributions publicly available, without undue delay, except to the extent necessary to protect confidential information or withhold personal data or inappropriate content.
2. A joint EU-US Annual Regulatory Cooperation Program providing an overview of ongoing and planned priority regulatory cooperation initiatives as referred to in Article x3. paragraph 1, shall be published by each Party on a freely accessible website and shall be updated at least once a year. The initial Annual Regulatory Cooperation Program shall include, as a minimum; all activities related to future regulatory cooperation covered by specific or sectoral provisions concerning goods and services in this Agreement [to be identified, see Article x3.a] and shall be published at the latest by the time of signature on this Agreement.
3. Each party shall consult on the Joint Annual Regulatory Program with a domestic advisory group composed by business including small and medium sized enterprises, trade unions and public interest groups, ensuring a balanced representation of all interests concerned.

19 NB: information exchanged in the course of regulatory cooperation shall only be used to further the objectives of the particular cooperation initiatives.

20 See footnote 10

21 NB: idem

Article x7. Regulatory cooperation at the non-central level²²

1. For the purpose of this Article, “regulatory measures at non-central level” refers to regulatory measures of general applicability to be adopted by the central authorities of a State of the United States and regulatory measures of general applicability to be adopted by the central authorities of a Member State of the European Union, except those that implement acts of the European Union institutions into Member State laws.
2. The Parties agree to encourage and facilitate regulatory cooperation on regulatory measures at non-central level in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter in areas or sectors where the relevant regulatory authorities of both Parties concerned²³ responsible for the development and adoption of these measures have identified a common interest. Regulatory authorities concerned will determine the modalities of the cooperation.
3. This article is without prejudice to more detailed specific or sectoral provisions concerning goods and services in this agreement [to be identified].²⁴

Article x8. Legislative proposals

1. This Article applies to proposed Regulations and Directives adopted by the European Commission, and to Congress bills introduced in Congress by Members of Congress.
2. The Parties shall keep each other informed in a timely manner on any legislative proposals that have or are likely to have an impact on activities covered by article x3. paragraph 1.
3. Each Party shall provide an opportunity within its respective regulatory or administrative procedures for the other party to present its views on a legislative proposal.

Article x9. Non-application of dispute settlement

The provisions of dispute settlement under Chapter XX (Dispute Settlement) do not apply to any matter arising under this Chapter.

22 For greater certainty, this article refers to a situation where cooperation concerns a measure at non-central level on either side.

23 For greater certainty, the relevant regulatory authorities concerned could be the regulatory authorities as defined in Article x2. b) of either Party on the one hand and the central authority of a State of the United States or the central authorities of a Member State of the European Union, on the other hand, as the case may be.

24 NB: For example, provisions in TTIP that may relate to the mutual recognition of professional qualifications that should be part of the chapter on services.

Annex

[Placeholder for provisions on the institutional set up for regulatory cooperation under TTIP]

Institutional set up for Implementation

The EU intends to submit after the February round detailed provisions on the institutional set-up to support regulatory cooperation under TTIP with a view to:

1. Monitor and facilitate the application of this Chapter;
2. ensure that proper priority is given to the implementation of specific or sectoral provisions in TTIP to pursue the cooperation initiatives agreed when TTIP is concluded;
3. support and facilitate the determination of areas of common interest.

Below are some of the essential elements that will be required for the set-up of such an institutional mechanism for cooperation in areas considered joint priorities. These elements are meant to form the basis for formulating legal text:

- Political Accountability: Progression regulatory cooperation needs to be regularly reviewed at Ministerial level with full participation by the relevant regulatory authorities concerned. At least once every two years a report will have to be presented by the latter to the EU-US Summit and to legislators highlighting the progress achieved in terms of specific regulatory cooperation initiatives. Such reports have to be made available to the public. Ministerial meetings will be prepared through a process that ensures full participation and involvement by the relevant regulatory authorities concerned, senior officials responsible for the implementation of TTIP and the authorities responsible for coordination of regulatory policies in both parties. In this context, particular attention should also be given by either side to ensuring proper involvement to legislators (NB: for the EU side the European Council and the European Parliament) on Regulatory Cooperation Initiatives.
- Effective Coordination: An effective coordination structure will have to be set up to monitor and enhance progress in ongoing co-operation activities and to help to identify those initiatives that would benefit from a discussion at Ministerial Meetings. Any such coordination structure requires the full involvement of the relevant regulatory authorities.

- Transparency: Stakeholders involvement is critical for the success of regulatory cooperation activities. All natural and legal persons need to be given the opportunity to provide input to ongoing regulatory cooperation initiatives and suggest new initiatives. Appropriate modalities will need to be established for a transparent dialogue with interested natural and legal persons, both at the Ministerial and Working Levels.

Completion of Domestic Regulatory or Administrative Procedures:

The institutional structure will provide support and advise to decision makers. It will not have the power to adopt legal acts neither will it replace an domestic EU nor US regulatory procedures which will be needed to implement regulatory cooperation initiatives. All provisions of the regulatory cooperation chapter will be applied in full respect of the right to regulate to achieve public policy objectives- decisions on regulations will be made by regulatory and legislative bodies or institutions. Each side will remain fully sovereign in setting the levels of protection it deems appropriate.